The Iowa Loan & Trust company of Sioux City has brought suit in the district court against the County of Pottawattamie to recover $150. The company bought a certain lot in Baylies' addition at tax sale in December, 1894, and has since paid the annual taxes on it. Recently it learned, so it is alleged, that at the time the lot was sold by the treasurer, all taxes had been paid and therefore the sale for delinquent taxes was invalid. The company presented its claim to the Board of Supervisors, but it was disallowed and it now brings suit.

Judge Aylesworth of the superior court granted a new trial yesterday in the case of E. S. Vaughan against the Northwestern railway.
