This appropriation was made with the condition that of the anity is the cause of civilization. By the amounts voted $350 might be drawn from the deputy's salary and $250 from the clerk's salary to compensate the clerks employed in the insurance department of the auditor's office prior to the taking effect of the Weaver act. As the appropriation made by the legislature of 1896 had been exhausted by January 1, this year, this provision was necessary because the Weaver act did not go into effect until July 1 and some compensation had to be provided for the auditor's insurance clerks for the intervening period.

CORNELL PLAYS THE CASUIST

Two more appropriations, one of $600 for postage and revenue stamps and one of $1,200 for express, telephone and telegraph tolls were also made for the new insurance department created by the Weaver act. In this appropriation no provision was made allowing the auditor or his clerks any portion of the amounts.

Without any authority whatever Auditor Cornell has allowed six claims against these funds, amounting in all to nearly $200. Two vouchers for $50 each were drawn for post age and revenue stamps, one of them being in favor of J. J. Everingham, the insurance clerk in the auditor's office.

Claims Against Appropriation. Following is a list of the claims against the appropriations for the insurance department that have been allowed by Auditor Cornell since the first of the year: April 29, J. J. Auditor Cornell has made no attempt to conceal his action regarding the allowance of these claims, taking the stand although the law is unconstitutional he still has the right to use the funds appropriated by the act. The using of these funds tends to complicate the insurance muddle. W. J. Bryant has at his own expense contracted for printing and supplies and should the law be upheld in the courts he will probably have to look to the next legislature for remuneration. The settling of the case will entail considerable expense and in the contest Auditor Cornell has nothing to lose and much to gain in the way of causing trouble for Governor Poynter and the employes of the insurance department.

And Women Dr. Bennett's Electric Belt offers a Guaranteed and Permanent Cure-Drugs Will Not Cure -They Oppose Nature-Other Belts Burn Frightfully.

To weak and debilitated men and women I offer a free book if they will only write for it. It will tell you just why drugs will not cure and why Electric-ity is now the greatest remedial agent known to modern science. I could give drugs if I wanted to and make a great deal of money by doing so-lt does not cost a cent to write a prescrip-tion; but I could not give you drug treatment and be honest, for I know drugs will not cure-they only temporarily stim-ulate. I am the inventor of WASHINGTON, Aug. 8 .- Forecast for Generally fair, and continued high temperature Wednesday and Thursday; variable slightly benefit one man will literally tear down the constitution of another. Electric-ity alone stands unassallable. It is the Vital and Nerve Force of every man and woman —It is life itself. When there is a lack of Electricity in the system you are sick. My Belt is to supply this lost Electricity. The only trouble heretofore with electric belts and batteries was that the current did not penetrale the system, but was re-tained upon the surface. which caused frightful burns and blisters. I have done away with all that. My Belt has soft, sliken, chamols-covered sponge electrodes that render this burning and blistering d physical impossibility and allows the sn-tire current to penetrate the system with electrodes of the old-style maken. When worn out it can be renewed for only T6 cents. No other belt can be renewed for any price and when worn out is worthless. I guarantee my Belt to cure Sexual Im-potency, Lost Manhood, Varicocele, Bper-matorrhoes and all forms of Bernal Weaknesses in either sex; restore Shrunk-en and Undeveloped Organs and Yitality; cure Nervous and General Dobility, Kid-ney, Liver and Bladler Troubles, Chronio Constipation. Dyspepsia, Rheumatism in any form. All female complaints, etc. The prices of my Belts are only about half what is asked for the old-style affairs and I warrant mine to be four times stronger, Generates a current that you can In-stantly feel.
