There is no appearance of order and the men are not uniformed, which is in other countries. But the apparent absence of discipline is only on the surface. Commandos are made up of burghers drawn from various districts, each man considering himself on an equality with any other. They are only subject to orders from their own district commandants, who in turn are responsible to the general. In the field all fare alike, the commissariat knowing no distinction. The only regulars are the state artillery, drawn from the sons of burghers, and paid about $2 a day. One of the principal features of the Boer langers in the campaign was the religious exercises each evening, when the men Transpacific mails are forwarded to port of sailing daily and the schedule of closing is arranged on the presumption of their uninterrupted overland transit. How an Organ Grinder Improved His Opportunities. John Philip Sousa has an Intense dislike the Saturday Evening Post, he came down from his home in Yonkers on the Hudson to New York City, and in front of the Grand Central station he heard an organ

"Thank you, sir," replied the organist owing profoundly. The next day Sousa came to town on the same train and found the same organ grinder in the same place playing "The Washington Post March" just as he had been taught the day before, but with much greater success. Murmuring and evidently awe-stricken spectators were dozens deep circled around the musician. Sousa forced his way to the a 4:50 pm a 8:35 am front to see the cause of the excitement.
