HAMILTON WINS FROM OMAHA KID Did Not Fight Up to His Usual Standard When He Met Troy Fighter.

Did Not Fight Up to His Usual Standard When He Met Troy Fighter.

NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—Oscar Gardner, the "Omaha Kid," did not fight up to his usual standard when he met Jack Hamilton of Troy at the Broadway Athletic club tonight. Hamilton won in a decisive manner and the referee gave him the bout at the end of the twenty-fifth round.

Gardner was a 2 to 1 favorite at the start, but his chances to win became less and less as the fight proceeded. Hamilton was careful and aggressive from the sound of the gong. Gardner, on the other hand, was careless and left many openings which Hamilton was quick to take advantage of, Gardner was floored in the fourth round by a left swing on the jaw and he was forced down in the seventh. Hamilton put him over the ropes several times after that.

Gardner began fighting hard in the fourteenth, sending right to the body and bringing it up to the head. It was give and take right to the end, but Gardner was bleeding badly in the twenty-second. Gardner rushed at Hamilton in the final round, landing left and right on the head. Hamilton staggered, but pulled himself together and went back with a swing on the jaw which put Gardner down. Gardner was on his feet and fightling fiercely when the bell rang.

"Chip" Morrison of Cincinnati whipped Jack Dwyer of Boston in the preliminary bout, which did not last eight rounds.

In the sixth and seventh rounds Morrison punished his adversary to such a degree that the spectators shouted for the referee to stop the bout and he stopped the fight in the next round.

HASTINGS. Neb., Sept. 22.—(Special Telegram.)—Nearly 3,000 women and men attended the sparring and wrestling exhibition here tonight. Many of the most highly respected women and men of Hastings were in attendance.

The first was a bout of seven rounds for points only with eight-ounce gloves between Fred Manning of Omaha and Kid Corbett. The contest was a fine exhibition of science and at the end of the seventh round was declared a draw.

The event of the evening was the wrestling match between Farmer Burns and Bert Schiller of Kansas City, who was the victor in last evening's contest over Dan Baldwin. The first fall went to Farmer Burns after seventeen minutes and twenty seconds of hard work. Schiller won loud cheers by his easy manner of escaping from tight places. The first fall was won on a double Nelson. Schiller won the second fall with a half Nelson in nineteen minutes and fifteen seconds. The third and final fall was won by Burns with his famous English crosslock in seven and one-half minutes. Dan Baldwin of Omaha acted as referee, Farmer Burns meets Baldwin at the same place tomorrow night.

Firemen Throw Quoits. An interesting game of quotis was played at engine house No. 12 to ascertain who were the champion quoti throwers of that place. The game demonstrated the fact that Firemen J. Norton and J. McGreall had the surest aim and the best eye for distances. The winners won twice off their opponents, but failed to accept the challenge of Messrs. Mangel and Murphy for another test game.
