Bee, Aug. 31, '99.

Special Sale of Summer Corsets

The following popular makes of summer corsets at just one-half price. They are all perfect fitting models made of the best summer nettings or batiste-long pany, composed of young women, fell in line,

then the members of the First, under Corporal Eli Sisson, as follows: Fred and Pat

Fitzgerald, Guy Green, Fred Larsen, Henry

Thompson, Charles O'Donnell, Gus Raushe.

John Hedlund, Charles Henderson, George

brook, Simon Simonson, Affred Powell,

After the men, a company of little fel-

COMPANY H IS WELCOMED

Nelson Experiences the Greatest Celebration Ever Known in That Thriving Community.

NELSON, Neb., Aug. 31 .- (Special Teleprominent citizens of the county.

Boys from Manila.

FULLERTON, Neb., Aug. 21.-(Special.)-

Grant Chinn, Its Only Remaining Solcler, Given a Welcome Home. ST. PAUL, Neb., Aug. 31.-(Special.)-

This afternoon Grant Chinn, the last one of the noble service of those who re-with bands of music, tolling of all the church bells and firing of cannon, repaired to the B. & M. rallway station to meet and made a day of rejoicing. In the evening a reception, with speeches and singing of Spanish and Philippine wars occupied the Fremont Greets Corporal Hall.

FREMONT, Neb., Aug. 31.-(Special.)-

Corporal Hall of Company H, First Nepeople, with band and flags, and escorted Fremont's other two soldiers, Foy and Help Milligan Celebrate.

GENEVA, Neb., Aug. 31.-(Special.)-

The Forby Guards and most of the boys of Company G helped Milligan celebrate

The town was crowded with visitors all

Estate Dealer, Fails for $1,483,137

CHICAGO, Aug. 31.-August Jernberg.

local real cetate dealer, today confessed bankruptcy, placing his liabilities at $1,433,-

050: C. E. Johnson, Omaha, $17,500: Union

National bank, Omaha, $16,982; S. A. Tolman, $205,906; Illinots Land and Loan company, $245,341; Augustana college and theo logical seminary, $14,336; Dane County State bank, Wisconsin, $23,207; Carl Elving,

Omaha, $12,000; Ralph Metcalf, receiver for August Jernberg was in the ice business in Omaha under the Arm name of Jernberg failed in 1893 and since then he has been concerned in no business enterprises in this tional bank says that the statement that Jernberg owes the bank $16,000 is entirely untrue. He does not ewe the bank a dellar.

President Wattles of the Union Na-

& Rylander about seven years ago.

Dime Savings bank, $290,000.

and No Assets.

the arrival home of the Fighting First.

received much praise and applause.

August Jernberg, a Chicago

Kelley, are expected in tomorrow.

velcome the returning hero. In fact it was given to Company C.

H." and "Old Glory."

Steward Kennedy, Oscar Marshall

medium and short models—

CR. & G.), (W. B.), (G. D. Chicago Walst), (Ferris Good Sense Walsts), (Kabo with patent loop eyelets), (J. B.), (Royal Worcester, W. C. C.) Corsets that sold always at $1,00 and worth it. On sale Friday and Saturday at 50c each. A bargain if we have your size.

P. D. Summer Corset made of a strong imported netting-made to fit-durable and comfortable. Regular price $2.00-price to close $1.50 each.

AGENTS FOR FOSTER KID GLOVES AND McCALL'S PATTERNA.

THOMPSON, BELDEN &

THE ONLY EXCLUSIVE DRY GOODS HOUSE IN OMAHA.

speak

Y. M. C. A. BUILDING, COR. 16TH AND DOUGLAS STS

ing employment. This department should Republic post's control after the post com-be made of service to them, pany, composed of young women, fell in line, All persons wanting help are earnestly invited to communicate their wants at once to this bureau. Address S. J. Kent, deputy commissioner, free employment de-partment, Bureau of Labor, Lincoln, Neb.

AIR IS RENT AT BROKEN BOW Thompson, Charles Daletedt, Henry West-

Company M Greeted with the Great est Demonstration Ever Witnessed There-Reception Today.

BROKEN BOW, Neb., Aug. 31 .- (Special | Telegram.)-The long wished-for event was fully realized this afternoon in the arrival home in a neat speech. Then three of Company M in this city over the B. & M. As the train pulled in at 5 o'clock this afternoon, bearing the members of Company M, they were greeted with the greatest demonstration ever witnessed here. Fully 1,000 people had assembled at the depot, cheering, the clanging bells, blasts of whistles, blowing of horn and bands of music rent the air.

Mothers, sisters and everybody else, were crowding the cars, intent on being first to grasp the hand of their loved ones. For tunately but two of the company were killed in battle and their parents did not live here. It was a joyous meeting for both the men and ther relatives. After the great rush was over a number of the men held impromptu receptions and thus were enabled to greet most of their friends. The Grand Army was on hand to escort the boys up town, but all formalities were dispense! with and each went his way accompanied by relatives and a squad of wimiring

Captain Talbot brought pome with him : Spaniard, who came to the company sick and nearly starved, but who now is, as the captain remarked. "fat enough for beef." Lieutenant Hannis of Company G of Geneva and Lieutenant Fisher came home with the boys and will remain over tomorrow for the big reception. The business houses and streets are elaborately decorated in holiday attire and everybody is getting ready for a big time.

A special train will be run from Ravenna to Broken Bow tomorrow and hundreds of people from towns along the line are expected here to help the citizens to celebrate the home-coming of the company. A company, residing at Ansley, who stopped at home this evening, will be here at the reception and will be

MADISON GREETS COMPANY F

Imposing Demonstration is Attended by a Great Crowd with Patriotic Exercises.

MADISON, Neb., Aug. 31 .- (Special Tele- Fullerton Waiting to Greet Its Soldier gram.)-Company F arrived last night and was met by a band and a big crowd. Sixteen girl rough riders met them at Columbus The whole town is astir with excitement and and at Humphrey they were joined by an- expectation over the return of the band other company, who returned with them. enen and Company B. First Nebraska regi-This morning a procession was formed at the ment. The newly organized band, accom-Over 800 people had arrived at noon and over and the citizens' reception committee, went my opinion, I declare I believe he is inno-1,560 pe pie were in line of parade, which to Columbus last night to meet the boys on cent." was formed as follows: Marshal, Newman their arrival there. A big demonstration Grove; Madison band, Lady Cadets, twenty- has been prepared for them when they ar- Paty de Clam's theatrical devices to sureight girls dressed as rough riders, Norfolk rive and a reception will be given them prise Dreyfus, to which Forzinetti declined hand. Company L. Nort lk Knights of September 7. Hon. W. F. Gurley will be to be a party, and the major also said that Pythias, Creston band, Grand Army of the orator of the day. Lieutenant Storch ar- on one occasion when Dreyfus was in a Republic of Norfolk, Humphrey and Madison, rived home unexpectedly yesterday and left crisis of despair he, the witness, remained Creek band. The march was east on Main street, around several blocks and south on Main to the ST. PAUL SUSPENDS BUSINESS. dining hall. A triumphal arch, with the national colors and picture? of the heroes of the war, was placed over Main street A fine banquet was served to the bands at the pavilion. The exercises at Hein's opera house drew a big crowd. A great demonstra- of the St. Paul volunteers, and the only one tion was made on the entry of Company F. The audience was addressed by Colonel J. E. Simpson and John R. Hayes of Norfolk, Prof. Perdue and Congressman John S. Robinson of Madison. Robinson introduced suspended and nearly the entire population, a Spaniard to the audience.

WESTON ENTERTAINS THE BOYS.

Receive Welcome Four WESTON, Neb., Aug. 31.—(Special.)—The patriotic songs took place in the opera Weston soldier boys arrived home last even- house, where all the volunteers of the late ing and the citizens and friends were present at the depot in throngs to give them seats of honor on the stage. a hearty welcome. As the train came in sight bells, steam whistles and anvils set up vociferous noise that did not cease for one hour. Flags were waved in profusion, and people shouted themselves hearse. The braska, arrived home this afternoon. Weston band played several patriotic was met at the depot by a crowd of 1,000 airs and then escorted the returned in blue to the Commercial to his father's house.

to partake of a sumptuous banquet. After supper an interesting program was rendered in front of the hotel. O. Worrall presided se tossimaster and welcoming addresses were made by Jacob Mauck and County Treasurer J. L. Coleman. The following toasts were responded to by the soldiers: "Mustered Out," Fred Rockafellow; "First Experience on the Firing day. The Guards were treated royally and Line," Carl Stevens; "Honolulu," "Hardtack, Etc," N. A. Tuveson; "Letters From Home," B. W. Liggett; "Life in the Philippines," Walter E. Hill. Music HAS CREDITORS IN OMAHA was furnished by the Weston band, a male quartet and others, and added much to the spirit of the program.

ST. EDWARD HAS A GAY TIM!

Squad of Fifteen Men Are Received with Noise and Enthusiasm. ST. EDWARD, Neb., Aug. 31.—(Special Telegram.)-The delegation that went to 137, without assets. The principal creditors Columbus to meet the St. Edward boys gave are the Union National bank, Chicago, $59,them a royal reception all the way from Columbus to this place and at this station nearly 2,000 people were gathered to cheer them home. Bells and whistles were turned loose and cannon fired. A parade was formed under the Grand Army of the

Hood's Pills

Do not gripe nor irritate the alimen tary canal. They act gently yet promptly, cleanse effectually and

Give Comfort

Dreyfus Acknowledges that His Wife's Influence Averted Suicide.

STURY OF PRISONER'S TEMPTATION TOLD

Forzinetti Describes Soldier's Desire for Death Before Dishonor-Recital Proves Too Much for the Prisoner.

(Continued from First Page.)

calmly declaring that Captain Lebrun-Dattel was present during his conversation with Captain Lebrun-Renault was Insecurate. prisoner, did not speak to him.

and, accompanying his words with short, em- it well. He told Du Paty de Clam to tell phatic gestures of the right hand and quivering with emotion, protested that Captain that if I communicated documents to Ger-Lebrun-Renault should have repeated to his many they were of no importance, and it chiefe his utterance, which began with a was to obtain more serious and more improtestation of innocence, without asking portant documents." him to explain his words.

"Those are maneuvers," cried the prisoner, "which must fill all honest men with

This declaration of the prisoner made a deep impression on the audience.

Dreyfus spoke the last words through his teeth, and was evidently laboring under and was immediately surrounded by several the greatest excitement and indignation. The audience broke into "bravos," which the gendarmes immediately suppressed. Captain Antoine followed and repeated what Captain Dattel had said confirming the confession. Dreyfus replied that he had not spoken to Captain Dattel. lows marched, then citizens on foot and in On being recaclled Captain Lebrun-Renault carriages. The march was made through said this was true, but he added that Capthe principal streets to the bandstand, tain Dattel was present and could have overwhere Comrade John Travis welcomed them heard the conversation.

M. Labori here pointed out that Captain cheers and a tiger were given. The recep- Dattel had not spoken to his chiefs on this tion will be held next Tuesday, September subject, and General Mercier, who, like all 5, when there will be a big program carried the military witnesses, followed the proceedout. Assistant Secretary of War Melklejohn Ings today with the keenest attention, rose and Hon. M. W. McGann of Albion will and admitted that this was correct.

Meaning of Letters Distorted. not explained why he mentioned the term of No mention was made of the confession and three years, to which Dreyfus replied: did not give three years as the term. only said I hoped that in the course of two ognized. And I wish to state, my colonel, that I had no relations with the press." that, as my letters to General Gonse show. gram.)—This has been a red letter day in have sought to give them."

Nelson. Fully 15,000 people were out to extend welcome to the boys of Company H. to the bar and asked him if he had not brought hundreds of people from surround- revision comed by Hon, E. D. Brown. This was re-Major Forzinetti, who was governor of the Cherche Midi prison during the time Drey- that purpose. sponded to by Lieutenant Alexander Van fus was imprisoned there, and who testified Valin, on the part of Company H. A feast in behalf of Dreyfus, declaring he had never was spread for the company and all vetheard of the confession Dreyfus is said to erans of the late war, after which an hour was spent in short patriotic speeches by repeated his testimony before the court of In the evening the Hebron Military band entertained the crowd for an hour with a and that neither of them ever aliuded to newspaper. program of fine selections. The day was the alleged confession. The witness deaccompanied by the Ansley and Favenna closed with a fine display of fireworks, a clared that he once taxed Captain Lebrun- you came to the Elysee for? pieces of Renault, before General Gonse and other Colonel Stotsenburg, "Welcome Company witnesses, with saying he had spoken to the witness (Major Forzinetti) of the confession This was the biggest day ever experienced and that Captain Lebrun-Renault did not

General Gonse replied that he had not. At 11 o'clock occurred the parade, which whereupon M. Labori asked that the letters was the fenture of the day. It was over exchanged between General Gonse and you when you mentioned the confession to two miles long. There were about 300 Colonel Picquart should be read. The clerk him? veterans of the civil war in line, who acted of the court began to read a letter beas escort to the men just returned from the ginning: "My Dear Picquart-" when Gen-Philippines. The Ruskin delegation brought eral Gonse interrupted him and asked that It was accompanied by a well drilled mili- first, but as the letter was not available then tary company of little boys and girls. At for the moment the reading of all the letthe park the company was formally wel- ters was adjourned until tomorrow.

> "Whereupon," Major Forzinetti said, "I ASTIR WITH WILD EXCITEMENT. seized his arm and cried: 'If the words repeated as yours are true, you are an infamous liar. Major Forzinetti then declared that on viciting General de Boisdeffre to express fears about the health of the prisoner, the general asked him his opinion of Dreyfus and the major replied: "My general, had you not put that question to me I would depot, headed by the north Norfolk people. panied by the members of secret societies have kept my counsel. But since you ask

The witness then recounted Colonel Du Madison and Norfolk fire departments, Battle today for Beatrice to attend the reception with the prisoner, consoling him, until 3 o'clock in the morning. Colonel Jouanst asked Major Forzinetti if Dreyfus ever had ideas of suicide and the witness replied that Dreyfus had asked him for a weapon, and that also after his condemnation was read to him he was with difficulty prevented from dashing his head against the wall.

After the last visit of Du Paty de Clam wounded in action, returned from the Philippines, and to show their appreciation prisoner wrote to the minister of war a letter which concluded with the words: "When sponded to their country's call, business was I am gone, let them seek the culprit." Sustained by His Wife.

> At the conclusion of Major Forzinetti's evidence Dreyfus, on Colonel Jouaust's invitation and after reference to the last interview with Du Paty de Clam, said, looking with gratitude at the major: "There is a matter which Major Forzinetti has just recarled, which has greatly moved me and which I wish to recall, for I wish to say to whom I owe the fact that I have done my duty and to whom I owe having done it for five years after my condemnation. I had determined to kill myself. I had made up my mind not to undergo the frightful torture of a soldier from whom they wished to tear the insignia of honor. Well then, let me say this: That if I went to that torture I can say here that it was thanks to That is their business.. (Commotion.) Mme. Dreyfus, who showed me my duty and who told me that if I was innocent I ought to go to it for the sake of her and our children. If I am here, it is for her I owe it, my colonel." Here Major Forzinetti said: "It is quite true. In his last interview with me Dreyfus said: 'For her and for my children I will undergo the torture of tomorrow. The declaration of Dreyfus that his life was due to his wife deeply stirred all his hearers. He spoke in a broken voice, with emphatic gestures, awaying to and fro with omotion, and when he had finished he sat down abruptly, evidently to conceal his discomposed features from the gaze of the spectators in court, who, when he is scated, are only able to see the back of his seat. Tears were glistening in his eyes and he was clearly suppressing an outburst of sob-

The session concluded with the confrontations of Captain Lebrun-Renault and General de Boisdeffre, the former explaining that he did not speak to Major Forzinetti of the Dreyfus confession because he had received instructions to keep silent. General de Boisdeffre denied that Major Forzinetti had asked: expressed to him his conviction that Dreyfus abusive remarks about you at the Elysce? was innecent. The major maintained his assertion, however

The court then adjourned until tomorrow. Proceedings in Detail.

Following are the proceedings in detail: When the public session was resumed at 30 this morning there was a stir in the audience and considerable curiosity was manifested as the name of Captain Lebrun-

TRIBUTE PAID TO A WOMAN fue, was called, and the officer walked room, but so far as I can assert after a fivesmartly to the witness box, saluted the years' interval, no other officer but Captain court and threw his kepi on the table. He then stood at attention awaiting questions. | was." The president of the court, Colonel Jouaust, said: "On January 5, 1895, the day of the prisoner's degradation, you were entrusted with the task of conducting him from the Cherche Midi prison to the military school, where he remained some time in your charge. Tell the court what passed between you and him at that time."

Captain Lebrun-Remault-On Saturday,

January 5, 1895, I was ordered with my squadron to preceed to the Cherche Midl prison and take charge of Dreyfus, who was to be degraded at 9 o'clock in one of the his case. courtyards of the military school. Starting at 7:15, I arrived at the place indicated at 7:45. The office of the garrison adjutant was pointed out to me as the place to keep Renault's statement that a certain Captain the prisoner until the hour of the degradation parade. He began to protest his innocence and to say that, with considerable The witness, however, maintained that means at his disposal and a bright future are proceedings in the face of which all Captain Dattel was present, whereupon Drey- in store for him, he could have no motive fus said that if he was present he, the in being guilty of treason. He said: "I am innocent. In three years my innocence Drayfus then raised his voice excitedly, will be acknowledged. The minister knows me so, some days ago, in my cell. He knows

The witness added that Captain Dattel was present when the statement was made. Continuing, Captain Lebrun-Renault said that as soon as four artillerymen, commanded by a corporal, came to take the prisoner to the courtyard for the ceremony of degradation he (witness) left the office officers, to whom he repeated Dreyfus' remarks. He also repeated them at the captain's mess of the Republican Guard.

No Mention of Confession. Referring to articles in the newspapers in regard to the confession Captain Lebrun-Renault said: "General Mercier said to me: 'Go to the Elysee and repeat to the president of the republic what you have told me." While I was in the ante-room I heard some one make remarks about me in very discourteous terms. M. Dupuy ushered me be fore the president, who said: 'You have had relations with journalists and have been indiscreet. Certain articles have appeared in the newspapers.'

"I replied that perhaps journalists were among the persons I had seen, but I said Colonel Jouanst told Dreyfus that he had I had not spoken directly to journalists. "I I left after having received a lecture from I the president.

"M. Dupuy took me into another room or three years my innocence would be rec- and drew up a semi-official note to the effect One of the judges asked the witness if he my words did not have the sense evil minds did not remember hearing Dreyfus say that the documents delivered were only copies. M. Labori then had General Gonse called to which Captain Lebrun-Renault replied: "I do not recollect. I do not remember the Large delegations came in from every pre- used the alleged confession of Dreyfus in phrase. But he may have said it. I talked cinct in the county and four special trains opposing Picquart's arguments in favor of a with Dreyfus for a quarter of an hour. The sentence I have quoted was that which I jotted down in my notebook."

A Judge-What did General Mercier tell Captain Lebrun-Renault-He asked what Dreyfus had said and then told me to go to the Elysee and describe the confession. a float representing the battleship Maine. Colonel Piquart's previous letter be read But I was given no time to mention it The Judge-Did you go there for that > purpose? Captain Lebrun-Repault-I went there for The Judge-It is a great pity you said nothing on the subject. Lebrun-Renault-I had no time to speak have made, was the next witness called. He of it. The president, moreover, seemed walked automatically. Afterwards, when he much more concerned about a remark by cassation, adding that he frequently met Dreyfus concerning the writing of the Captain Lebrun-Renauft and Captain Dattel bordereau, which had been published in a Dreyfus traversed and Dreyfus, addressing > Lebrun-Renault-The president notified that I was coming. For my part, I incident of the morning, particularly the was somewhat intimidated, which is easily statements made by Dreyfus to Lebrunexplained. I heard myself described as a not encouraging. M. Demange asked the witness if it was really a conversation with Dreyfus, or if the prisoner's remarks consisted of a broken dialogue, as General Gonze had said. Captain Lebrun-Renault-Dreyfus spoke to me, but I did not reply.

Not in Explaining Business. M. Demange asked how the witness could detect confessions in a sentence containing the words, "I am innocent. In three years my innocence will be acknowledged."

Captain Lebrun-Renault-It is not for me in which the material fact that documents confession? had been communicated was admitted. It is not for me to give an explanation. It is for Drevfus and the defense to explain. I heard this sentence. I was only a kind of phonograph and I repeated it without commentary. (Excitement.) Replying further to M. Demange, the witness refused to say whether or not he regarded the words of Dreyfus as a confession. "I have no impression whatever," he said. "Dreyfus said a great deal to me. I retained this sentence and I repeated it when asked. If I did not mention it in to Dreyfus, continued Major Forzinetti, the my report, it was because I had the task of conducting Dreyfus from the prison to the place of degradation, and it was not my duty to make Dreyfus talk." (Excitement.) M. Demange-How could General Gonse and General Mercier, on hearing your story, believe they had to deal with a confession and how could they send you to the Elysee: Lebrun-Renault-I have no idea.

M. Demange reminded the witness that before the court of cassation he considered the sentence of the prisoner which he had quoted to be a kind of explanation or ex-

Captain Lebrun-Renault-Why, Monsieur le President, that is a personal question I have no opinion to express on that point. I am no judge of things. I repeat simply what Dreyfus told me. Certain persons may consider his remarks as embodying confessions, others as being an explanation.

Nothing to Report at the Time, M. Labori-Captain Lebrun-Renault was not content with entering on his report of January 5 that "duty commenced" at such an hour and ended at such an hour, but he especially added, "nothing to report," when, as a matter of fact, he alleges that an incident of this importance occurred.

Captain Lebrun-Renault-I had nothing to report. My duty was to take Dreyfus from the prison and guard him. I had nothing say in regard to that duty. M. Labori-Why did the witness keep the leaf of his pocketbook with the note of the confession for years? The witness seems to say that it was mere chance. I am surpriced that the witness destroyed it just the asked that an investigation should be made. day after it was mentioned in the Chamber of Deputies. To this Captain Lebrun-Renault replied that at that time he considered that the document be possessed was authenticated by the copy made of it by M. Cavaignae the before it was destroyed. M. Labori-The court will draw its own conclusions. Then, turning to the witness, M. Labori

"Who was the official who made Captain Lebrun-Renault-f have no idea. At this time M. Labori said he was much surprised that the witness had not referred to this abuse before the court of cassation. Asked if he had anything to say, Dreyfus declared that when he was at the military school on the day of his degradation. Captain Lebrun-Renault did not leave him. Saw Sothing of D'Afte.

Lebruu-Renault entered the room in which I

Replying to Colonel Jouaust, Captain Lebrun-Renault reiterated that Captain D'Attel entered the room and remained there five minutes.

Dreyfus, replying, said that in any case be certainly did not speak to Captain D'Attel. He added that he had already explained to the court that the words actually used on that occasion referred to the steps taken in regard to him, the prisoner, by Colonel Du Paty de Clam, to whom he had expressed a desire that full light should be thrown upon "Allow me," continued Dreyfus," to express the emotion and surprise I feel today, after five years, when I see a witness, who hearing such words, beginning with a protest of innocence, reported them to his chiefs without asking the most concerned person for an explanation of them. These honest people can only express indignation." (Great sensation),

Captain Anthoine, who was present at the degradation of Dreyfus, was the next witness. He testified that on leaving the parade ground he met Captain D'Attel, who informed him that Dreyfus had made remarks in his presence, the meaning of which to his mind clearly was: First, a formal confession that he had delivered documents; second, an allegation that the documents were unimportant; third, that the prisoner's object was to obtain more important documents in exchange.

Replying to Captain Anthoine the prisoner said he had only one observation to make, that he maintained positively that he only spoke to Captain Lebrun-Renault and that he had nothing to add to his reply to the latter.

Captain Lebrun-Renault, recalled, admitted that Captain D'Attel did not speak to the prisoner, but he added that as D'Attel was in the room, which was very small, he certainly heard the words uttered by Dreyfus. M. Labori-What is very certain is that Captain D'Attel made no report of the inident to his chiefs. General Mercler-No.

Testimony of Colonel Guerin. Lieutenant Colonel Guerin, whom General Saussier ordered to attend the degradation and report upon it, was next examined. He said: "At about 7:45 a. m. I saw the prison van arrive. Dreyfus alighted and was taken to the office, where he was guarded by Captain Lebrun-Renault, whose name I did not know at that time. At 8:55 the adjutant of the garrison relieved Captain Lebrun-Renault with four artillerymen and a corporal, composing the guard which was to conduct the prisoner to the place of degradation. At that moment I was at the door of the building. Captain Lebrun-Renault, when relieved from duty, saw me and immediately began to relate what Dreyfus had said. The three statements which struck him because of their importance remained so graven in my memory that I could never forget them, namely: First, the prisoner's pride in the facings he had lost; second, his confession that he had delivered documents to a foreign power; third, that in three years justice would be done him. A group of officers were standing near and as Captain Lebrun-Renault's conversation was not confidential and the statement he had made was of great importance and interest to us, I begged him to repeat to the officers what he had just told me. "I must add that Captain D'Attel had been ordered to superintend matters, and his special duty required him to report everything which occurred in the office of the adjutant while Dreyfus was there and until Dreyfus was conducted to the place of degradation. Throughout the ceremony the prisoner was conducted to the prison van, I stood, in company with some officers, in the passage the officers, repeated that in three years A Judge-Did the president know what justice would be done to him. He then entered and disappeared. After the ceremony was I verbally reported to General Saussier the During the day Captain D'Attel Renault. "traitor," "canaille" and "cur." That was also told M. Wunberger, archivist of the Paris headquarters, that Dreyfus had con-

M. Demange-How do you reconcile his protests of innocence with his alleged confession? Colonel Guerin-That is not my business

M. Demange-You reported the confession Colonel Guerin-Certainly.

M. Demange-Was it suggested that eteps be taken to verify the alleged confession? Colonel Guerin-I do not recollect. M. Demange-So there was no attempt to to reconcile the inconsistencies of a sentence interrogate Dreyfus in regard to the alleged Colonel Guerin-The case had passed out of the hands of the military authorities, the prisoner having been handed over to the civil > Dreyfus Had Nothing to Add. Dreyfus, when the usual question was put to him, said he had nothing to add to the reply he had made to Captain Lebrun Renault. One of the judges asked the witness whether M. Weyl, when attached to the army headquarters, had relations with Esterhazy, to which Colonel Guerin replied that he believed that Weyl had known Esterhazy for a long time. The Judge-Do you think Esterhazy kne the prisoner? Colonel Guerin-I do not know.

Dreyfus here remarked that he never Major de Mitry of the Hussars testified to Captain Anthoine telling him of the al leged confersion of Dreyfus. Army Controller Peyrolles also testified that he heard of the confession from Colonel Guerin. The latter, he added, introduced the witness to Captain Lebrun-Renault on their way to the Zola trial.

Continuing, Major de Mitry said: "I said to Captain Lebrun-Renault pointblank: 'How is it the confession of Dreyfus was not reported to our president and premier when you were summoned to the Elysee? Captain Lebrun-Renault replied: 'I didn' report it, through a kind of apprehension because, when in the anteroom, I heard some one say: "Who is this gendarme who is betraying professional secrets and feeding the press? He might smart for such in-

"I replied: 'Renault, you have mace a mistake. In your place I would have told the president. When called upon to reply Dreyfus declared he had never said his trial would be revised in three years.

"I do not understand these words," said the prisoner. "I should be very grateful to you, my colonel, if, in the interest of truth, you would make public the letters which I wrote to the chief of the headquarters staff. would then he seen in what terms Colonel Jouaust-But why in three years?

Dreyfus-I have already told the court that I told Colonel Du Paty de Clam the government had the means of investigation, but that it required time to use them. I said, therefore, that before two or three years my innocence would be acknowledged. But I emphatically assert there was no sinister motive in my mind, such as has been attached to those words. (Excitement). [Note-Dreyfus evidently referred to the general staff's suggestion that when he used the expression "three years" he knew that Esterhazy would then appear as a man f straw and try to take his (the prisoner's) place. His Jailer thinks Dreyfus Innocent

Major Forzinetti, who was governor of the Cherche Midi prison while Dreyfus was confined there, followed. He testified that while in prison Dreyfus always seemed to have the

Venetian Carnival Day

AT THE EXPOSITION

... Friday, September 1st ...

11:00 a. m .- Franz Adelmann's Band, Parade on Grand Court, 2:30 p. m.-Bellstedt's Concert Band at Auditorium. 4:00 p. m.-Franz Adelmann's Band Concert, Fine Arts Building. 7:00 p. m .- Venetian Water Carnival on Lagoon-Bellstedt's Concert Band on "Olympia" - Adelmann's Band - Hawailan Double Quartette-Sloux Braves' War Song-Aquatic Fire-

8:45 p. m.-New Electric Fountain with Serpentine Dance and Franz Adelmann's Band at west end Lagoon.

The Cream of the Midway

--CYCLORAMA-THE BATTLE OF MISSIONARY RIDGE LOOKOUT MOUNTAIN

THE NEW DARKNESS AND DAWN: OR.

Heaven and Hell. THE OLD PLANTATION The Exposition Fun Factory.

HOBSON Sinking the Merrimac. THE MOORISH PALACE

CREAT PASSION PLAY

WARACRAPH The Battle of Manila.

PHILIPPINE VILLAGE

The greatest Feature of the Exposition —Portraying the Life, Habits and Customs of our New Possessions. The Real Thing-Endorsed by the Clergy.

An Educational and Entertaining Attraction. 10 cents for two

. . SCENIC . .

The Great Naval Battle RAILWAY

HAWAIIAN VILLAGE GRAND PLAZA.

MEET ME AT

On the Midway

High-Class Vaudeville. Beer 5c. Meals 25c

Leaves foot Doug-las St, daily at 1 and 8 p. m. Re-turning at 5 and 10 p. m. The 3 p. m. trip lands at Florence, minutes

Music, Dancing, Tel 1668. Fare, 25c. Children under 12, 10c.

THE MILLARD

J. E. MARKEL & SUA. Propthat he told General de Boisdeffre that he believed Dreyfus was innocent. Continuing. Major Forzinetti said he was intimate with 13th and Douglas Sts., Omaha.

CENTRALLY LOCATED.

but neither of them ever mentioned to him he alleged confession of Dreyfus. Replying to M. Demange, the major said that Colonel Du Paty de Clam asked him to surprise Dreyfus in his sleep, in order to disturb him off his guard by throwing the light of a bright lamp in his face. The witness also recalled the despair of Dreyfus after his conviction and the regrets he expressed at not having resigned.

Dreyfus, the major said, talked of committing suicide. When Dreyfus rose to reply he admitted that after his degradation he intended to commit suicide, but he added that if he succeeded in enduring the torture inflicted it was owing to his wife, who made him understand his duty. (Commotion.) Major Forzinetti corroborated this.

said Dreyfus' statements were quite correct. Captain Lebrun-Renault, recalled by Colonel Jounust, said he did not tell Forzinetti of Dreyfus' conression because General Risbourg, his commanding officer had told him to hold his tongue. General Roget then advanced and denied that Major Forzinetti was on terms of in timacy with Captain d'Attel. General Holsdeffre also asserted that there were inaccuracies in Major Forzinetti's evidence. The general denied that the major ever declared to him that he believed Dreyfus was innocent. Replying to M. Demange Major Forzinetti said he adhered to all the evidence he had given before the court of

At 11:25 the court adjourned for the day

Belging Constitution Will Stand. BRUSSELS, Aug. 31 .-- The Belgian Chamber of Deputies today rejected a motion to revise the constitution, the vote standing 559 against 31. The motion was intended to pave the way for a universal suffrage

Gold Bound for America SYDNEY, N. S. W., Aug. 31.—The Ameri can steamer Mariposa, Captain Hayward, which sailed from here prior to August 30 from San Francisco, had on board £180,000 To Cure a Cold in One Day

Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. Renault of the Republican Guard, the re- "It is possible," continued the prisoner, bearing of an innocent man and always as- druggists refund the money if it falls to cure cipient of the so-called confession of Drey. "that Captain D'Attel entered the guard screed his innocence. The witness added E. W. Grove's signature is on each box 25c.

ARTIST'S STUDIO

The Art Feature of the Exposition. .

Only Oriental

Society's Resort

Question-Why is SCHLITZ PA-VILION crowded all the time?

The newest, most scientific and interes entertainment on Midway, CAPT. LOUIS SORCHO'S

WE HAVE HER NOW In Her Own Aquarlum. .. CORA BECKWITH.

AMUSEMENTS. Boyd's Theater Woodward and Burgess, Mgrs. Grand Opening Attraction.

POPULAR PRICES-25c-50c. The Awfully Funny Farce-

Prices-15c, 25c, 35c, 50c, 75c,

The Trocadero—W. W. COLE, 2100. EVERY EVENING.
Wednesday and Saturday Matinees. THE TROCADERO OPERA CO. Numbering 42 People, Presents

O CREIGHTON Orbheum

Telephone 1531.

SMATTINEE SEPT. 3 Presenting the greatest all-star vaudeville combination in the world. Box Office now open for sale of seats.

BOYD'S | TELEPHONE 1919 Woodward & Burgess, Managers. Last Two Performances THE WOODWARD STOCK CD. TODAY 2:30 "MOTHS." Souvenir button will be given to every ady purchasing a ticket on the lower Tonight S:15 "Capt. Backett.

WHITE RUSSIAN SOAP WRAPPERS to her credit will receive as a present a $250.00 Alaska sealskin jacket made to measure. There will also be nine additional prizes. Two valued at $35 each and seven of $10 cash each.

ON THE MIDWAY.

West Midway.

MERRY GO ROUND

Attractive and amusing entertainment—delightful resting place for laddes and children. Admission to building free. W. H. DOLAN, Manager,

The educational feature of the Midwa;
-depicting life in Cuba and the Island of Porto Rico.

Answer-Because weinerwurst and potato salad sell far 15c. ..Schlitz Pavilion..

Opposite Patet building. West MidWOY.

WEST MIDWAY.

5 NIGHTS Saturday, Sept. Matinees Sunday and Wednesdays.

BROWN'S NIGHT WEDNESDAY. Seats now on sale.

AMERICAN AND EUROPEAN PLAN-A Grand Double Fill De ve in "H. M. S. PINAFORE" and "CAVALLERIA RUSTICANA." Prices-50c, 35c, 25c. Next Week-The Mikada Captain Lebrun-Renault and Captain D'Attel.

Opening of Omaha's Society Vaudeville,

Another

to the woman who secures between Sept. Ist and 15th the greatest number of White Russian Soap wrappers. No wrappers turned in before Sept. 1st nor after 2 o clock p. m. Sept. 15th will be counted in this $10 contest, but each and every wrapper. no matter when turned in, will count in the grand prize contest ending Dec. 20th, 1898, when the woman having the greatest number of of $10 cash each.

These contests open only to the women of Nebraska and the city of Council Bluffs, Ia. Bring or send all wrappers to Jaa. S. Kirk & Co. 305 S 12th St., Omana.

Lille A. Ragatz, Columbus, Neb., had the greatest number of White Russian soap wrappers up to noon, Aug. 31, and received the $10 cash prize.