HEIRS BRING SUIT IN COURT

Endeavor to Recover Sixty Thousand Dollars from Thaddens J. Foley.

NEBRASKA CATTLE RANCH IS INVOLVED

Heirs of John M. Enlow, Formerly of Gordon, Cherry County, Neb., Invoke the Law to Secure Some Money.

defendant in a suit to recover $60,000, brought by the heirs of the late John M Enlow of Cherry county, Nebraska. The original notice of the suit was filed yesterday in the district court and the papers Omaha, were married in this city yesterday, in the case, it is said, will be filed tomor-

John M. Enlow and T. J. Foley, who i one of the principal officers of the Peru town of Gordon, in Cherry county, Nebraska. Enlow was a bachelor and lived on the city she is the guest of Mrs. D. W. the ranch, which he managed. He died Bushnell P. B. Young of Chillicothe, Mo., and Ruth Floyd of Indianapolis, Ind., were married in this city yesterday afternoon, the ceremony being performed by Justice Ferrier.

July 25, 1896, The heirs who are plaintiffs in the suit are: Mary E. Morgan, Francis M. Sigler, Andrew Sigler, George C. Sigler, Sarah A. Traverbraugh, Jarmelia E. Sigler July 25, 1896. The heirs who are plaintiffs and Altie B. Fox, a minor. As the basis of their suit, the heirs allege that the year following the death of John M. Enlow, Foley represented to them that his late partner was greatly indebted to him and also that as the ranch was indebted to the amount of $60,000, Enlow's interest in it was not worth much. Relying on these representations, the heirs, most of whom live in Indiana, say they sold their individual interests in Enlow's estate to Foley for $500 spiece and that in all he paid them about $3,000. Later, they allege, they discovered that Foley had misrepresented the true state of affairs to them; that instead of Enlow's interest in the ranch being worth little or nothing, he in fact died possessed of a half interest; that he was not indebted to Foley, and that there were no debts of any magnitude against the ranch. The ranch, which contains between 3,500 and 4,000 acres, they claim was worth, with the 3,500 head of cattle, some eighty head of horses and machinery, at least $120,000. Of the $60,000 which the heirs seek to recover, $10,-000 is for certain papers and account books belonging to the late J. M. Enlow, which they allege Foley took possession of at the time of his death.

A second suit in connection with the same ranch is brought against Foley by Alfred H. Davis, guardian of Lucy M. Holmes, a minor. Lucy Holmes is the daughter of a woman who acted as housekeeper for Enlow, and who is alleged to have had an in-terest in a certain number of the cattle and horses on the ranch at the time of Enlow's death. These cattle, it is alleged, were converted by Foley to his own use with the rest of the stock and $1,800 is asked for as the value of the stock.

FOR A MUNICIPAL LIGHTING PLANT.

Proposition from a Chicago Concern to Furnish the Capital. E. L. Draffen of Chicago, president of the Municipal Construction company, is in the city in the interests of the proposition made by his company to furnish the capital whereby the city can establish an electric light plant with the possibilities of ultimately owning it. He held a conference with several members of the city council yesterday morning at which the matter was discussed. Last evening another conference was held at the Grand hotel and it is expected that the matter will come up before the council for its action tomorrow night.

The proposition of the Municipal Construction company to furnish the capital with which the electric lighting plant is to be erected is conditional on the company securing the contract to build and equip it In the event of the council deciding to accept the proposition the whole matter will have to be laid before the voters of the city as the scheme involves the granting of valuable franchise.

C. E. Campbell, a member of the Board of Public Works of Des Moines, was in the city yesterday for a short time on his way west and he selzed the opportunity to pay Mayor Jennings and other city officials a visit. Mr. Campbell is considered one of the best authorities in the state on all matters pertaining to municipal affairs. When told of the proposition made by the Chicago company relative to an electric light plant he said he was a great advocate of municipal ownership of all public utilities, but was not always in favor of municipal operation. For instance, he said he was in favor of municipal ownership and operation of water works and was likewise in favor of municipal ownership of for governor. Bashor has been a preacher, street railways, but not in favor of them being operated by the municipality. In cities where the civil service system prevails, Mr. Campbell said he was in favor of the municipality operating as well as owning the public utilities. Civil service is not in vogue in this city and as the political complexion of the city's administration is apt to change every two years, Mr. Campbell did not think it would be altogether a wise thing for the city to attempt to operate any public utility such as an electric lighting plant.

Knoxville, Shenandoah, Oska-Huber discovered it. When he saw the hated sign Huber waxed exceeding wroth. He jumped to the conclusion that Colonel W. H. Knepher, boss of the city sewer gang, was responsible for the placard and he started out to hunt the colonel. He found him near the city building. Jumping from his wagon Huber corralled the diminutive boss of the sewer gang and while giving him a genuine tongue thrashing accompanied his remarks between each sentence with a box on the ears with his open hand. Huber weighs about 250 pounds while Knepher does not tip the scales at over 150 pounds. Colonel Knepher called on the police for protection and Huber being satisfied with the punishment inflicted got into his wagon and drove off. Knepher denies having attached the obnoxious placard to Huber's wagon and threatens to bring an action against him for Brings Suit for Alleged Overtime. Michael J. Higgins of this city brought suit in the district court yesterday to recover from Farrell & Co. of Omaha $149.12 which he claims is due him for working overtime. In his petition Higgins sets up that he was employed by the defendant firm during the months of August, September, October and of naming eighteen delegates to the state November of last year and that he was compelled to work over and above the regular hours of his employment. Most of this overtime, he claims, was put in at night and he figures that he worked in all 227 hours over his regular time. He thinks his labor for such overtime is worth 66 2-3 cents an hour. The convention finally instructed its delegation to vote for Rev. S. H. Bashor of Waterloo a newspaper man, a politician and an insurance agent, and now wants to be governor. The convention passed resolutions endorsing the Chicago platform and Bryan. Judge Kinne of the State Board of Control today filed a report on convict labor, and, in fact, labor for the inmates of all state institutions, he having just returned from tour of inspection of forty-seven state in stitutions in eastern states. The report ecommends that the convicts be employed n manufacturing bolts, stoves, boots, shoes, chairs, woodenware and gloves, and says the state can undoubtedly make a nice profit out of it. Woodbury County Democrats Would Bashor for the nomination for governor of the state. It was not so much that they tection against what might perhaps overdo not want Bashor as that they refused come weaker men with no reputation to to be tied up with instructions of any kind, although one man, J. republican and is now a populist. The convention was called for the purpose convention and it was after this had been done that Mr. Murphy introduced a resolution instructing the delegation for Bashor for governor that the trouble came up. The result was that Mr. Murphy's resolution was knocked on the head, but it was not until several democrats had said a few things about what they thought ought to be done. Still it is thought a large majority of the Woodbury county delegation vill support Bashor in the convention. Kelley is a delegate, but he has not much following. It was simply the result of an objection to be instructed that made the onvention turn the resolution down. GOVERNOR SHAW RESENTS IT

Certain Imputations on Returning Iowa Volunteers Vigorously Scored by the Chief Executive.

They may arrest you, they may try you, they may convict you, but they shall not hang you. I'm governor of Iowa."

That spirit of patriotism is not dead on Iowa soil, and while heroic measures will not be necessary now, I am free to say that no returning Iowa soldier need fear to resent
