NEW YORK, July 11 .- The St. Louis players made their first appearance today and were beaten after a scrappy game. It was a free hitting affair, both pitchers being touched up in a livley fashion and the fielding was loose. Brooklyn got enough runs in the first five innings to stand off a fine rally by the visitors toward the There was considerable kicking, especially by Tebeau. Attendance, 2,600.

Jeffries Will Not Meet Jeffords. SAN FRANCISCO, July II.—A telegram has been received in this city from Billy Delaney, Jim Jeffries' trainer, which seems to indicate that the champion has backed out of his proposed four-round go with Jeffords, the husky heavyweight from Angel's camp. Jeffries proposed to knock out his man in four rounds or forfeit $500. The National club made a match for next week and Jeffords arrived here today to sign articles. The following from Delaney, how-ever, would indicate that Jeffries is unwill-ing to meet the man who so nearly got a decision over him before he breame chain-pion: "Thall informs me that match is off. You better see him."

DIXON WINS IN TWENTY ROUNDS.

Tommy White Stays in Fight, However, Until End of the Contest. DENVER, Colo., July 11.—George Dixon featherweight champion of the world, was given the decision over Tommy White at the end of a twenty-round bout before the Olympic club tonight. Dixon led the fighting from the sixth round to the finish. Tommy's purpose being to avoid a knock-out and stay the limit. George's left hand work was the comment of all. He would swing from the ribs to the head and back again so quickly as to almost escape the eye. The attendance numbered 2.500.

escape the eye. The attendance numbered 2,500.

Dixon weighed in this afternoon at 1254 pounds and White at 120 pounds. The betting was 10 to 8 on Dixon and quite a bunch of money changed hands at these odds.

In the first round Dixon forced matters. Tommy blocked cleverly and landed several lefts to head and chest. There was no damage. The second round was very fast, George using his left to good advantage. Tommy did his share of the work, bringing his left to George's head and right hand to his left eye as the round closed. In the fifth Tommy displayed clever ducking and side stepping and thereby avoided the fierce rushes of Dixon. The latter was trying for a knockout. In the following round Dixon settled down to business. His hard lefts on Tommy's face and body visibly weakened the latter, who recovered only momentarily until the end of the fight.

From this on to the eighteenth round it was pretty much the same. George was strong and on the aggressive all the time. Tommy stemed dazed and led but little. He hung to George a good deal of the time. But Dixon could not place enough force in his blows, although he rained them on Tommy's body and head, to put him out.

In the last minute of the twentieth round George brought a hard left to Tommy's neck, which caused him to waver. It looked like the finish, but Tommy straightened out and put Dixon off until the gong sounded, when Referee Masterson announced that Dixon was the winner.

Members of the Board of Directors of the Greater America Exposition Are Given Something of a Setback.

Thirty of the directors of the Greater America exposition attended a meeting of that body held yesterday. They failed to complete the consideration of matters that called them together and for this reason an opportunity of expressing his mind and in they will meet at 4 o'clock this afternoon. Yesterday the consideration of resignations of members of the directory was the first order of business. The resignation of E. Rosewater, handed in some weeks ago, was taken from the files, accepted and E. P. Williams elected to fill the vacancy. J. L. Brandies resigned and Emil Brandies was elected as his successor and then followed the resignations of Herman Cahn and Thomas A. Fry. Walter Jardine was elected to succeed the former and F. Paffenrath to succeed the lat-

At this juncture in the proceedings Thomas Kilpatrick fired a bomb that brought on a discussion that continued a greater portion of the afternoon. He moved that the executive committee be increased from five to seven members. George E. Pritchett moved that the motion lay on the table, but the majority of the members wanted to hear a discussion on the motion and voted against tabling.

Chairman Smyth demanded of Mr. Kilpatrick his motive for offering the motion, say ing that he had received no intimation that the members of the executive committee were overworked or needed assistance. He declared that the motion was offered at the Spite of Unpropitious Weather. clared that the motion was offered at the CHICAGO, July 11.—Rain retarded the instance of some person who was desirous

"You are here in the interest of Rosewater and this movement is made at his dictation. Bond If you succeed in forcing these extra members upon the committee I will get out and President Miller tried to pour oil upon the roubled waters by declaring the motion out been impossible to send drafts for small of order, but Mr. Kilpatrick called for the reading of the articles of incorporation and be possible in the future to send amounts provided that the executive committee may under similar methods as those in operation be increased to seven members. However, President Miller held to his ruling and de clared the motion out of order, but this did not stop the discussion. Mr. Kilpatrick explained his position by saying that he has no love for Mr. Rosewater and that he had not discussed the matter of increasing the stre of the executive committee with that gentleman, directly or indirectly.

While upon the subject of Rosewater, Mr. Kilpatrick said that there has not been a report of the meeting of the Board of Directors, executive committee, or a report of the day at the exposition published in the World-Herald for weeks that has no CHICAGO, July 11.—The eastern yacht nagged Mr. Rosewater. The Genesses's elapsed time was 4:46:15. Josephine crossed the finishing line thirty minutes and eighteen seconds later. Prairie was dismasted shortly after the start and had to put back to port.

The Genesse's crew left for Rochester tonight and if the Chicago Yacht club decides to try the Briar, which will be completed next week, against the Rochester boat a Chicago crew will man the Genessee. If the Briar should prove faster than the Genessee with a Chicago crew aboard the Rochester crew will return and a series of races between the two will be arranged.

He Rosewater until the people have become tired.

"What I want," added Mr. Kilpatrick, "is to harmonize the committee and inject some new blood and do away with the friction that is reported to exist among the members."

J. B. Kitchen jumped into the arena by asking: "When The Bee assaulted this enterprise what could the World-Herald do?"

Replying to this, Mr. Kilpatrick answered by saying: "There is rarely a local report in the World-Herald that does not nag Mr. Rosewater until the people have become tired. was the statement in the local colums that Mr. Rosewater has been putting his hands into the treasury of this institution. Now I would not stand that and you can't blame Mr. Rosewater much if he fights back."

R. L. Metcalfe felt that he had an occasion for talking and going into the contest, replying to Mr. Kilpatrick, said: "The attitude of the World-Herald toward The Bee is none of the business of the exposition. You can't run the World-Herald and you might just as well let it alone and go on running the exposition."

Mr. Hayden Feels Hurt.

Mr. Hayden felt called upon to talk again, and getting the consent of the chair, declared that he is not a fakir. He said that dianapolis, 147.

It was presumed that all of the bad blood had been disposed of, but not so. Innocently Mr. Mercer moved that when the meeting adjourn it adjourn to meet next Tuesday afternoon. This motion had the same effect upon Mr. Haydan that would be expected if a red rag was flaunted in front of a mad bull. He was instantly upon his feet and gesticulating wildly, declared:

"You have paid $150 and if you are sick of your bargain I will hand you over that sum and you can get out of the exposition." Mr. Mercer, not being ready to quit, explained that he intended nothing personal. There being a slight cessation of talk, some of the reports were taken up and considered. John R. Key reported the arrival of 950 paintings, a lot of water colors and a number of pieces of statuary. James Walsh reported that twenty-seven Nebraska counties have taken space in the Agricultural building and that all of them will install their exhibits during the month. Superintendent Simpson reported all of the space in the Machinery, Manufactures, Government, Liberal Arts and Fine Arts buildings filled, with some exhibits in the Colonial and Agricultural buildings.

F. A. Nash moved that hereafter the exposition adopt a liberal policy with reference to the issuance of passes to parties who will assist in advertising the exposition and inducing visitors to come.

Rome Miller amended the motion by movcompany awarded a contract to the E. P. Allis company of Milwaukee for eight steam engines of 8,000-horse power, capable ing that season passes be issued to the president, secretary and members of the of developing in all 10,000-horse power. The amount of the contract was said at the Manhattan office to exceed $1,000,000. executive committee of the Transmississippi and International Exposition and their wives. Mr. Kitchen opposed this by saying: "We have been liberal; we are worked to death now issuing passes and still Mr. Miller wants us to throw the gates open and let everybody in on passes."

Rome Miller's Opinion. Replying to this Mr. Miller remarked: "I have heard that Mr. Kitchen is not a gentleman and now I know it. Neither by birth. instinct or education is he a gentleman." There might have been more to this episode had not other matters come up, but while they were being disposed of Mr. Kitchen happened to feel his sore spot and getting back to first principles declared that he will resign if there is any increase in the membership of the executive committee Then he thought of the pass question and said that not having had a pass last year he did not think the old exposition officers

Says Letters of Inquiry Must be Accompanied with Return Postage.

1711 Dodge street is about the busiest place in town for the past several days. Scores of people have tried to get into the sanctorum of Grant Chesterfield to have sauctorum of Grant Chesterfield to have their palms read and have failed. Yesterday the wonder-worker was inundated with mail and two secretaries were kept busy. Chesterfield interrupted the stream of patrons long enough to say: "This cannot be kept up. I wish you would be kind chough to say that letters of inquiry regarding the reading of palms through the mail should be accompanied with a two-cent postage stamp, and thereby assure the sender of attention. I shall do all I can to keep abreast with this tide, and am talking steadily twelve hours a day. I shall see all the people I can so long as I remain, but I must insist that pestage be enclosed." The fee for a life reading is 50c.
