HOWISON CREATES A FLURRY general to fire a salute of seventeen guns Premature Arrival at New York Would Force Sampson Into a Back Seat.

NEW YORK, Sept. 22 .- A special to the Times from Washington says: A dispatch received at the Navy department from Rear Admiral Howison is worrying the officials

Admiral Howison, entirely unconscious of the consternation his news will carry to those who have been asserting that he will not get to New York until after the reception to Admiral Dewey, announces in his message that he has left Barbadoes on the Chicago for New York. This is the last thing that the friends of Admiral Sampson wanted. Everything has been arranged to have Sampson, in his capacity as the hero and victor of Santiago, greet his proteer and Manlia. Admiral Schley will be in New York at that time, but in no official capacity. He will be there simply because as an American citizen he has an inalienable right to stand on the sidewalk and see Dewey go by Nothing has occurred to mar the spectacle of ohe hero greeting another and welcoming him home until this disquieting news was Davis of this city were married Wednesday received from Howison. The naval regulations re- in Blackhawk, this county, were married quire it. Howison is simply an old friend of Dewey and would like to be on hand when his friend has his triumph.

The Navy department officials have pointed out, whenever this danger was suggested, to Howison's itinerary, which calls for his arrival on October 5, and have confidently proclaimed that he will not get there before then, notwishstanding the fact that Howison has been ahead of his schedule right along. They are now busily engaged in figuring out that he cannot get to Tompkinsville in less than eight days, but others think he can do it easily in seven.

NEXT YEAR AT CHARLESTON Municipal Convention Concludes with

Bemis Closes.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Sept. 22 .- The third annual convention of the League of American Municipalities finished its work and adjourned today. The program of the convention was not fully carried out owing to the unusual length of papers on the municipal ownership question and other topics listed for discussion.

Mayor McGuire of Syracuse made a farewell speech, in which he referred to the selection of Charleston for the next convention as being most appropriate. He said that the meeting of the young west with the representatives of the old south at the dawn of the new century would add weight to the ring of patriotic loyalty that was forged anew to the stars and stripes by the Plumbing Inspector Cook has called the attention of the municipal authorities to the practice of private individuals locating water meters under the sidewalks, or on public ground. An investigation by Inspector Cook shows that of majority of meters have been placed, as he states, either between the property line or the ourb line. Wooden boxes have invariably been built to protect these meters and the rotting of the boxes has caused a number of accidents. A damage suit is now pending against the city for personal injuries, alleged to havbeen received by falling into one of these boxes. Inspector Cook asserts that he has tried to discourage the practice of placing wooden boxes and has served many notices on property owners, but without avail. The inspector's idea is to have property owners move their meters on to private ground or else build brick boxes with iron covers, if the boxes remain on public property. Cook asserts that many property owners refuse to comply with his request and he asks the council to empower him to force all parties to move meters or fill excavations and place sidewalks over such meter boxes in good condition.

Not long ago a woman fell through the top of a rotten meter box and now a suit for $5,000 for personal injuries has been commenced. It is for the purpose of protecting the city from such suits that Inspector Cook proposes to compel all parties using meters to properly protect the same. The communication of Inspector Cook in this matter has been referred to the council committee on streets and alleys.

Rapid Transit System Projected. Patrick J. Barrett, formerly a member of the city council, but now in the real estate moter of schemes for the benefit of those sumption contracted at Dardanelle, Ark., is at the head-of the movement to secure who have money to invest. Mr. Barrett a franchise from the city for an electric or steam rapid transit company to operate on numerous streets within the city limits. In that the company, was not yet incorporated, but would be in a few days. He asserts that it is the intention of those interested to build an electric line to Bellevue and Fort Crook, also to Sarpy Mills. Those who are supposed to be interested with Mr. Barrett are Dr. Kerr of Bellevue college, Charles Burns, treasurer of Sarpy county, Joe Mailander, owner of Sarpy Mills park, W. P. Martin of Bellevue and one or two property owners in South Omaha. Mr. Barrett states that as soon as the franchise is granted for the city of South Omaha an application to the county commissioners of Sarpy county will be made for s franchise. Further, Mr. Barrett asserts that he has the promise of enough money to start the line, the funds to come from eastern owners of property in Sarpy and Douglas ounties. This project will no doubt be watched with interest, as a rapid transit line between Bellevue, Fort Crook and South Omaha has long been wanted by the reaidents of South Omaha.

Permanent Sidewalk District. An ordinance has been passed by the city council creating a permanent sidewalk district on Twenty-fourth from N to Q. These walks must under the ordinance, be laid within thirty days or else the city will do the work and assess the cost against the abutting property. A twenty-foot walk is specified in the ordinance, and if this is laid on both sides of the street a great improvement will be made, as the present walks are narrow and in a delapidated condition Councilman Kelly said, in connection with his resolution which recently passed the council, that he was in favor of employing two or more inspectors to make a tour of the city and report on every foot of sidewalk now laid, with a view to repairing the same if needed. According to the resolution the mayor may appoint these inspectors and it is hoped that he will do so within a few days.

CONGREGATIONALIST TOPICS PLAN TO WELCOME THE KING

City Officials of Omaha Preparing to Greet King Ak-Sar-Ben V.

When King Ak-Sar-Ben V of Quivera enters Omaha next week and at the head his knights and courtiers marches up Farnam street under the glare of thousands of electric lights and listens to the blare of myriads of trumpets and other musical instruments, he will find a royal reeption awalting him at the city hall. At this place the city officials are bending air of their energies in laying plans to give the istinguished menarch a regal That the officials and wise men of the kingom may have an opportunity of witnessing the comirg of the king and the ceremonies attendant upon turning the city over to him, a large platform is being erected in front of the city hall. On the night of the king's entry into the city, Mayor Moores and the members of his court will occupy seats on the platform. Upon the king reaching this point, he will halt, and there the mayor in a short, but appropriate address will present to him the golden keys of the city, after which the procession will continue on its way to the castle on North Twentieth

The civic organizations will take part in the parade that will be put on the streets during the night of September 27. This parade will be in charge of F. F. Rocee, who will assign to places all societies and organizations that apply before Monday even-Those that do not apply to him prior to that time will be assigned on the night of the parade by applying to the grand marshal, who will be stationed at Sixteenth and

In this civic parade all the labor organizations, the equestrian clubs of South Omaha, the Bohemian Gymnastic association and the butchers will be out in full force. Among the secret societies that will parade will be the following: Redmen, Daughters Pochahontas, Maccabbees, Woodmen, Knights of Labor, Fraternal Union, Ode Fellows, Knights of Pythias, Elks, Knights of Khorassan and many others, all uniformed or wearing the appropriate regalia. The board of governors of the Knights of Ak-Sar-Ben will also accompany the parade and will form a very interesting section. Another meeting of the societies will be held in the Commercial club this evening.

Cnion of Endeavor Societies Holds an Enthusiastic Meeting at First Christian Church.

The annual meeting of the Christian Endeavorers' Unions of Omaha and South Omaha was held in the First Christian church Friday night. The meeting was characterized by enthusiasm and earnestness and in point of numbers was a decided success. The meeting was opened with a short praise service, in which many took part. The devotional exercises immediately following were full of deep earnestness. Rev. A. Christy Brown, president of the union, presided. George S. Brewster conducted the devotional part of the session. Miss Burnham added much to the interest by a well sung solo, and Miss Ivy Reed, secretary of the society, made the annual report, which showed the union to be in a very prosperous condition.

The latter part of the meeting, given over to reports from the Detroit convention, was a very interesting exposition of the benefits derived there. Miss Agnes E. PLAN FOR A BIG PARADE Civic Organizations Are to Turn Out

During Coming Carnival Week. Representatives of a number of the civiorganizations met at the Commercial club Friday night to talk over the plans for the parade that is to be put on next Wednesday evening. The details were left uncompleted, as a meeting at which all matters in connection with the parade will be held at the same place next Monday night. However, the committee having charge will publish a list of the orders in line not later than Sunday morning.

At last night's meeting notice was recelved indicating that the parade will contain several thousand men on foot, on horse back and in carriages. It will pass over the principal downtown streets and will then proceed to the Exposition grounds, where all persons wearing uniforms or regalia will be admitted free of charge. In order that the parties participating in this parade may have an enjoyable time, the gates of the Exposition will remain open until 2 o'clock Thursday morning. In addition to the organizations in line, there will be six o seven bands and a couple of dozen floats. While the civic and military parade will be under the general direction of the Knights of Ak-Sar-Ben, it will be in charge of the following named marshals, who will select their aides and report their names to
