Conflict is Marked by Deeds of Daring by Soldiers on Both Sides.

FIGHTING DOES NOT END WITH DAYLIGHT

Heavy Firing is Also Heard to the South, Where Cronje is Operating -Dozen Boers Are Killed, but English Loss is Unknown.

LONDON, Oct. 17 .- A special dispatch from Pretoria dated October 14, by way of Delagoa Bay, says:

A cyclist dispatch was received from Ottoshoep, near Malmani, at 6 p. m., asserting that heavy firing had been in progress all day long north of Mafeking. The British troops on board an armored train acted as a covering force to military engineers engaged in repairing the track. A Maxim gun on the train kept up a continuous fire.

Conspicuous bravery was displayed on both sides, but it soon became apparent that the rifles of the burghers were ineffective against an armored train. The latter, however, was once forced to retreat before a Cronje, particularly strong assault, but it soon returned, accompanied by a British mounted contingent and the fighting was renewed Fighting still continues, the Boers holding their positions well. A dozen Boers were killed or wounded, but the British casualties cannot be ascertained.

NEW YORK, Oct. 17 .- An informal meetng of the regatta committee of the New York Yacht club was held tonight and it was decided that the next race should occur Thursday. It was also decided the remeasuring of Shamrock should be done at the navy yard tomorrow morning at ?

e'clock. NEW YORK, Oct. 17.-The topmast of the cup challenger Shamrock was carried away twenty-five minutes after the big singlesticker had crossed the starting line today and its enormous clubsail, with its 3,000 feet of canvas, came rattling down on the deck, leaving it a helpless cripple. No amount of pluck or courage could face such a catastrophe and Shamrock abandoned the race, towing back to the anchorage after the wreckage had been cleared. Columbia continued over the course alone, placing to its credit the second of the races for the America's cup. The accident to Shamrock ruined the race and caused the thousands of sighteeers who were on hand to

It is unfortunate that the defender should have been the beneficiary of an accident, as there is little glory in beating a cripple, but the rule is ironclad. If crippled before the start time is allowed for repairs, but once over the line, if anything carries away, the sufferer must make such repairs as he can was today, he must take the consequences There are good sense and logic behind the rule.
