Will Think It Over.
 The case against John T. Cummins, proprietor of cigar stands at the exposition, charged with violating the liquor statute, was heard in the police court Monday afternoon and taken under advisement by Judge Gordon. As this is the first case under the new statute, the attorneys defending Cummins have raised the question of the constitutionality of the law. The judge said he would give a decision next Monday.

GALLANTRY BETRAYED THIEF Man Who Stole Watch Might Have Escaped Conviction, but for an Act of Politeness.

The police took into custody Monday afternoon Ed Murphy and George Button for the theft of a valuable watch from Sarah Smith, 924 Capitol avenue. Murphy was arrested by "Daddy" Ryan shortly after the theft was committed. Button was caught by the Council Bluffs police later in the evening, being brought back for trial by Detectives Hudson and Helan.
 The Smith woman was wearing on her wrist a $75 watch set with rubies and diamonds. The two men entered her apartment, and one of them held her while the other unlocked the timepiece and ran out the door. Murphy, who held the woman, remained to tell her that the transaction was a joke. The victim failed to see the joke, and calling Officer Ryan, had Murphy placed under arrest.
 When the Smith woman called at the station to identify Murphy she was not positive she knew him, but Murphy settled doubts when he appeared before her by politely doffing his hat. As there was no evidence against him, he might have escaped conviction for the theft had he been allowed enough to deny having seen the woman before. Murphy confessed to the police he held Mrs. Smith while Button robbed her, saying he supposed the theft was a joke.
 Button denies he knows the woman or Murphy.

OUR TERRITORIAL PIONEERS

Meeting to Be Held at the Greater American Exposition, October 1 and 5.

Robert W. Furnas of Brownville, president of the Nebraska Territorial Pioneer association, and Daniel H. Wheeler, acting secretary, Omaha, have issued a call for a reunion in the Auditorium at the exposition October 4 and 5. The call says:
 "This is a special meeting on a special occasion and for a special purpose, believing thereby a greater enlightenment of interest can be secured for the exposition. Old settlers for the annual meeting to be held in Lincoln in January next. We ask and expect each member and his family will be present. Any person who became a resident of Nebraska prior to March 1, 1867, and their children and grandchildren are entitled to become members, fee $1.00—no dues. Old settlers who have resided in Nebraska fifteen years or more are also invited to be present. Please notify all your friends and neighbors. Admission to Auditorium from Sixteenth street entrance. All who attend this meeting will be admitted to Exposition grounds at reduced rates. Reduced rates at all railroads.
 No charge for admission to Auditorium.
 Write the secretary if you can be present.
 Talks will be made by Hon. J. Sterling Morton, Dr. George L. Miller, Orlando Tefft, J. E. North and others."

Dr. W. O. Bridges leaves this evening for New York city and will be absent several weeks. He leaves his practice with Dr. J. E.
 Summers, Jr.

Announcements.
 Two hours and a half of solid fun; two hours and a half of farce comedy abounding, bright lines and comical situations, a comedy liberally punctuated by the laughs of the audience that it is almost a mass of punctuations marks, and that is "Dear Old Charley," which closes its engagement at Boyd's theater with a matinee performance this afternoon and one this evening. The curtain will not go up this evening until after the big military and civic parade, thus enabling all those who wish to see the whole performance ample time.

David Higgins has a new play to be given a New York production, but until that time he will continue with his present company playing "At Piney Ridge," his fine play of the Tennessee mountains. This drama will be the attraction at Boyd's theater for the balance of the week, commencing Thursday night, when it will be given with Mr.
 Higgins and Georgia Waldron in the leading roles.

At the Trocadero theater, where the Trocadero opera company is presenting "Glorious Gilda," a three-act comic opera, each night this week with matinee, this afternoon and Saturday, the curtain will not go up tonight or Thursday night until after the big parades are over. The opera furnishes two hours and a half of hearty laughter.

There is plenty of amusement in Omaha this week, but it is safe to say that no visitor will find any more enjoyable entertainment than that afforded at the Creighton-Orpheum where the Miami troupe, the famous comedienne is appearing nightly, in a brilliant one-act play entitled, "Rose Pom-Pom." Among the other attractive features are the Cardovine troupe of international dancers; the new American intergraph, showing new war pictures which create the greatest enthusiasm; Powers and Pearl, refined travesty comedians; Chevalier, French comique and violinist; Hall and Staley, eccentric comedians, and Irene Franklin, singing comedian. Matinee today and Sunday, 7 o'clock, and tonight the performance will begin immediately after the Ak-Sar-Ben parade.

A New Heating Device.
 A fire which can be touched off with a match gives as much or as little heat as you want, can be turned off or on at will, and is free from odor, dust or ashes; in fact, a fire which possesses all the advantages necessary for the perfect heating of all kinds of cook and other stoves and furnaces, is worthy of consideration by all citizens interested in the problem of cheaper and better fuel. This new method can be seen in operation for a few days heating a cook stove at 219-221 South Fourteenth street, near Farnam.

A Woman's Reason.

A woman's reason is sometimes difficult to explain, but it is generally correct. A woman's reason for shopping here may be found in the vast assortment of new and fashionable Cloaks, Suits, Shoes, Millinery and Neckwear, presented from day to day at prices that know no competition.
 Strange methods betray themselves in the advertising of most stores. Probably you note them, probably you don't. How much misrepresentation and fraud you would purge the newspaper columns of if you did.
 We'd like to have you trip us up in any error we might make.
