ENTHUSIASTIC OVER WESTERN RECEPTIONS

Royal Arcanum Entertained the Idmiral in Royal Style Last Evening at the Metropolitan Club Building.

After a seven days' absence, during which he swung around a wide circle of western cities and received an enthusiastic greating from the people of half a dozen states, Rear Admiral Schley returned to Omaha yesterday, and last night he and Mrs. Schley were guests of honor at the reception tendered them by Union Pacific council No. 1069 of the Royal Arcanum at the Metropolitan club. Preceding the affair at the club the admiral witnessed the first part of the performance at the Creighton-Orpheum theater.

The epecial train that carried the party arrived at the Union Pacific depot at o'clock. It was scheduled an impeded by the ovations that incidental to every stop, Notwithstanding the delay, however, there was a crowd of several hundred people on the platform and when the train pulled in they expressed their enthusiasm in a cheer of

In the head car was a magnificent floral reproduction of the "Brooklyn," presented to the admiral by the people of Salt Lake City in place of the which the admiral received at Council Bluffs, and which was left on Pike's Peak.

The party left the train immediately. It consisted of Admiral and Mrs. Schley, General and Mrs. Manderson, a maid and sten-ographer and General Manager Dickinson and General Passenger Agent Lomax of the Union Pacific, who met the train at Fremont. President H. G. Burt was also at the east this afternoon or tomorrow. depot to greet the arrivals and assist in escorting them to the carriage waiting at the other side of the depot.

were enthusiastic over their trip and they declared that they had enjoyed every foot of it. The general said that Admiral Schley was received with the greatest enthuslesm at every point along the route and this was supplemented by General Manager Dickinson, who asserted that the entire trip was one continual ovation.

The crowd at the depot followed the admiral to the carriage, which was about to leave at once, but was stopped by the desperate appeal of a photographer who wanted a chance for a snap shot. He was accommodated and then the party was driven to the Manderson residence for lunch.

The Arcanum Reception.

The reception tendered to Admiral and Mrs. Schley at the Metropolitan club last night was one of the largest and most enjoyable of the social functions that have marked their visit to Omaha. The members of the Royal Arcanum councils of Omaha, South Omaha and Council Bluffs participated in the affair, at the invitation of Union Pacific council, which had charge of the arrangements. The spacious club house was completely filled with the guests, and since the Royal Arcanum people were disappointed in their plans to entertain the admiral during his previous visit, they consoled themselves for the delay by making his reception a most elaborate affair. The club rooms were magnificently decorated with flowers and patriotic colors, and from 9 o'clock until well toward midnight the rooms were crowded with members of the order and their wives and sweethearts. council met the admiral and party at the Creighton theater, where they saw the first they proceeded to the club rooms, where yesterday. they received a hearty greeting from the entrance. It consisted of Admiral and Mrs. Schley, General and Mrs. Manderson and front of a magnificent bower of patriotic emblems, roses and smilax. For forty minutes the guests passed them in rapid procession. After the entire company had been cordially greeted by the guests of honor the latter were conducted to the refreshment room and a short time later to the ball room, where the other guests had already assembled to give them another ovation. The orchestra struck up the "Star Spangled arrive in Omaha Friday morning enroute Banner" and the official party passed to the center of the room, where they were been completing his studies of civil, electristopped by members of the committee who had prepared another and unexpected feature. With a short but very appropriate address Fred J. Sackett presented Admiral Schley with a handsome solid gold regent's land; C. L. Miller, Chicago; T. W. Zimmers, pin, which he asked him to accept as a memento of his visit in Omaha and in token delphia; A. G. Mucke, Hastings; C. E. Wilcott the esteem of the members of Union Pakins, Philadelphia; N. W. Stone, Chicago; F. effic council. This was followed by another D. Whiting, St. Joseph; Miss M. G. Crandell, furious handelapping and the admiral gracefully expressed his appreciation of the souvenir. He said:

My brother and my brethren, or my brothers, I might add: My interest in the Royal Arcanum has been great for a number years. I have had the pleasure of presidover six years as the regent of the council known as Farragut council No. 660.

I now understand for the first time in my life why this country of curs is so great, when I see the beautiful women and the ipon which they live, who have built an empire here in this continent, who have made a desert a paradise. And there is no wonder under such a flag, as we all love, that we deserve this place, from the fact that this great nation of ours has idealized woman. It has given her a place in our society where we worship her. We have not attempted in any way to depreciate her value and the onvequence is that a strong nation has been produced and we are a living and not a dyearlier, but its progress had ing nation. The Victim.

The man who lies in the hospital at the point of death is Charles Kelly. Unless he should happen to recover, the refugees will be held on the charge of murder.

The fight between Jones and Kelly that resulted in the use of the billiard cue as a weapon took place Tuesday night in Peterson's saloon, Twenty-first and Cuming streets. In the card room at the rear of the of the local electric light company. Presibar the two men were playing high-five for drinks. Looking on were Tom Jones, a 16year-old brother; "Doc" and Peter Green. There were charges of cheating and an exchange of opprobrious names. Kelly had been drinking hard and he accused Jones of taking advantage of his condition to manipulate the cards unfairly. Jones responded by daring his vis-a-vis to fight. Kelly accepted the challenge, making the provision that the matter be settled in the yard behind the saloon.

Falls Unconscious.

Kelly fell to the floor unconscious. Those in charge of the bar room did not consider the injury a serious one and wishing to avoid publicity they kept Kelly in the saloon, providing attendance for him there until Wednesday morning. Then realizing T. H. Best, ticket agent of the Burlington the injured man's condition they summoned the police. During the night Jones and his com-

More permits for building were issued last month by Building Inspector Dunscombe 1,300 hours in April. mits were issued in May, the majority being for residences. These permits range form $75 for repairs to $2,000 for a dwelfing. According to the cost of the structures already showing their heads, for which permits were obtained a total of $53,255 is shown. Inspector Dunscombe gives it as his opinion that those applying Sarpy Mills park on June 4. for permits give only about two-thirds of the value of the buildings to be erected. This is done in order to reduce the fee which the inspector receives for issuing the permit and looking over the plans. Taking $53,. 255 as two-thirds of the cost makes the City's Monthly Pay Roll. The city's monthly pay roll amounts to more than some people imagine. The men employed on the streets are paid out of the street repair fund and as this amount varies by the amount of work done it is hard to estimate just what the city pays out monthly for wages. The items mentioned are considered as fixed expenditures for labor performed by the various city employes who are either elected or appointed. At the monthly rate given the city pay roll costs annually $25,452.

WANT PEST HOUSE REMOVLD

Northsiders Continue Their Crusade to Have the Institution Located

Mayor Moores and a number of the city officials were present Wednesday night at a meeting of the North Omaha Improvement society at Thirty-second street and Ames avenue. Affairs of municipal government were discussed more or less freely. The chief aim in calling in the city administration was to get some concession from it in the direction of the removal of the pest houses in Miller and Fontenelle parks.

As to the former, the mayor's promise was that it would be removed as soon as a suitable site could be purchased. The advisory board, he assured the society, was now working on the problem. As to the one in Fontenelle park, in response to a promised that he would use his influence with City Attorney Connell to get him to a permanent injunction in place of the pres ent temporary one. The one now in force restrains the city from harboring there any cases of contagious disease other than small-

The mayor stated, however, that there was no money with which to buy a site and that it would require the most careful management on the part of the council and the city officers to bring the year to an end without a large deficit. Had the council not cut down the levy below a reasonable figure the things the north side justly demanded might have been granted before this. The fire box which had finally been ordered for North Omaha was an illustration. There would be no money for it and how it was to be paid for the mayor did not know. Mayor Moores took occasion to explain the difficulties which had been in the way of the location of the pest house. His own conviction had always been that no pest ouse should be located within the city limits and he had sought to have one located on the county poor farm. The city officials had made every effort to get the consent of the county commissioners to the location of one there, but had not been able to do

A Trial Package of a New Rheumatism Cure.

On the theory that "seeing is believing" one of our popular druggists will present to any person suffering from rheumatism a trial package of Gioria Tonic free of cost. It is done for the purpose of enabling every person to be convinced that it is a sure cure. Ask anyone in the store for a free trial package of Gloria Tonic and it will be given freely and gladly. Gloria Tonic recently cured a lady in Denham, Ind., who then cured 15 of her neighbors. In Kenteryille, idaho, it cured an unfortunate per-son who had been bed-ridden for 15 years. If there is anything under heaven that can cure rheumatism, a person ought to try it, no matter how many other remedies have failed. Regular size packages of Gloria Tonic sell at $1.00 or 5 one dollar packages for $3.50. We advise every sufferer to make a free trial test of this remarkable cure for rheumatism. Since then the advisory board had been looking about for a suitable place out side the city limits, but had so far found none. In reply to a suggestion regarding the use of the Winspear triangle, the mayor said that that was no fit place to send even County Commissioner Ostrum, who was present, sought to defend the action of the commissioners. He called attention to the fact that the county poor farm was entirely within the city limits. Moreover, the county commissioners as a body had never been asked to locate a pest house on the farm. Only two had been present when the request was made in an informal way, and as two commissioners could not act, it was more had been done.

desultory talk, interspersed with printed questions. Once a member implied that the mayor was present simply to smooth the trouble over with a sort of political speech Mayor Moores replied vigorously that such was not the case.

The meeting was filled in with much
