

RAIN IS THE ONLY FEATURE

Elements Given Full and Undisputed Swing at the Exposition.

GROUNDS RESEMBLE A DESERTED VILLAGE

All the Events on the Regular Card Declared Off for the Day—Good Results Expected Later.

Saturday.

11 a. m.—Indian band, Grand Court parade, 230 p. m.—Lieutenant Dan Geoffrey's British band at the Government building.

The cash balance resulting from yesterday's receipts at the exposition were upon the wrong side of the ledger. In fact, there were scarcely any paid admissions, and this lack of attendance has been charged up against the weather.

All the features of the day were declared off early in the morning. The rain did but little damage. The main buildings stood the thorough drenching remarkably well, though in places there were leaks.

FIRST GUN OF THE CIVIL WAR.

Interesting Relics of the Bloody Conflict of Thirty Odd Years Ago.

Among the many interesting collections in the Government building there are some that attract more attention than those peculiar to the civil war.

While the civil war was not officially declared on that date, the first gun was fired on April 12, 1861, at the hour of 4 o'clock in the morning, and was directed toward Fort Sumter.

INDIANS ARE LOCATED AGAIN. Now the Red Men Go Into Camp on the Bluff Tract.

The exhibition officials give it out officially that the Indians are located on the bluff tract.

Postponement of Venetian Carnival. Owing to the weather, it was necessary to abandon the plans for an elaborate evening of music and dancing.

Exposition Notes. The executive committee has sent an invitation to the Omaha Chamber of Commerce.

Mistake Causes Arrest. A very angry episode of the city was brought to a close by the arrest of a man who had been charged with disorderly conduct.

Robbed the Grave. A startling incident in which Mr. John Oliver of Philadelphia was the subject is narrated by him as follows: "I was in a most dreadful condition."

LOCAL BREVITIES. Dorothea Vedder has applied for a divorce from Martin A. Vedder on the ground of habitual drunkenness and non-support.

Chicago Conservatory. The suit of the Transmississippi Exposition for the return of the land to the city is dismissed on the application of the plaintiff.

MUSICIANS HAVE GRIEVANCE

Claim the Exposition Directorate Has Not Treated Them Fairly.

WATERS AND BARTENDERS ARE AT VARIANCE OVER A QUESTION OF SERVING DRINKS IN BEER GARDENS.

At the meeting of the Central Labor union last night considerable time was devoted to a discussion of the grievance presented by the Musicians' union against the directors of the Exposition.

One of the delegates expressed the opinion that the company before its reorganization had not used them fairly and that as there are many musicians now out of work employment might better be given them, where practicable, than to nonunion men.

Clay Lambert, advance agent for the Ringling Brothers' circus, is registered at the Millard. He has been receiving the good-natured joshing of many friends owing to the fact that a man who gave the same name to the circus was a well-known local character.

Repairs to School Houses. Architect Kiewit has three plans for the proposed public school building in the Second ward which he will submit to the Board of Education at the meeting next Monday night.

Personal Paragraphs. W. F. Blackman of Hastings is at the Millard. Jack H. Frost of Dallas, Tex., is at the Her Grand.

Slot Machines Disappear. All the slot machines in the city have been withdrawn from service and the old time vacancy about the saloons prevails.

Magic City Gossip. Jake Klein is home from a business trip to Chicago.

Encampment of the Grand Army. The national council of the Grand Army of the Republic has issued, perhaps, his last official general order.

INDIGESTION. Horsford's Acid Phosphate. Reaches the stomach in no other medicine.
