Big Railways Renew a Compact. SYRACUSE, N. Y., July 11.-The statement is made in this city that the reported compact between President Calloway of the New York Central and President Cassett of the Pennsylvania is in reality a renewal of a former treaty agreeing upon territorial limits in this state and Pennsylvania for the two properties and their branches. This agreement was made about the time of the lease of the Rome, Watertown & Ogdensburg by the Central and when the Pennsylvania was about to fit out its branch called the Northern Central with terminals at Sodus Point on Lake Ontario forfeits passenger business of the Great Lakes. The recent expansion of the Vanderbilts through the Beech Creek and Fallbrook lines and into Pittsburg was in violation of this agreement. The Herald today states that the real significance of the agreement made in New York was a new treaty and division of territory, which will put an end to the growth of the Central branches into Pennsylvania.

At the meeting of the executive committee f the Commercial club yesterday the comnittee decided to hold a mass meeting in the Chamber of Commerce hall Tuesday evening. He agrees to build a mill with a daily capacity of 1,000 barrels and capable of storing 60,000 bushels of grain if the citizens will take $15,000 capital stock. COAL SUPPLY RUNS SHORT Fires in the Local Smelter Are Allowed to Smolder and

. Die. On account of being unable to procure coal the fires in a number of the furnaces at the Omaha smelter have been allowed to die. Three of the lead furnaces are dead and some of the blast furnaces are without fuel with which to keep them in operation. As a result of this about 600 of the 800 men usually employed are out of work.

It is said that the conditions existing at the smelter are not due to any fault of the smelter people, but because it is impossible to secure a supply of coal. For weeks there has been a strike at the Iowa and Illinois coal mines. The supply of cheap coal here has been completely exhausted and it has there are no labor troubles, but this coal is Announcements. Theatrical amusement in the summer is ever enjoyable unless the resort is a cool and comfortable one, and during these sultry and oppressive evenings no cooler place is to be found in the city than the Trocadero vaudeville theater, where a bill is offered that is most diversified and amusing from first to last. Zazelle and Vernon, the pantomimic acrobats, are the best in their line that the country affords. Their act is never tiring and demands the constant attention of the audience. Musically inclined people find abundant enjoyment in the Chicago Ladies' quartette. The motion pictures which Harris and Walls present are always interesting and to everybody alike. Carl Charles, the equilibrist, does some wonder-fully clever work, Willis Pickert and Baby Blanche offer a cake walk that contains many new steps and movements, Josephine Harvey is a slide trombone soloist second to no other of her sex in the country, and the balance of the bill is equally as good as all of the above mentioned.

The Boyd theater will have its regular Wednesday matinee today, at which time 'he Woodward company will present "The Wife." The company is giving a very ex-cellent production of this play, and is drawing very satisfactory attendance, although the weather is exceedingly warm. The excellence of this production must be seen to be appreciated. Most of the comwill go carefully over the new rules adopted by the organization, in order that all the members may become perfectly familiar with given by this company than the one pre-sented for this week.

Commencing next Sunday matinee the ompany will give an elaborate production of David Belasco's great military play, "The Girl I Left Behind Me." Special scenic effects are being prepared and Mr. Woodward promises a complete production in every detail. A number of additional peo-ple are required for the large cast in this play. Mr. Lothian and Mr. Fulton will appear in the cast, there being no parts for them in "The Wife." Both of these gentlemen are well known to the patrons of this organization and are capable players. Knights of Khorassen. Concessionaires Meet and Demand that They Be Given a Square Deal.

WANT VALUE RECEIVED FOR THEIR MONEY

Dr. Miller Pokes His Nose Into Their Affairs-Hayden Bounces Cutright from Department of Publicity and Promotion.

In spite of the desperate efforts of the local official organ of the exposition to bolster up the enterprise by every possible means, whether reputable or not, the men who have put their money into concessions have began to see the handwriting on the wall, and murmurs of discontent and halfmuttered charges of various offenses could be heard on the Midway Monday. There practically was no crowd to attend the show during the day. The most interesting event of the day, however, took place during the afternoon, when the concessionaires held a meeting to see what could be done to benefit themselves and the exposition. There was a full attendance, all financially interested in the Midway shows seeming to realize that, if anything was to be done to help themselves out of the hole into which they had been plunged by the ignorance and incompetency of the managers, there was no time to be lost. The meeting was unanimously of the opinion that the exposition management owed it to the concessionaires to open the gates of Pain's Battle of Manila and the nightly fireworks to the public without charging for seats. Again, as the spectacle is considered one of the main attractions of the exposition, it is unfair to make a charge for viewing it; besides it monopolizes the attention of the visitors with its nearly three hours yesterday afternoon try- pyrotechnic display, and it is almost use less for any other show to attempt to do business during this time. . It was unani-Sheriff McDonald at the request of the ex- mously resolved that the management position management to serve on the ex- should be called upon either to make it a free show, or if this should entail too great missioners Harte and Ostrom took the view an expense, that the project be postponed. The next action of the meeting was not of any other deputy sheriff, or $10,000 in unexpected by the public. They denounced each case, while the three other members the officers of the exposition who were interested in Midway concessions, because

> Dr. Miller Sticks His Nose In. At this point Dr. Miller entered the room and remarked that he had dropped in by accident, and that it was the first intimation he had had that such a meeting was being held, which announcement was greeted with a dubious smile and several distinctly audible and emphatic expressions of opinion on the part of his hearers which were neither complimentary to the doctor's veracity of his intelligence.

> After the doctor had been disposed of the business of the meeting proceeded and a very emphatic protest was made against the retaining of so many cashiers. Many of the concessionaires stated that they had not taken in enough during the day to pay the salaries of the cashiers forced upon them by the exposition, without mentioning the other expenses they were under. One man particularly had a kick to register Last Friday his total receipts had amounted to 95 cents, and of this 20 per cent went to the exposition. He was also obliged to pay the cashier's salary of $52 a month and thought that the time had come when this sort of thing should stop. The outcome of the discussion was that many present threatened to close their concessions unles relief was afforded some time today. Hayden Bounces Cutright.

Another interesting feature of the exposition proceedings of yesterday was the disbeen impossible to replenish the stock. At charge of J. W. Cutright, superintendent of the Rock Springs mines of the Union Pacific the Bureau of Publicity and Promotion, by William Hayden, manager of the depart too expensive to use in the smelter furnaces | ment. All has not been smooth sailing in and consequently it is not bought and this department for some time because of shipped in. How long this condition will Mr. Cutright's refusal to recognize Hayden prevail the smelter people are unable to say. as the sole authority of the office. Some They are hoping for a speedy adjustment of days ago Mr. Hayden became possessed of the labor troubles, but are unable to offer the idea that the bureau was not doing as much work as it should and plainly intimated so to Mr. Cutright. As may be imagined such a remark was not calculated to increase the superintendent's confidence in his chief, but nothing was done at the ime. A day or so later Mr. Hayden again alled Cutright and informed him that hereafter he would have to get along with one stenographer, which Mr. Cutright emphatically refused to do, and for the time he was allowed to go on. Some weeks ago Mr Hayden made a contract for some $4,000 with a number of country papers for adverieing by means of the "patent inside," and the final trouble resulted over this. contract Cutright steadfastly refused to approve, and finally Mr. Hayden was compelled to assume the responsibility for the contract. Nothing was said at the time, but Mr. Hayden nursed his wrath and awaited an opportunity. It was covertly whispered that Cutright had been enjoying privileges and emoluments-in other words 'a rake-off"-that he was not entitled to by reason of his position, and there seems to be but little doubt that Mr. Hayden was the author of these stories.

The climax was reached yesterday, however. Mr. Hayden peremptorily reduced his clerical force to two stenographers and Cutright immediately lodged a protest with the directors. When Mr. Hayden entered the office and inquired what his superintendent was doing he was told sarcastically that there was nothing to do and was shown th desk filled with unanswered mail, which i was impossible to get out with the force at hand. Without paying any heed to the condition of affairs in the office, Mr. Hayden said: "If there's nothing to do, then you may as well go." And Cutright was looking

It is said that Hayden has been endeavoring for some months to get rid of his superintendent because of a personal grudge. Cutright is a newspaper man and well known in Nebraska. When the war on the department stores was started by the Penny Press some time ago Cutright wrote the editorials that arraigned the department stores of the city in general and Hayden's in particular. Hayden became aware of this fact and started out after the scalp of his superintendent. How well he succeeded is already known. And yet he is not happy. A mass meeting of citizens and exposition tockholders will be held tomorrow evening at the southeast corner of Sherman avenue and Locust street to discuss exposition affairs with a view of agreeing upon some plan to bring about a reorganization and
