

401 to 405 Broadway

WHITELAW & GARDINER, BOYD STORE

Council Bluffs, Iowa.

A Great Sale of Ready to Wear Garments

Ladies' Capes, J'ck'ts

Ladies' Black Curl Cloth Jacket—new style, all sizes, as represented in cut, worth $7.50—only $5.75. Ladies' Tan and Black Jackets—full lined, extra well finished, made of Covert and Kersey cloth, usually sold for $10.00, our price, each, $7.50. Ladies' Kersey Cloth Jackets—in black, brown, tan, blue and cadet, all highly finished, tailor made, cut coat shape, extra good values, our price, each, $10.00. Also a full line of Ladies' Jackets, similar styles, in Covert, Kersey, Beaver and Persian Boucle cloth at extra low prices and good values $3.75, 5.00, 6.75, 9.00, 12.00, 15.00 and 17.00 each.

LADIES' CAPES Large and well assorted line of Ladies' Persian Boucle Capes at the lowest prices offered in this vicinity. Just imagine a full sweep curl cloth cape, full lined and interlined, 33 inches and 36 inches each only—$5.75 and $7.50. Other prices are—$3.75, 4.50, 5.00, 6.75, 8.50, to 10.00 and 15.00 each.

Ladies' Golf Capes, in fine assortment of colors at the following prices—$5.00, 5.75, 6.75, 7.50, to $12 each. PLUSH CAPES Full line of Ladies' Plush Capes in both plain and crush at the following prices—$2.98, 3.75, 4.75, 5.00, 7.50, 10.00, 12.00, to 20.00 each.

MISSSES & CHILDRENS J'K'TS Full line of Children's and Misses' Jackets and Reefers, trimmed with fancy braid, buttons and applique work—also fancy golf cape effect at $1.50, $2.00, $2.50, $3.50, $4.50, $5.00, $6.75 to $9.00 each. Misses' Gretchen Cloaks for school wear in good assortment of colors at $2.50, $2.98, $3.75 and $5.00.

Ladies' Suits

Full assortment of colors and sizes, at greatly reduced prices—$7.50 Tailor-made Suits—4.75 only. $9.50 Tailor-made Suits—5.98 only. $12.00 Tailor-made Suits—8.75 only. $15 and $20 Tailor-made Suits—15.00 and $12.00.

Ladies' Dress Skirts

In plain black and figured mohair and serge at $5.00, $3.50, $2.25, $1.75, $1.50 and $1.00. Ladies' black crepon skirt, in various patterns, at $12.00, $5.00, down to $2.00. Ladies' plaid and plain colored skirts—at $5.75, $7.50, $5.75, $5.00, $4.50, $3.50, and $2.00.

Ladies' Wrappers

Calico Wrappers in large assortment of colors and sizes, worth $1.00—price, each, $89c. Ladies' heavy Flannellette Wrappers in full line of sizes and colors—only $1.00 each. At $1.25 we show an extra good quality in Flannellette Wrappers, elaborately trimmed and with 12-inch flounce—a bargain at $1.25.

Others in Percale, Cotton Flannel and all wool—all neatly trimmed and well made, at each, $3.50, $2.50 and $1.75.

Dressing Sacques

A full and well assorted line of Ladies' Dressing Sacques in all colors and sizes, neatly trimmed with ribbon, fancy feather stitching and wide sailor collar, at the following prices, each, $4.50, $2.25, $1.75, $1.25 and $1.00.

Gloves

$1.60—Centemer fine kid Glove very dressy, in all shades $1.50. $1.50—Doris, a new cycle and driving Glove for ladies $1.50. $1.00—Ladies' Arabian Undressed Mocha Gloves, in all the leading shades $1.00.

Misses' and Children's fine Mocha Mittens, fur trimmed, 50c. Ladies' fine Undressed Mocha Mittens, 40c. Children's fancy and plaid gloves, something very new, per pair $39c. Ladies' fancy driving gloves, a new novelty, very stylish, 50c. A full line of ladies' and children's wool mittens, best line in the city, 25c to 75c.

Collarettes - Boas

Black Coney Boa, trimmed with Marten tails, worth $1.50, only $1.75. Marten Boa, extra good quality, trimmed with tails, 5.00. Stone Marten Boa, trimmed with Marten tails, 3.50. Red Fox, trimmed, 3.75. Real Stone Marten Boa, worth $25.00, only $19.00. Black Coney Collarette, with astrakhan, 3.25. Black Coney Collarette, with astrakhan yoke, 5.75. Electric Seal Collarette, with astrakhan yoke, 7.50. 'Jed' Opposum Collarette, trimmed with beads, 7.50. Electric Seal Collarette, extra fine and well finished, 9.75. Electric Seal Collarette, with tabs and Persian yoke—trimmed with Marten tails, 12.00. Real Marten Collarette and Beaver Collarette, all extra well lined and finished with tabs and trimmed with Marten tails, at extra low prices—$17.00, $20.00, $22.50 and $25.00.

Hosiery

Ladies' extra heavy fleeced Hose—a pair $1.25. A regular 25c Fleeced Lined Hose (3 pairs for 50c) for $1.75. Ladies' Fleeced Lined Hose, with double sole and ribbed top—very elastic, extra value $25c. Ladies' Cashmere Hose, per pair, 25c. New line ladies' Fancy Hose—per pair—50c and 25c. Children's Fleeced Lined Hose—extra value—17c. Children's heavy ribbed Cotton Hose—(3 for 25c) 10c. Children's fine Cashmere Hose—25c.

Men's Furnishings

A big lot of men's Laundered Shirts—regular $25c—quality, to close $19c. Men's Laundered Shirts—with two collars and cuffs to match—worth $30c—close, at $19c. One line of Men's Furnishings is the complete. New lines of Neckwear—all the new shapes of collars, sizes to suit, in all the best styles, including the President, French and Shirley makes. Everything new in men's Half Hose, in woolen, Cashmere, Lisle and Cotton. Our $1.00 White Laundered is a wonder in its style, open and closed front, long and short bosom, all sizes to 38.

MINOR MENTION.

Davis sells glass. Dr. Bower, Globe bldg. 'Phone 411. Welschburner at Bixby's. Tel. 103. Budweiser beer. L. Rosenfeld, agent. Perry pictures. Alexander's, 233 B-way. Dr. Stoeneman, Merriam blk., room 211. Mrs. Gus Rollan is visiting in Jefferson, Ia. James B. Boone is quite sick at his home, 225 Washington, avenue, residence, 32. The regular meeting of Augusta grove will be held this evening. Remond, C. E. Alexander & Co., Art Emporium, 232 Broadway. C. B. Jacquemont & Co., jewelers and opticians, 77 South Main street. Get your work done at the popular Eagle laundry, 724 Broadway, 'Phone 157. W. C. Estep, undertaker, 28 Pearl street. Telephone office, 27, residence, 32. Dr. Hazen has suffered another stroke of paralysis and his condition is critical. Hog raisers, 100 pounds make you 100. Morris's Stock Food Co., Council Bluffs. Prof. H. D. McAnaney is visiting relatives in the city while enroute from California to Washington, D. C. Mr. and Mrs. Guy Willmott left last evening for Phoenix, Ariz., for the benefit of the city's health. Sheridan coal is smokeless; no clinkers, soot nor sulphur. Penion & Foley, sole agents, 27 Main street. The regular meeting of Unity guild of Grace church will be held tomorrow afternoon at the parish house. Mrs. George Bowen is at the Woman's Christian Association hospital suffering from a severe attack of influenza. J. G. Trimble of Kansas City, general solicitor of the Omaha & St. Louis railway, will be in the city attending federal court. Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Kern and daughter Olive of Denver are in the city visiting the family of R. H. Williams on Harmony street. J. W. Wickersham of Defiance, Ia., and Julia A. Allen of Avoca were married yesterday at the First Baptist church in this city. Rev. R. Venting officiating. Mrs. W. L. Baker, corner of North Eighth street and Avenue C, will entertain the Ladies' Aid society of the Second Presbyterian church this afternoon at 2 o'clock. There will be an important meeting this evening at the annual meeting of the International Protective Association. Labor hall, 101 Main street, at which every member is requested to be present. Captain D. Malby has been appointed bailiff of the district court in place of Captain H. C. Collins, who has resigned in order to devote his time to his campaign as a candidate on the republican ticket for the legislature. William Singleton, the boy who ran away from the Reform school at Eldora and was rescued at the home of his mother in this city, was taken back to the school yesterday by B. J. Miles, one of the officers of the institution. Joseph L. Riche and Mrs. J. E. Barton were married yesterday at the home of Mrs. E. D. Egbert on Garden street. Justice Ovide Vien officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Riche will be at home after October 15 at 232 South First street. C. H. Judson left last evening for Minneapolis, where he assumes the management of the Mississippi Valley Telephone company's exchange. The company is a subsidiary of the Chicago & North Western, the president and main stockholder. The following officers were elected Tuesday night at the annual meeting of the Council Bluffs Mutual Building and Loan Association: President, Freeman I. Reed; secretary, J. C. Fenion; treasurer, F. J. Day. J. D. Crookwell has returned from his trip to New York. He was there during the Dewey demonstrations and witnessed both the marine and land parades. He brought home with him a large number of photographs and interesting features of the reception to Admiral Dewey. The Christian Endeavor society of the First Congregational church will hold its semi-annual business meeting this evening at the home of Miss Clarice Morton, 386 South Sixth street. All members are requested to be present, as there is business of importance to be transacted. Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Fock left yesterday for a three weeks' visit with friends at different points in Iowa and Illinois. This is the first vacation during the twenty-seven years he has been in the employ of the Rock Island railway. The Rev. Paul W. W. is a student of the University of Chicago, will accompany them as far as the Windy City. Dr. W. G. Bradbury of Omaha filed an information in Justice Vien's court yesterday charging Duncan Darragh with larceny.

Underwear.

Men's extra heavy fleeced underwear, covered seams, each, $37c. Men's new pure, silk fleeced, the best for health and comfort $1.00. Men's all wool fleeced and all wool sanitary garments. We make a special effort on these fine garments. $1.00. Our $1.50 and $2.50 garments are best values in the market for the money. Children's Underwear—We have a full line of children's underwear, in cotton; fleeco and wool, at lowest prices. Ladies' Underwear—Ladies' heavy fleeced underwear, full sized and finished seams, at $25c. Ladies' Egyptian fleeced underwear, a regular 50c garment, at $39c. Ladies' new angora fleeced underwear, very fine and soft fleeco, made by a new process, is not damaged by washing at $50c. Ladies' all wool garments, all sizes, 50c and 75c. Ladies' union suits—at 25c, a lot of extra value union suits, worth up to 60c. At 39c, a lot of fine, heavy fleeced union suits. At 50c, full sized, extra quality union suits worth $1. Ladies' all wool union suits, at $1, $1.50 and $2.00. Ladies' all wool black tights, warranted fast colors $1.00.

Infants' Wear.

Rubens' Infant Shirt. Just received, a fine line of Rubens' underwear for infants, like cut—a most convenient and comfortable garment. A nice line of dainty socks for infants in all pretty shades at 25c, 50c, 65c, 1.25. Infant's hoods, an endless assortment at 25c, 33c, 50c, 65c, 75c and $1.25.

New line of men's Work Gloves and Mitts. Men's fine Dress Gloves, $1.50 a pair. Men's silk lined Dress Gloves, extra value $1.25 a pair. New line of men's Scotch Knit Gloves and Mitts at 25c, 30c, 50c and 75c a pair.

COUNCIL BLUFFS.

PLANS FOR THE RECEPTION

Council Bluffs Getting Into Shape to Receive the Returning Volunteers.

COMMITTEES GETTING DOWN TO WORK

Local Executive Committee Sends Out Letter to Mayor of Every City Which Has Company in the Regiment.

Preparations for the reception to the Fifty-first Iowa are going on apace and by the end of the week every committee will be hard at work. The committees have an immense amount of detail work to do. In accordance with the plan that the reception should be a state-wide one the local executive committee yesterday sent a letter of invitation to the mayor of every city and town in Iowa. The letter is as follows: "The Fifty-first Iowa regiment of volunteers is now returning from the Philippines and will soon again be on Iowa soil. It is undoubtedly the sentiment of all the people of our state that the reception to this regiment, of which we are so proud, should be fully in keeping with the patriotism and loyalty of our state. At a meeting of a committee from each city more directly interested in the reception of the Fifty-first Iowa, the plan was adopted to send a letter of invitation to the mayor of every city and town in Iowa. The letter is as follows: "The Fifty-first Iowa regiment of volunteers is now returning from the Philippines and will soon again be on Iowa soil. It is undoubtedly the sentiment of all the people of our state that the reception to this regiment, of which we are so proud, should be fully in keeping with the patriotism and loyalty of our state. At a meeting of a committee from each city more directly interested in the reception of the Fifty-first Iowa, the plan was adopted to send a letter of invitation to the mayor of every city and town in Iowa. The letter is as follows: "The Fifty-first Iowa regiment of volunteers is now returning from the Philippines and will soon again be on Iowa soil. It is undoubtedly the sentiment of all the people of our state that the reception to this regiment, of which we are so proud, should be fully in keeping with the patriotism and loyalty of our state. At a meeting of a committee from each city more directly interested in the reception of the Fifty-first Iowa, the plan was adopted to send a letter of invitation to the mayor of every city and town in Iowa. The letter is as follows: "The Fifty-first Iowa regiment of volunteers is now returning from the Philippines and will soon again be on Iowa soil. It is undoubtedly the sentiment of all the people of our state that the reception to this regiment, of which we are so proud, should be fully in keeping with the patriotism and loyalty of our state. At a meeting of a committee from each city more directly interested in the reception of the Fifty-first Iowa, the plan was adopted to send a letter of invitation to the mayor of every city and town in Iowa. The letter is as follows: "The Fifty-first Iowa regiment of volunteers is now returning from the Philippines and will soon again be on Iowa soil. It is undoubtedly the sentiment of all the people of our state that the reception to this regiment, of which we are so proud, should be fully in keeping with the patriotism and loyalty of our state. At a meeting of a committee from each city more directly interested in the reception of the Fifty-first Iowa, the plan was adopted to send a letter of invitation to the mayor of every city and town in Iowa. The letter is as follows: "The Fifty-first Iowa regiment of volunteers is now returning from the Philippines and will soon again be on Iowa soil. It is undoubtedly the sentiment of all the people of our state that the reception to this regiment, of which we are so proud, should be fully in keeping with the patriotism and loyalty of our state. At a meeting of a committee from each city more directly interested in the reception of the Fifty-first Iowa, the plan was adopted to send a letter of invitation to the mayor of every city and town in Iowa. The letter is as follows: "The Fifty-first Iowa regiment of volunteers is now returning from the Philippines and will soon again be on Iowa soil. It is undoubtedly the sentiment of all the people of our state that the reception to this regiment, of which we are so proud, should be fully in keeping with the patriotism and loyalty of our state. At a meeting of a committee from each city more directly interested in the reception of the Fifty-first Iowa, the plan was adopted to send a letter of invitation to the mayor of every city and town in Iowa. The letter is as follows: "The Fifty-first Iowa regiment of volunteers is now returning from the Philippines and will soon again be on Iowa soil. It is undoubtedly the sentiment of all the people of our state that the reception to this regiment, of which we are so proud, should be fully in keeping with the patriotism and loyalty of our state. At a meeting of a committee from each city more directly interested in the reception of the Fifty-first Iowa, the plan was adopted to send a letter of invitation to the mayor of every city and town in Iowa. The letter is as follows: "The Fifty-first Iowa regiment of volunteers is now returning from the Philippines and will soon again be on Iowa soil. It is undoubtedly the sentiment of all the people of our state that the reception to this regiment, of which we are so proud, should be fully in keeping with the patriotism and loyalty of our state. At a meeting of a committee from each city more directly interested in the reception of the Fifty-first Iowa, the plan was adopted to send a letter of invitation to the mayor of every city and town in Iowa. The letter is as follows: "The Fifty-first Iowa regiment of volunteers is now returning from the Philippines and will soon again be on Iowa soil. It is undoubtedly the sentiment of all the people of our state that the reception to this regiment, of which we are so proud, should be fully in keeping with the patriotism and loyalty of our state. At a meeting of a committee from each city more directly interested in the reception of the Fifty-first Iowa, the plan was adopted to send a letter of invitation to the mayor of every city and town in Iowa. The letter is as follows: "The Fifty-first Iowa regiment of volunteers is now returning from the Philippines and will soon again be on Iowa soil. It is undoubtedly the sentiment of all the people of our state that the reception to this regiment, of which we are so proud, should be fully in keeping with the patriotism and loyalty of our state. At a meeting of a committee from each city more directly interested in the reception of the Fifty-first Iowa, the plan was adopted to send a letter of invitation to the mayor of every city and town in Iowa. The letter is as follows: "The Fifty-first Iowa regiment of volunteers is now returning from the Philippines and will soon again be on Iowa soil. It is undoubtedly the sentiment of all the people of our state that the reception to this regiment, of which we are so proud, should be fully in keeping with the patriotism and loyalty of our state. At a meeting of a committee from each city more directly interested in the reception of the Fifty-first Iowa, the plan was adopted to send a letter of invitation to the mayor of every city and town in Iowa. The letter is as follows: "The Fifty-first Iowa regiment of volunteers is now returning from the Philippines and will soon again be on Iowa soil. It is undoubtedly the sentiment of all the people of our state that the reception to this regiment, of which we are so proud, should be fully in keeping with the patriotism and loyalty of our state. At a meeting of a committee from each city more directly interested in the reception of the Fifty-first Iowa, the plan was adopted to send a letter of invitation to the mayor of every city and town in Iowa. The letter is as follows: "The Fifty-first Iowa regiment of volunteers is now returning from the Philippines and will soon again be on Iowa soil. It is undoubtedly the sentiment of all the people of our state that the reception to this regiment, of which we are so proud, should be fully in keeping with the patriotism and loyalty of our state. At a meeting of a committee from each city more directly interested in the reception of the Fifty-first Iowa, the plan was adopted to send a letter of invitation to the mayor of every city and town in Iowa. The letter is as follows: "The Fifty-first Iowa regiment of volunteers is now returning from the Philippines and will soon again be on Iowa soil. It is undoubtedly the sentiment of all the people of our state that the reception to this regiment, of which we are so proud, should be fully in keeping with the patriotism and loyalty of our state. At a meeting of a committee from each city more directly interested in the reception of the Fifty-first Iowa, the plan was adopted to send a letter of invitation to the mayor of every city and town in Iowa. The letter is as follows: "The Fifty-first Iowa regiment of volunteers is now returning from the Philippines and will soon again be on Iowa soil. It is undoubtedly the sentiment of all the people of our state that the reception to this regiment, of which we are so proud, should be fully in keeping with the patriotism and loyalty of our state. At a meeting of a committee from each city more directly interested in the reception of the Fifty-first Iowa, the plan was adopted to send a letter of invitation to the mayor of every city and town in Iowa. The letter is as follows: "The Fifty-first Iowa regiment of volunteers is now returning from the Philippines and will soon again be on Iowa soil. It is undoubtedly the sentiment of all the people of our state that the reception to this regiment, of which we are so proud, should be fully in keeping with the patriotism and loyalty of our state. At a meeting of a committee from each city more directly interested in the reception of the Fifty-first Iowa, the plan was adopted to send a letter of invitation to the mayor of every city and town in Iowa. The letter is as follows: "The Fifty-first Iowa regiment of volunteers is now returning from the Philippines and will soon again be on Iowa soil. It is undoubtedly the sentiment of all the people of our state that the reception to this regiment, of which we are so proud, should be fully in keeping with the patriotism and loyalty of our state. At a meeting of a committee from each city more directly interested in the reception of the Fifty-first Iowa, the plan was adopted to send a letter of invitation to the mayor of every city and town in Iowa. The letter is as follows: "The Fifty-first Iowa regiment of volunteers is now returning from the Philippines and will soon again be on Iowa soil. It is undoubtedly the sentiment of all the people of our state that the reception to this regiment, of which we are so proud, should be fully in keeping with the patriotism and loyalty of our state. At a meeting of a committee from each city more directly interested in the reception of the Fifty-first Iowa, the plan was adopted to send a letter of invitation to the mayor of every city and town in Iowa. The letter is as follows: "The Fifty-first Iowa regiment of volunteers is now returning from the Philippines and will soon again be on Iowa soil. It is undoubtedly the sentiment of all the people of our state that the reception to this regiment, of which we are so proud, should be fully in keeping with the patriotism and loyalty of our state. At a meeting of a committee from each city more directly interested in the reception of the Fifty-first Iowa, the plan was adopted to send a letter of invitation to the mayor of every city and town in Iowa. The letter is as follows: "The Fifty-first Iowa regiment of volunteers is now returning from the Philippines and will soon again be on Iowa soil. It is undoubtedly the sentiment of all the people of our state that the reception to this regiment, of which we are so proud, should be fully in keeping with the patriotism and loyalty of our state. At a meeting of a committee from each city more directly interested in the reception of the Fifty-first Iowa, the plan was adopted to send a letter of invitation to the mayor of every city and town in Iowa. The letter is as follows: "The Fifty-first Iowa regiment of volunteers is now returning from the Philippines and will soon again be on Iowa soil. It is undoubtedly the sentiment of all the people of our state that the reception to this regiment, of which we are so proud, should be fully in keeping with the patriotism and loyalty of our state. At a meeting of a committee from each city more directly interested in the reception of the Fifty-first Iowa, the plan was adopted to send a letter of invitation to the mayor of every city and town in Iowa. The letter is as follows: "The Fifty-first Iowa regiment of volunteers is now returning from the Philippines and will soon again be on Iowa soil. It is undoubtedly the sentiment of all the people of our state that the reception to this regiment, of which we are so proud, should be fully in keeping with the patriotism and loyalty of our state. At a meeting of a committee from each city more directly interested in the reception of the Fifty-first Iowa, the plan was adopted to send a letter of invitation to the mayor of every city and town in Iowa. The letter is as follows: "The Fifty-first Iowa regiment of volunteers is now returning from the Philippines and will soon again be on Iowa soil. It is undoubtedly the sentiment of all the people of our state that the reception to this regiment, of which we are so proud, should be fully in keeping with the patriotism and loyalty of our state. At a meeting of a committee from each city more directly interested in the reception of the Fifty-first Iowa, the plan was adopted to send a letter of invitation to the mayor of every city and town in Iowa. The letter is as follows: "The Fifty-first Iowa regiment of volunteers is now returning from the Philippines and will soon again be on Iowa soil. It is undoubtedly the sentiment of all the people of our state that the reception to this regiment, of which we are so proud, should be fully in keeping with the patriotism and loyalty of our state. At a meeting of a committee from each city more directly interested in the reception of the Fifty-first Iowa, the plan was adopted to send a letter of invitation to the mayor of every city and town in Iowa. The letter is as follows: "The Fifty-first Iowa regiment of volunteers is now returning from the Philippines and will soon again be on Iowa soil. It is undoubtedly the sentiment of all the people of our state that the reception to this regiment, of which we are so proud, should be fully in keeping with the patriotism and loyalty of our state. At a meeting of a committee from each city more directly interested in the reception of the Fifty-first Iowa, the plan was adopted to send a letter of invitation to the mayor of every city and town in Iowa. The letter is as follows: "The Fifty-first Iowa regiment of volunteers is now returning from the Philippines and will soon again be on Iowa soil. It is undoubtedly the sentiment of all the people of our state that the reception to this regiment, of which we are so proud, should be fully in keeping with the patriotism and loyalty of our state. At a meeting of a committee from each city more directly interested in the reception of the Fifty-first Iowa, the plan was adopted to send a letter of invitation to the mayor of every city and town in Iowa. The letter is as follows: "The Fifty-first Iowa regiment of volunteers is now returning from the Philippines and will soon again be on Iowa soil. It is undoubtedly the sentiment of all the people of our state that the reception to this regiment, of which we are so proud, should be fully in keeping with the patriotism and loyalty of our state. At a meeting of a committee from each city more directly interested in the reception of the Fifty-first Iowa, the plan was adopted to send a letter of invitation to the mayor of every city and town in Iowa. The letter is as follows: "The Fifty-first Iowa regiment of volunteers is now returning from the Philippines and will soon again be on Iowa soil. It is undoubtedly the sentiment of all the people of our state that the reception to this regiment, of which we are so proud, should be fully in keeping with the patriotism and loyalty of our state. At a meeting of a committee from each city more directly interested in the reception of the Fifty-first Iowa, the plan was adopted to send a letter of invitation to the mayor of every city and town in Iowa. The letter is as follows: "The Fifty-first Iowa regiment of volunteers is now returning from the Philippines and will soon again be on Iowa soil. It is undoubtedly the sentiment of all the people of our state that the reception to this regiment, of which we are so proud, should be fully in keeping with the patriotism and loyalty of our state. At a meeting of a committee from each city more directly interested in the reception of the Fifty-first Iowa, the plan was adopted to send a letter of invitation to the mayor of every city and town in Iowa. The letter is as follows: "The Fifty-first Iowa regiment of volunteers is now returning from the Philippines and will soon again be on Iowa soil. It is undoubtedly the sentiment of all the people of our state that the reception to this regiment, of which we are so proud, should be fully in keeping with the patriotism and loyalty of our state. At a meeting of a committee from each city more directly interested in the reception of the Fifty-first Iowa, the plan was adopted to send a letter of invitation to the mayor of every city and town in Iowa. The letter is as follows: "The Fifty-first Iowa regiment of volunteers is now returning from the Philippines and will soon again be on Iowa soil. It is undoubtedly the sentiment of all the people of our state that the reception to this regiment, of which we are so proud, should be fully in keeping with the patriotism and loyalty of our state. At a meeting of a committee from each city more directly interested in the reception of the Fifty-first Iowa, the plan was adopted to send a letter of invitation to the mayor of every city and town in Iowa. The letter is as follows: "The Fifty-first Iowa regiment of volunteers is now returning from the Philippines and will soon again be on Iowa soil. It is undoubtedly the sentiment of all the people of our state that the reception to this regiment, of which we are so proud, should be fully in keeping with the patriotism and loyalty of our state. At a meeting of a committee from each city more directly interested in the reception of the Fifty-first Iowa, the plan was adopted to send a letter of invitation to the mayor of every city and town in Iowa. The letter is as follows: "The Fifty-first Iowa regiment of volunteers is now returning from the Philippines and will soon again be on Iowa soil. It is undoubtedly the sentiment of all the people of our state that the reception to this regiment, of which we are so proud, should be fully in keeping with the patriotism and loyalty of our state. At a meeting of a committee from each city more directly interested in the reception of the Fifty-first Iowa, the plan was adopted to send a letter of invitation to the mayor of every city and town in Iowa. The letter is as follows: "The Fifty-first Iowa regiment of volunteers is now returning from the Philippines and will soon again be on Iowa soil. It is undoubtedly the sentiment of all the people of our state that the reception to this regiment, of which we are so proud, should be fully in keeping with the patriotism and loyalty of our state. At a meeting of a committee from each city more directly interested in the reception of the Fifty-first Iowa, the plan was adopted to send a letter of invitation to the mayor of every city and town in Iowa. The letter is as follows: "The Fifty-first Iowa regiment of volunteers is now returning from the Philippines and will soon again be on Iowa soil. It is undoubtedly the sentiment of all the people of our state that the reception to this regiment, of which we are so proud, should be fully in keeping with the patriotism and loyalty of our state. At a meeting of a committee from each city more directly interested in the reception of the Fifty-first Iowa, the plan was adopted to send a letter of invitation to the mayor of every city and town in Iowa. The letter is as follows: "The Fifty-first Iowa regiment of volunteers is now returning from the Philippines and will soon again be on Iowa soil. It is undoubtedly the sentiment of all the people of our state that the reception to this regiment, of which we are so proud, should be fully in keeping with the patriotism and loyalty of our state. At a meeting of a committee from each city more directly interested in the reception of the Fifty-first Iowa, the plan was adopted to send a letter of invitation to the mayor of every city and town in Iowa. The letter is as follows: "The Fifty-first Iowa regiment of volunteers is now returning from the Philippines and will soon again be on Iowa soil. It is undoubtedly the sentiment of all the people of our state that the reception to this regiment, of which we are so proud, should be fully in keeping with the patriotism and loyalty of our state. At a meeting of a committee from each city more directly interested in the reception of the Fifty-first Iowa, the plan was adopted to send a letter of invitation to the mayor of every city and town in Iowa. The letter is as follows: "The Fifty-first Iowa regiment of volunteers is now returning from the Philippines and will soon again be on Iowa soil. It is undoubtedly the sentiment of all the people of our state that the reception to this regiment, of which we are so proud, should be fully in keeping with the patriotism and loyalty of our state. At a meeting of a committee from each city more directly interested in the reception of the Fifty-first Iowa, the plan was adopted to send a letter of invitation to the mayor of every city and town in Iowa. The letter is as follows: "The Fifty-first Iowa regiment of volunteers is now returning from the Philippines and will soon again be on Iowa soil. It is undoubtedly the sentiment of all the people of our state that the reception to this regiment, of which we are so proud, should be fully in keeping with the patriotism and loyalty of our state. At a meeting of a committee from each city more directly interested in the reception of the Fifty-first Iowa, the plan was adopted to send a letter of invitation to the mayor of every city and town in Iowa. The letter is as follows: "The Fifty-first Iowa regiment of volunteers is now returning from the Philippines and will soon again be on Iowa soil. It is undoubtedly the sentiment of all the people of our state that the reception to this regiment, of which we are so proud, should be fully in keeping with the patriotism and loyalty of our state. At a meeting of a committee from each city more directly interested in the reception of the Fifty-first Iowa, the plan was adopted to send a letter of invitation to the mayor of every city and town in Iowa. The letter is as follows: "The Fifty-first Iowa regiment of volunteers is now returning from the Philippines and will soon again be on Iowa soil. It is undoubtedly the sentiment of all the people of our state that the reception to this regiment, of which we are so proud, should be fully in keeping with the patriotism and loyalty of our state. At a meeting of a committee from each city more directly interested in the reception of the Fifty-first Iowa, the plan was adopted to send a letter of invitation to the mayor of every city and town in Iowa. The letter is as follows: "The Fifty-first Iowa regiment of volunteers is now returning from the Philippines and will soon again be on Iowa soil. It is undoubtedly the sentiment of all the people of our state that the reception to this regiment, of which we are so proud, should be fully in keeping with the patriotism and loyalty of our state. At a meeting of a committee from each city more directly interested in the reception of the Fifty-first Iowa, the plan was adopted to send a letter of invitation to the mayor of every city and town in Iowa. The letter is as follows: "The Fifty-first Iowa regiment of volunteers is now returning from the Philippines and will soon again be on Iowa soil. It is undoubtedly the sentiment of all the people of our state that the reception to this regiment, of which we are so proud, should be fully in keeping with the patriotism and loyalty of our state. At a meeting of a committee from each city more directly interested in the reception of the Fifty-first Iowa, the plan was adopted to send a letter of invitation to the mayor of every city and town in Iowa. The letter is as follows: "The Fifty-first Iowa regiment of volunteers is now returning from the Philippines and will soon again be on Iowa soil. It is undoubtedly the sentiment of all the people of our state that the reception to this regiment, of which we are so proud, should be fully in keeping with the patriotism and loyalty of our state. At a meeting of a committee from each city more directly interested in the reception of the Fifty-first Iowa, the plan was adopted to send a letter of invitation to the mayor of every city and town in Iowa. The letter is as follows: "The Fifty-first Iowa regiment of volunteers is now returning from the Philippines and will soon again be on Iowa soil. It is undoubtedly the sentiment of all the people of our state that the reception to this regiment, of which we are so proud, should be fully in keeping with the patriotism and loyalty of our state. At a meeting of a committee from each city more directly interested in the reception of the Fifty-first Iowa, the plan was adopted to send a letter of invitation to the mayor of every city and town in Iowa. The letter is as follows: "The Fifty-first Iowa regiment of volunteers is now returning from the Philippines and will soon again be on Iowa soil. It is undoubtedly the sentiment of all the people of our state that the reception to this regiment, of which we are so proud, should be fully in keeping with the patriotism and loyalty of our state. At a meeting of a committee from each city more directly interested in the reception of the Fifty-first Iowa, the plan was adopted to send a letter of invitation to the mayor of every city and town in Iowa. The letter is as follows: "The Fifty-first Iowa regiment of volunteers is now returning from the Philippines and will soon again be on Iowa soil. It is undoubtedly the sentiment of all the people of our state that the reception to this regiment, of which we are so proud, should be fully in keeping with the patriotism and loyalty of our state. At a meeting of a committee from each city more directly interested in the reception of the Fifty-first Iowa, the plan was adopted to send a letter of invitation to the mayor of every city and town in Iowa. The letter is as follows: "The Fifty-first Iowa regiment of volunteers is now returning from the Philippines and will soon again be on Iowa soil. It is undoubtedly the sentiment of all the people of our state that the reception to this regiment, of which we are so proud, should be fully in keeping with the patriotism and loyalty of our state. At a meeting of a committee from each city more directly interested in the reception of the Fifty-first Iowa, the plan was adopted to send a letter of invitation to the mayor of every city and town in Iowa. The letter is as follows: "The Fifty-first Iowa regiment of volunteers is now returning from the Philippines and will soon again be on Iowa soil. It is undoubtedly the sentiment of all the people of our state that the reception to this regiment, of which we are so proud, should be fully in keeping with the patriotism and loyalty of our state. At a meeting of a committee from each city more directly interested in the reception of the Fifty-first Iowa, the plan was adopted to send a letter of invitation to the mayor of every city and town in Iowa. The letter is as follows: "The Fifty-first Iowa regiment of volunteers is now returning from the Philippines and will soon again be on Iowa soil. It is undoubtedly the sentiment of all the people of our state that the reception to this regiment, of which we are so proud, should be fully in keeping with the patriotism and loyalty of our state. At a meeting of a committee from each city more directly interested in the reception of the Fifty-first Iowa, the plan was adopted to send a letter of invitation to the mayor of every city and town in Iowa. The letter is as follows: "The Fifty-first Iowa regiment of volunteers is now returning from the Philippines and will soon again be on Iowa soil. It is undoubtedly the sentiment of all the people of our state that the reception to this regiment, of which we are so proud, should be fully in keeping with the patriotism and loyalty of our state. At a meeting of a committee from each city more directly interested in the reception of the Fifty-first Iowa, the plan was adopted to send a letter of invitation to the mayor of every city and town in Iowa. The letter is as follows: "The Fifty-first Iowa regiment of volunteers is now returning from the Philippines and will soon again be on Iowa soil. It is undoubtedly the sentiment of all the people of our state that the reception to this regiment, of which we are so proud, should be fully in keeping with the patriotism and loyalty of our state. At a meeting of a committee from each city more directly interested in the reception of the Fifty-first Iowa, the plan was adopted to send a letter of invitation to the mayor of every city and town in Iowa. The letter is as follows: "The Fifty-first Iowa regiment of volunteers is now returning from the Philippines and will soon again be on Iowa soil. It is undoubtedly the sentiment of all the people of our state that the reception to this regiment, of which we are so proud, should be fully in keeping with the patriotism and loyalty of our state. At a meeting of a committee from each city more directly interested in the reception of the Fifty-first Iowa, the plan was adopted to send a letter of invitation to the mayor of every city and town in Iowa. The letter is as follows: "The Fifty-first Iowa regiment of volunteers is now returning from the Philippines and will soon again be on Iowa soil. It is undoubtedly the sentiment of all the people of our state that the reception to this regiment, of which we are so proud, should be fully in keeping with the patriotism and loyalty of our state. At a meeting of a committee from each city more directly interested in the reception of the Fifty-first Iowa, the plan was adopted to send a letter of invitation to the mayor of every city and town in Iowa. The letter is as follows: "The Fifty-first Iowa regiment of volunteers is now returning from the Philippines and will soon again be on Iowa soil. It is undoubtedly the sentiment of all the people of our state that the reception to this regiment, of which we are so proud, should be fully in keeping with the patriotism and loyalty of our state. At a meeting of a committee from each city more directly interested in the reception of the Fifty-first Iowa, the plan was adopted to send a letter of invitation to the mayor of every city and town in Iowa. The letter is as follows: "The Fifty-first Iowa regiment of volunteers is now returning from the Philippines and will soon again be on Iowa soil. It is undoubtedly the sentiment of all the people of our state that the reception to this regiment, of which we are so proud, should be fully in keeping with the patriotism and loyalty of our state. At a meeting of a committee from each city more directly interested in the reception of the Fifty-first Iowa, the plan was adopted to send a letter of invitation to the mayor of every city and town in Iowa. The letter is as follows: "The Fifty-first Iowa regiment of volunteers is now returning from the Philippines and will soon again be on Iowa soil. It is undoubtedly the sentiment of all the people of our state that the reception to this regiment, of which we are so proud, should be fully in keeping with the patriotism and loyalty of our state. At a meeting of a committee from each city more directly interested in the reception of the Fifty-first Iowa, the plan was adopted to send a letter of invitation to the mayor of every city and town in Iowa. The letter is as follows: "The Fifty-first Iowa regiment of volunteers is now returning from the Philippines and will soon again be on Iowa soil. It is undoubtedly the sentiment of all the people of our state that the reception to this regiment, of which we are so proud, should be fully in keeping with the patriotism and loyalty of our state. At a meeting of a committee from each city more directly interested in the reception of the Fifty-first Iowa, the plan was adopted to send a letter of invitation to the mayor of every city and town in Iowa. The letter is as follows: "The Fifty-first Iowa regiment of volunteers is now returning from the Philippines and will soon again be on Iowa soil. It is undoubtedly the sentiment of all the people of our state that the reception to this regiment, of which we are so proud, should be fully in keeping with the patriotism and loyalty of our state. At a meeting of a committee from each city more directly interested in the reception of the Fifty-first Iowa, the plan was adopted to send a letter of invitation to the mayor of every city and town in Iowa. The letter is as follows: "The Fifty-first Iowa regiment of volunteers is now returning from the Philippines and will soon again be on Iowa soil. It is undoubtedly the sentiment of all the people of our state that the reception to this regiment, of which we are so proud, should be fully in keeping with the patriotism and loyalty of our state. At a meeting of a committee from each city more directly interested in the reception of the Fifty-first Iowa, the plan was adopted to send a letter of invitation to the mayor of every city and town in Iowa. The letter is as follows: "The Fifty-first Iowa regiment of volunteers is now returning from the Philippines and will soon again be on Iowa soil. It is undoubtedly the sentiment of all the people of our state that the reception to this regiment, of which we are so proud, should be fully in keeping with the patriotism and loyalty of our state. At a meeting of a committee from each city more directly interested in the reception of the Fifty-first Iowa, the plan was adopted to send a letter of invitation to the mayor of every city and town in Iowa. The letter is as follows: "The Fifty-first Iowa regiment of volunteers is now returning from the Philippines and will soon again be on Iowa soil. It is undoubtedly the sentiment of all the people of our state that the reception to this regiment, of which we are so proud, should be fully in keeping with the patriotism and loyalty of our state. At a meeting of a committee from each city more directly interested in the reception of the Fifty-first Iowa, the plan was adopted to send a letter of invitation to the mayor of every city and town in Iowa. The letter is as follows: "The Fifty-first Iowa regiment of volunteers is now returning from the Philippines and will soon again be on Iowa soil. It is undoubtedly the sentiment of all the people of our state that the reception to this regiment, of which we are so proud, should be fully in keeping with the patriotism and loyalty of our state. At a meeting of a committee from each city more directly interested in the reception of the Fifty-first Iowa, the plan was adopted to send a letter of invitation to the mayor of every city and town in Iowa. The letter is as follows: "The Fifty-first Iowa regiment of volunteers is now returning from the Philippines and will soon again be on Iowa soil. It is undoubtedly the sentiment of all the people of our state that the reception to this regiment, of which we are so proud, should be fully in keeping with the patriotism and loyalty of our state. At a meeting of a committee from each city more directly interested in the reception of the Fifty-first Iowa, the plan was adopted to send a letter of invitation to the mayor of every city and town in Iowa. The letter is as follows: "The Fifty-first Iowa regiment of volunteers is now returning from the Philippines and will soon again be on Iowa soil. It is undoubtedly the sentiment of all the people of our state that the reception to this regiment, of which we are so proud, should be fully in keeping with the patriotism and loyalty of our state. At a meeting of a committee from each city more directly interested in the reception of the Fifty-first Iowa, the plan was adopted to send a letter of invitation to the mayor of every city and town in Iowa. The letter is as follows: "The Fifty-first Iowa regiment of volunteers is now returning from the Philippines and will soon again be on Iowa soil. It is undoubtedly the sentiment of all the people of our state that the reception to this regiment, of which we are so proud, should be fully in keeping with the patriotism and loyalty of our state. At a meeting of a committee from each city more directly interested in the reception of the Fifty-first Iowa, the plan was adopted to send a letter of invitation to the mayor of every city and town in Iowa. The letter is as follows: "The Fifty-first Iowa regiment of volunteers is now returning from the Philippines and will