Actual Payments Through Clearing Houses Much Larger Than Last Year.

AN ASTONISHING INCREASE OVER 1892

Demands for Actual Use Control Business and Prices-All Industries Behind Their Orders.

NEW YORK, Aug. 25.-R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade will say tomor-

Nothing is more eloquent than the facts. Actual payments through the principal clearing houses were 23... per cent larger than last year and 56.2 per cent larger than in the same week of 1892. For the month thus far the daily average of pay-ments has been 26.3 per cent larger than last year and 56 per cent larger than in Tonnage from Chicago in three weeks has been 80.7 per cent larger than last year and 74.6 per cent larger than in 1892. It will not be suggested by anybody that such an astonishing increase over the most prosperous of all past years except the last vas expected. Most people really regard last year's expansion as something like a freak. Nor is the difference in amount of prices of several hundred articles actually range lower now on the whole than in August, 1892.

It is a consumers' business also. Perhaps never before have demands for ac-tual use controlled business and prices with so little speculation to anticipate In fact, the rise in most higher markets. articles has gone further than speculative opinions have warranted. Nearly all industries are some months behind the requirements of actual use and in many much of the output next year is already sold.

Iron works which supply Pittsburg are sold up far into 1900 and can do nothing, though prices much beyond what they re-ceived are paid by those who must have tron this year. The enormous demand for more railroads and rails and cars, more vessels, warehouses and buildings to handle the extraordinary business in progress cannot be met as quickly as some would and work of all sorts is delayed, from the biggest war vessel to the smallest fac-

Prices have risen quite generally 214 cents per pair, but the only shrinkage in orders as the season wanes is welcome to producers already committed far ahead. Shipments in three weeks have been 13 per cent greater than in any previous year and 25 per cent greater than in 1892. Leather rises fur-ther, especially for upper, with demand beyoud precedent and large producers sold for months ahead, and hides at Chicago are meeting with heavy sales ahead of Cotton goods also have further advanced in lines not affected by proposed consolida-tion and the demand for woolen goods gone beyond all expectations. les of wool are enormous, 35,677,190 unds in four weeks, 30,119,490 pounds sales of wool are being domestic, with prices generally un-changed, though concessions are now made procure sales in some lines. Sharp fluctuations in cotton show how fears of in-tury by drouth in Texas and elsewhere would affect the market if there were not on hand about 10,000,000 bales of old cotincluding 800,000 bales in European and probably 500 bafes in American mills. Consumption is enormous, but it cannot ex-haust such supplies soon. Reports of in-jury to wheat in the northwest have likewise affected the market but little. Western receipts no longer keep up with the ern receipts no tonger extraordinary movement a year ago, fall-ing 1,800,000 bushels behind for the week, but for four weeks have been 15,387,414 for four weeks have been

At the same time on Friday the disposition was to await today's bank statement and the market became dell, with more or less irregularity. As was the case during the preceding week, the principal bullish manifestations were in the low or medium priced stocks. A number of these were again the objects of efficient pool manipulation, which attracted both professional and public buying support.

There were, however, indications of interest in some of the higher priced dividend payers, based on suggestions that the present remarkable earnings of certain properties might justify larger divisions of profits among their shareholders. There were, however, no remarkable movements in this portion of the share list and apart from the rises in the outside stocks, Leather, Cotton Oil and Tennessee Coal, the indus-trials were neglected, the only other exception being a decline in American Steef and Wire. This fact was attributed partly to manipulation from this side, but more particularly to appreciation on the part of the British speculative interests of the effect of favorable crop and business conditions and continued increases in earnings n the position of many American railroad properties, particularly those whose securiies are selling at moderate figures. The crop outlook, as well as the ac-

BRADSTREET'S REVIEW OF TRADE Strength in Prices and Steadiness of Demand the Salient Features. NEW YORK, Aug. 25.—Bradstreet's tomorrow will say: Strength in prices and steadiness of demand are still the salient features of the trade situation. Iron, steel and other metals, most of the cereals, leather and cotton goods manifest upward tendencies as to prices. Other staples, with the exception of sugar and anthracite coal, retain all their old firmness. Fall demand is expanding at most markets, particularly good reports being received from the northwest and that portion of the corn-growing country which this year seems to be notable for surplus production.

Aggressive strength and firmness are noted in iron and steel, particularly at central western markets. Consideration of bushels, against 14,356,821 bushels last year central western markets. Consideration of Atlantic experts were slightly larger than next year's needs now seems to be the last year, while Pacific experts have been most prominent feature of the trade, aside exports were tural material, which has moved up $5 per ton, closely followed by steel billets, with against 9.318.113 bushels for the same weeks an advance of $3, and steel rails and nearly all grades of pig iron with relative gains Other metals show sympathetic strength, Failures for the week have been 163 in notable in this respect being tin and lead Among the cereal's wheat was quite firm all the week, partly owing to a whittling Washing down of northwestern estimates, but also Peorla due to steady demand for the cash article alike on foreign and domestic account. The relative scarcity of cash corn is responsible for the advance shown this week in the face of a concededly large production. The shadow of the Neill estimate is still over the cotton market, which, howacter of the speculation there will be some indications that public interest in the stock market is growing. The tone this week has also been on the whole a strong one and also been on the whole a strong one and are tarding manufactured goods, quotations of which A sudden cut in prices of refined sugar has led to the impression that the sugar war will be reopened in all its flerceness.

Additionally strong features in the gen-Transit. That incident temporarily inter-rupted the upward progress of prices, though it was resumed with an approach to prices and the firmness in the higher grades with inter- eral trade situation are the active demand of wool, notwithstanding their active buying. A supporting feature in this latter however, is the active demand reported for men's and women's wear woolens, Conditions of supply and demand seem to e at the bottom of the recent rise in beet New Bedford ... rices. The advance has attracted increased Knoxville, Tenn. receip's of grass-fed cattle and some shade have only been equaled five times in twenty-two years. There are nearly 10,-000,000 less beef cattle in the country than there were seven years ago, and in fact there are fewer cattle in the country now than in any year since 1882. Reflection of the smaller supply of hides and of the active demand for boots and shoes is found in higher quotations for hemlock sole feather at some markets. One of the least satisfactory situated trades is that of anhracite coal, in which production appears to have outstripped consumption again and there is complaint of price cutting.

Wheat, including flour, shipments for the week aggregate 3,343,825 bushels, against Litt 4,040,009 bushels last week, 3,563,476 bushels Held
