Mr. Brevard, when seen yesterday, said he was willing to give Hagans the benefit of the doubt, and did not intend to hold his bondsmen for his failure to carry out the contract. EMBEZZLEMENT IS CHARGED

John M. Lane is Placed Under Arrest for an Alleged Shortage.

ACCOUNTS OVER TWO THOUSAND SHY

Local Freight and Ticket Agent of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway in the Law's Clutches.

A surprise was sprung in local railroad circles yesterday afternoon when it became known that John M. Lane, freight and ticket agent of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railway in this city, had been arrested on a charge of embezzlement. The information charging Mr. Lane with embezzlement was filed in the court of Justice Ferrier yesterday morning by F. M. Robertson, traveling auditor of the railway company. Mr. Lane at once gave bonds in the sum of $500 for his appearance before Justice Ferrier tomorrow morning. The arrest of Agent Lane followed the checking of his accounts by Auditor Robertson from Chicago, who has been at work on the books here since Wednesday last, but no intimation had been given that anything was wrong or that there was any shortage in Mr. Lane's accounts. Inspector Geddes of the Surety company arrived from Chicago yesterday morning and at once, after a brief consultation with Auditor Robertson, went to Justice Ferrier's court, where he filed an information charging Mr. Lane with embezzlement with the greatest secrecy, and it was not until late in the afternoon that it became known that such had transpired. Mr. Geddes when asked for particulars declined to talk beyond the admitting that Lane was charged with the embezzlement of a considerable amount, but he was hopeful that things would straighten themselves out in a few days. Auditor Robertson also declined to discuss the matter, but when pressed admitted that he had been engaged Wednesday last in checking up Mr. Lane's accounts at the depot and city ticket office, and that there appeared to be a shortage of a large amount. What the exact amount was he said he was not at this time permitted to make public.

Lane Gives Bail.

The same secrecy was maintained at Justice Ferrier's office and no information was forthcoming there. Justice Ferrier stated that an information had been filed and that Mr. Lane had given bail for his appearance Monday morning, but declined to say by whom the information had been filed. He admitted that the amount with which Mr. Lane was charged with being short in his accounts exceeded $2,000. An examination of the court docket showed that no entry had been made of the information, issuance of the warrant or the arrest. Mr. Lane spent the day in company with the auditor and Inspector Geddes, and about 4 o'clock in the afternoon accompanied them to Omaha. He appeared to be very nervous and declined to talk about the trouble beyond saying, "I am in trouble and have nothing to say about it."

Amount of the Shortage.

It was ascertained last evening that the amount which Mr. Lane is charged with being short is $2,334. The information charges him with larceny by embezzlement and was filed by R. M. Robertson, traveling auditor for the railway company, and not by H. L. Geddes, the inspector of the bonding company, as first reported. C. R. Hannan, cashier of the First National bank, signed Mr. Lane's bond. Traveling Auditor R. M. Robertson went to Chicago last evening, but it is understood he will return here Monday morning. He has taken charge of both the ticket and freight offices and during his absence Will Butler, cashier at the freight office, will have control. After Mr. Lane's return from Omaha yesterday evening, he went to his home at First avenue and Eighth street, where he refused to see anyone or discuss the matter.

DECISION IN THE SHEA CASE.

Judge Smith of District Court Dismisses the Contempt Proceedings.

Judge Smith of district court handed down his decision yesterday in the contempt case brought by J. J. Shea against Mayor Jennings and the members of the city council in April last. Shea asked that the city officials be ordered to rescind the resolutions passed by the city council providing for the refunding of the general fund and water fund warrants and that on failure to do so they be deemed in contempt of court and ordered confined in the city jail until they should comply with the order. Shea took the position that the council in passing the resolution did so in defiance of Judge Townor's ruling in the injunction case brought by him to restrain the city from paying any of the outstanding warrants. Judge Smith corresponded with Judge Townor and the latter wrote stating that he had not in his ruling intended to prohibit the city from refunding any of its valid outstanding indebtedness. He accordingly dismissed the contempt proceedings brought by Shea. No sooner had Judge Smith handed down his decision than Shea bobbed up again with another petition in which he asked for an injunction to restrain the city from issuing the refunding bonds on the grounds that according to his calculation the city was already indebted beyond its constitutional limit. The city, Mayor Jennings, Treasurer Reed, Auditor Evans, Clerk Phillips and the members of the city council are named as defendants in the suit. Judge Smith issued a temporary restraining order and fixed the hearing on the application for Tuesday, July 18, at 9:30 a. m. The temporary restraining order prohibits the city from refunding the bonds or from doing any other matter or thing that would render such injunction if granted ineffectual. Judge Smith also handed down his decision in the case brought by the city against the Board of County Supervisors to enforce

SOCIETY IN COUNCIL BLUFFS.

Excursion to the Summer Resorts Made a Very Dull Week.

Outside of a few picnics and Fourth of July celebrations the last week in social circles has been almost a blank. The excursions to the summer resorts continues and all those who can get away during the heated term have either taken their departure or are preparing to go. Donkin of the Dakota division. Mr. Pool entered the service of the Ferguson Falls division in December, 1895, and has since made his home in this city. He has more friends to the square inch than any other man in town, and has been a social favorite among the young people; knows his business thoroughly and has ever been watchful for the interest of his employers. While we are sorry to have him go away, we are glad of his promotion and are satisfied that this is a step upward, which will in time be followed by another farther up. He deserves it, and is built after the fashion of the men that win.
