clubtopsails drawing. But as the wind had drawn a little to the southward, instead of keeping away for the mark they made almost a triangular race of it. Without setting their spinnakers they luffed sharply to starboard, each striving for the weather gauge. Columbia showed its rival a fleet pair of heels, gaining gradually from the start. For almost an hour the luffing was continued. Shamrock was badly beaten in its attempt to get to the windward. After watching the yachts run before the wind for an hour, during which the breeze died down to five knots and less, the excursion fleet turned ahead and gathered about the float to witness the turn. By the time they had lined up the big yachts could hardly be seen. Through the haze they looked like phantom pyramids. The wind kept failing and there was a long wait.

Drifting Match.

The balloons of the big sloops bellied in and out, shivered, collapsed and the race was degenerating into a drifting match as they approached the mark. The challenger was directly astern of Columbia trying with its mountains of canvas to blanket the towering sails of the Yankee. But Columbia was a wizard. Somehow it managed to get wind enough from somewhere to keep it slipping through the water and in vain Shamrock tried to overtake it. The yachts were coming the last mile. The white boat bore round the mark in queenlike manner, a minute of intense chagrin aboard the challenger, and the patriots could not but feel sense of pity for it. Shamrock went round the mark six minutes and eighteen seconds after Columbia. About three and one half hours had been consumed and there appeared no chance of finishing the race. A southward wind picked

Columbia sailed away from its rival like a ghost ship, leaving it far astern, increasing the distance between them so rapidly that when the race was declared off at 4:19 it was leading by three miles.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 12.—C. H. Smith's crack colt, Lieutenant Gibson, had an easy victory in the K'mball stakes at Latonia. The distance was six furlongs. Lieutenant Gibson carried 125 pounds, but he took up his heavy impost and made a show of his field. In the betting Lieutenant Gibson was favorite at 4 to 5 and 7 to 10, with Kentucky Farmer next in choice at 7 to 2. When the flag dropped at the start Kentucky Farmer was the last away. Lieutenant Gibson also got off poorly, but the pair made up ground quickly and in the stretch Lieutenant Gibson went to the front, followed by Kentucky Farmer. from a greater defeat than on Monday. Today it was beaten on the run to the outer mark five minutes and fifty-one seconds, elapsed time, and on the leg home, which would have been a beat, but which, owing to a shift of the wind, was a broad reach, Columbia sailed away from it like a witch.

When the race was declared off, about ten minutes before the expiration of the time limit, Columbia was leading by three miles. It was then four miles from the finish. Had the race been finished Shamrock would have been beaten by about twenty minutes.

Sir Thomas' boat was very badly handled today, in spite of the aggregation of talent aboard of it. The two English captains and the captain of Emperor William's yacht, Meteor, failed to get Shamrock over the line before the handlean sun was fired and it.

went into the race penalized by two seconds on that account. The additional ballast which was put into it yesterday seems to have been a blunder on the part of its managers, as it increased the size of the body to be forced through the water and in the light air that prevailed today retarded, instead of increased, its speed. What Shamrook may be able to do in rough weather and a reefing wind is still problematical, but after the drubbing it has received, the experts are almost unanimous in the belief that Columbia can take its measures in light airs or a gale.

The crew of Shamrook have given it up. They are now convinced that we have the better boat. Before the race on Monday they had the most supreme confidence in Summer in the Arctic Circle. our boat lay in summe within the Arctic circle.

No agreement was reached, owing to the fact that no one knew where the records were showing just what the State board put in for the preparation of the grounds for fair purposes. Presid fat Bassett of the Agricultural society declared, however, that there was not enough in controversy to quibble about and a settlement will doubtless soon be reachts. Trying to Divide.

Her Handy Money Stocking.

Memphis Scimitar: "Yes, you are right," said the conductor of a Main street car, victously ringing up a fare. "Some people do carry money in queer places. Now, that Chinaman in there kept me waiting over two blocks while he untied a Gordian knot in his queue, where he had his cash. Some people keep me waiting five blocks or more while they fish around for their money."

"It must be very aggravating when you are in a rush."

"Oh, it's lough, but a man has his fun out of it, just the same. Yesterday I was going north on Main street when, at the corner of Adams Iwo women got on the car. I waited a minute or so and then went in for the fares. The women looked sort of dashed and then one of them began to fumble in her purse. Empty. Then her companion made a dive at the bottom of her skirts and I prepared to blush.

"Well, sir, it beat all; that woman deliberately unlaced her shoe and took it off, and through a hole in her stocking fished out a dime."

THEY ARE CONVINCING

Statement of a Neighbor is to be Believed.

Nothing So Convincing as What Persons Whom We Know and Respect Say.

There is nothing so convincing as the statements of people whom we know and respect. If your neighbor tells you something, you know it is true; no neighbor will deceive another. So that is the way with Kid-ne-olds. The statements of people living right here in Omaha are published so that you may ask these people and find out the great good Morrow's Kid-ne-olds are doing. Mrs. M. R. Henton, 706 South 30th street, says: "I suffered with kidney trouble for a long time. Of late years I was almost disabled and a constant sufferer from rheumatism. I had no peace by day, nor scarcely any rest or sleep at night on account of backache, rheumatism, nervousness and other distressing and annoying symptoms of disordered kidneys. I was also troubled with torpid liver and biliousness. I tried to get relief by using different kinds of kidney and liver remedles, but my troubles remained until recently I heard about and procured some of Morrow's Kid-ne-oids and Liver-Lax. The use of these remedies wrought a wonderful change in my physical and mental condition. In less than a week was free from kidney backache, rheumatism and in fact all pain and other symptoms of kidney and liver troubles."

Morrow's Kid-ne-olds are not pills, but Yellow Tablets and sell at fifty cents a box at all drug stores and at Myers-Dillon Co's drug store.
