LINCOLN, July 17 .- (Special.)-The past week has been cool, with showers in nearly all parts of the state. The average daily temperature deficiency was about 1 degree. The maximum temperatures the first days of the week slightly exceeded 90 degrees, but the last part of the week were about or below 85 degrees.

The rainfall has been above normal in most counties touching the Platte river and, with few exceptions, below normal in other counties. The heaviest rainfalls occurred where between two and two and one-half inches fell.

The past week has been another excellent growing week. In most parts of the state it has been a good week for harvesting. Threshing has commenced in southern counties. A few yields of winter wheat are remenced in the central and is nearing completion in the southern counties.

YALE AND HARVARD PRACTICE Selections Being Made for Final Tean and Individual Effort.

LONDON. July 17.—The members of the athletic teams representing Yale and Harvard universities were at practice this morning at the Queen's club. J. T. Harmorning at the Queen's club. J. T. Harrington (Harvard) and Morse (Yale) tried the long jump. F. Z. Fox (Harvard) went over the hurdles and C. K. Palmer (Yale), H. W. Foote (Harvard) and H. P. Clarke (Harvard) ran the three miles.

During the afternoon there were a number of contests with a view to the selection of the final team for the 100-yard dash. J. F. Quintan (Harvard), C. Dupee (Yale), F. A. Islount (Yale) and J. T. Roche (Harvard) finished in the order named. Time: 10-1-5 seconds. Quintan and Dupee were selected to run in the dash July 22.

A quarter-mile was run by N. R. Fisher (Yale) and D. Boardman (Yale). The first named led for three-quarters of the way, when Boardman spurted splendidly and won by two yards. Time: 50-4-5.

In the hurdles, 150 yards, J. W. Hallowell (Harvard) beat W. G. Fincke (Yale) by a yard. Time: 16 seconds. Although the question has not yet been finally decided, probably Hallowell will be Fox's partner in the running next Saturday.
