

ARE RECRUITING IN NEBRASKA

Captain Fisher of Chadron Says There is a Well-Organized Movement.

MANY WILLING TO FIGHT FOR BOERS

Free Transportation to South Africa to All Who Will Enlist—Captain Fisher Offered a Commission, but Would Not Go.

LINCOLN, Jan. 1.—(Special Telegram)—Captain Alan H. Fisher of Chadron was in the city tonight and in response to a question concerning the report that he was organizing an army to assist the Boers, he said:

"Recruiting the Boer army has been going on in Nebraska for some time. I have been accused of being connected with it, but the statement is not founded on fact. It is true that I was offered a commission in the Boer army, if I would accept it. Of course I refused."

"The fact is that there has been considerable sentiment aroused over the state in behalf of the Boers and a movement has been started to raise troops to assist them in their struggle, but the organization has not assumed anything like the proportions. Several dozen Nebraska men have signified their willingness and their desire to fight for the Boers and several hundred people will doubtless go from this state. It is a well organized movement and every one who will fight for the Boers can get transportation to South Africa. The recruiting is going on openly in the state and has been going on for some time. John G. Maher is actively engaged in the movement."

USE BLOODHOUNDS AT SYRACUSE

Proprietor of Hotel Store Uses New Method to Trace Robbers.

SYRACUSE, Neb., Jan. 1.—(Special Telegram)—The restaurant and confectionery store of Henry Reiff was broken into last night and over $25 worth of cigars stolen. He kept the money and the cigars in the store after the arrival of the train from Lincoln it brought a pair of bloodhounds that were immediately taken to the store and after smelling around for a while took the trail and in about five minutes had stopped in front of the store and would not go any further. They were taken back to the store again and took the trail and went direct to the same place. The dogs were returned to the store, their coats washed and after a rest were sent out again and went over the route first taken, stopping at the same house as in the first instance. The first time the dogs went out they stopped at a brushpile and in their master picked up a skeleton key. This was in the rear of the store that had been robbed.

ATTRACTIONS OF NORTH PLATTE

NORTH PLATTE, Neb., Jan. 1.—(Special)—Mayor John Bratt, in an interview on the most attractive business openings in North Platte, said:

"The needs of our city are numerous. We have never had a boom, neither do we want one, but desire to keep pace with our requirements. Among our wants may be mentioned an electric light plant and a sewerage system. But we would like to see the city system them. We also need larger hotel accommodations. The building of a new opera house building would do well to come and investigate. We are situated in the best stock and irrigating district in the state. There are cattle and hogs in abundance and there is no limit to hay and grazing. It is possible to raise alfalfa, corn, oats, wheat and rye."

OLDHAM HAS AN EYE TO BUSINESS

Deputy Attorney General Trying to Get Money from Buffalo County.

KEARNEY, Neb., Jan. 1.—(Special)—The people of Buffalo county are anxious that the perpetrators of the double murder here should have a short time ago shall be punished. When the lynchers of Barrett Scott were on trial in Holt county Attorney General Churchill personally assisted in prosecuting the case.

WEST POINT, Neb., Jan. 1.—(Special)—Solemn high mass was celebrated in St. Mary's church here yesterday morning.

NEBRASKA RANKS HIGH IN CEREALS

Third on Corn and Second on Wheat in Comparison with Other States.

HASTINGS, Neb., Jan. 1.—(Special)—A table, just compiled by William Lowman of the city for the United States government gives a comparison between the western states on corn and wheat crops.

Good Sleighting at Harvard.

HARVARD, Neb., Jan. 1.—(Special)—In the going out of the city and in the spirit of the new year, Harvard has enjoyed its usual festivities and a fine holiday trade. Last night at the Methodist Episcopal church a watch meeting was held, in which the other churches took part. A very light snow has been falling for several days.

Ships to be Dismissed Cont.

CULBERTSON, Neb., Jan. 1.—(Special)—The contest case of J. M. Crews, sheriff against John H. Brown, republican, has been dismissed by Crews' attorney, Brown was accused by nine majority.

Patent Accident at Guide Rock.

GUIDE ROCK, Neb., Jan. 1.—(Special)—While Fred Fisher, aged 19, was handling an old gun, his barrels were discharged accidentally in his face. Instant death resulted.

Harvesting the Ice Crop.

NEBRASKA CITY, Jan. 1.—(Special)—The ice season here is being a large, good quality.

Dismissal Irregular Induction.

DENVER, Jan. 1.—A special to the Register from Albuquerque, N. M., says: Judge W. P. Parker of light duty, district judge, has decided to the clerk of the court at Las Cruces to be dismissed from the position and to be reinstated in the position on the ground that there is no evidence that the new order dated with the clerk of the court on the lower Rio Grande. It is thought that the clerk of the court at Las Cruces is the same court of the territory.

Noted Reed Rests Comfortably.

NEW YORK, Jan. 1.—The physician in charge of the case of Roland Reed has reported that the patient is comfortable. It was learned, however, last tonight that the actor was resting comfortably.

Pollster Stop a Fight.

TOLEDO, O., Jan. 1.—Barney Pury of Cincinnati and Charles Baker of Elkhardt, Ind., were fighting for the East Side Athletic club tonight. The first round was so vicious that the referee stopped the bout. Pury had the 1 to 10 bet, but no decision was made.

Fire-Alarmers Metched to Song.

NEW YORK, Jan. 1.—Robert Fitzsimmons was matched tonight with Jack McManis in a six-round battle. The contest is to be for 75 per cent of the gross receipts the winner to take all. The fight will be at the Palace theatre, Philadelphia.

Love Rider Makes a Record.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Jan. 1.—Orlando Stevens of Oklawaha, Fla., made a new way record in a contest in which he rode the race here. His time was 1:59.15. The race was won by Fred Sims, made at Washington in 2:00.24.

NEW YEAR'S AT WHITE HOUSE

Most Brilliant Reception of the Washington Social Season.

OVER THREE THOUSAND PEOPLE ATTEND

Members of the Diplomatic Corps Take Precedence—Gorgeous Uniforms Help to Make a Brilliant Scene.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 1.—Beneath a sky as bright as that above Cuba and in a wind as cold as the Arctic more than 2,000 citizens stood in line at the White House gate today, waiting to pay their respects to the president.

There have been larger crowds in the past at the White House New Year gatherings, but few functions of the sort have been more brilliant and in none have the crowds been so diverse in origin and so numerous.

Beginning promptly at 11 a. m. the ceremony was concluded at 1:15, at which time 3,554 guests passed down the line.

Mrs. McKinley was present in spite of her feeble health. She did not get in many effective compliments, but she was present in the blue parlor only during the strictly official section of the program, retiring then as had been previously arranged.

The brilliant lights reflected from the crystal chandeliers overhead, the twinkle of tiny electric globes through the heavy draperies of amethyst and fuchsia plants that lined the carpeted corridor, made an excellent stage setting for the official procession.

Following these came the veterans of the war in which the country has engaged. Presence was given to the few remaining veterans of the Mexican war, the veterans of the Spanish-American war, the veterans of the Philippine war and the veterans of the Republic wars.

At 11:15 the senators, representatives and delegates of congress, members of the District of Columbia and members of the District Judiciary appeared in the order named.

Following these came the veterans of the war in which the country has engaged. Presence was given to the few remaining veterans of the Mexican war, the veterans of the Spanish-American war, the veterans of the Philippine war and the veterans of the Republic wars.

The troublesome question of precedence between the army and navy was settled in favor of the former. General Miles leading the contingent with General Corbin at his side.

Other Cabinet Officers and Public Officials. WASHINGTON, Jan. 1.—The secretary of state and Mrs. Hay entertained the members of the diplomatic corps at breakfast at noon at their handsome residence on Lafayette square.

Most of the wives and near relatives of the officials of high rank in the various departments. Mrs. Gage also had with her Miss Cassini, niece of the Russian ambassador.

Following these, the American officials, including judges of the supreme court, appellate judges and department chiefs made a longer list of striking presence. The reception to the general public concluded the function.

Boers Made to Flee

(Continued from First Page.)

Portuguese at Delagoa bay, delivery having been made. He declared that the Boers can sweep down and get them any time they wish to make a raid, as only a few Portuguese soldiers are there.

The New Year's reception approached nearer to a court function than any other of the social affairs of the president and the official program with a order of precedence, is rightly adhered to.

The president and Mrs. McKinley received in the blue parlor, assisted by the members of the cabinet and their wives and "behind the line" were about fifty of the wives and daughters of senators, representatives, prominent army and navy officers and others high in social and official circles.

The first marine band in red uniforms was stationed at the head of the corridor opposite the blue parlor. He declared that the Boers can sweep down and get them any time they wish to make a raid, as only a few Portuguese soldiers are there.

The New Year's reception approached nearer to a court function than any other of the social affairs of the president and the official program with a order of precedence, is rightly adhered to.

The president and Mrs. McKinley received in the blue parlor, assisted by the members of the cabinet and their wives and "behind the line" were about fifty of the wives and daughters of senators, representatives, prominent army and navy officers and others high in social and official circles.

The first marine band in red uniforms was stationed at the head of the corridor opposite the blue parlor. He declared that the Boers can sweep down and get them any time they wish to make a raid, as only a few Portuguese soldiers are there.

The New Year's reception approached nearer to a court function than any other of the social affairs of the president and the official program with a order of precedence, is rightly adhered to.

The president and Mrs. McKinley received in the blue parlor, assisted by the members of the cabinet and their wives and "behind the line" were about fifty of the wives and daughters of senators, representatives, prominent army and navy officers and others high in social and official circles.

The first marine band in red uniforms was stationed at the head of the corridor opposite the blue parlor. He declared that the Boers can sweep down and get them any time they wish to make a raid, as only a few Portuguese soldiers are there.

The New Year's reception approached nearer to a court function than any other of the social affairs of the president and the official program with a order of precedence, is rightly adhered to.

The president and Mrs. McKinley received in the blue parlor, assisted by the members of the cabinet and their wives and "behind the line" were about fifty of the wives and daughters of senators, representatives, prominent army and navy officers and others high in social and official circles.

The first marine band in red uniforms was stationed at the head of the corridor opposite the blue parlor. He declared that the Boers can sweep down and get them any time they wish to make a raid, as only a few Portuguese soldiers are there.

The New Year's reception approached nearer to a court function than any other of the social affairs of the president and the official program with a order of precedence, is rightly adhered to.

The president and Mrs. McKinley received in the blue parlor, assisted by the members of the cabinet and their wives and "behind the line" were about fifty of the wives and daughters of senators, representatives, prominent army and navy officers and others high in social and official circles.

The first marine band in red uniforms was stationed at the head of the corridor opposite the blue parlor. He declared that the Boers can sweep down and get them any time they wish to make a raid, as only a few Portuguese soldiers are there.

McCOY IS AN EASY WINNER

Knocks Out Maher in Five Rounds Before Coney Island Club.

FINAL BLOW A LEFT SWING ON THE JAW

Kid Outpoints the Irishman Throughout the Fight—McCooy's Favor Two Boxes Before Contest.

NEW YORK, Jan. 1.—Kid McCooy again defeated Peter Maher in a brisak, well-fought battle of five rounds before the Coney Island Athletic club this afternoon.

The fight was scheduled to last twenty-five rounds and the prize was to have been $20,000, but the attendance was not as large as had been expected and before the fight was begun the principals agreed that the winner should receive the gross gate receipts.

The battle was hard fought from start to finish, but McCooy was the cleverer man in ring tactics, dodging, side-stepping and hitting powers. He showed himself to be a good ring general, ever watching for an opening and never failing to take advantage of it.

McCooy was the aggressor in the start-off, forcing Maher to break ground. He outpointed his opponent in every round but the fourth, when he was knocked out.

McCooy assumed the aggressive in the fifth and last round, but Peter sparred carefully. The Irishman soon began feinting and faking and then McCooy landed a left jab to the jaw, which jarred McCooy's head and staggered him.

McCooy assumed the aggressive in the fifth and last round, but Peter sparred carefully. The Irishman soon began feinting and faking and then McCooy landed a left jab to the jaw, which jarred McCooy's head and staggered him.

McCooy assumed the aggressive in the fifth and last round, but Peter sparred carefully. The Irishman soon began feinting and faking and then McCooy landed a left jab to the jaw, which jarred McCooy's head and staggered him.

McCooy assumed the aggressive in the fifth and last round, but Peter sparred carefully. The Irishman soon began feinting and faking and then McCooy landed a left jab to the jaw, which jarred McCooy's head and staggered him.

McCooy assumed the aggressive in the fifth and last round, but Peter sparred carefully. The Irishman soon began feinting and faking and then McCooy landed a left jab to the jaw, which jarred McCooy's head and staggered him.

McCooy assumed the aggressive in the fifth and last round, but Peter sparred carefully. The Irishman soon began feinting and faking and then McCooy landed a left jab to the jaw, which jarred McCooy's head and staggered him.

McCooy assumed the aggressive in the fifth and last round, but Peter sparred carefully. The Irishman soon began feinting and faking and then McCooy landed a left jab to the jaw, which jarred McCooy's head and staggered him.

McCooy assumed the aggressive in the fifth and last round, but Peter sparred carefully. The Irishman soon began feinting and faking and then McCooy landed a left jab to the jaw, which jarred McCooy's head and staggered him.

McCooy assumed the aggressive in the fifth and last round, but Peter sparred carefully. The Irishman soon began feinting and faking and then McCooy landed a left jab to the jaw, which jarred McCooy's head and staggered him.

McCooy assumed the aggressive in the fifth and last round, but Peter sparred carefully. The Irishman soon began feinting and faking and then McCooy landed a left jab to the jaw, which jarred McCooy's head and staggered him.

McCooy assumed the aggressive in the fifth and last round, but Peter sparred carefully. The Irishman soon began feinting and faking and then McCooy landed a left jab to the jaw, which jarred McCooy's head and staggered him.

McCooy assumed the aggressive in the fifth and last round, but Peter sparred carefully. The Irishman soon began feinting and faking and then McCooy landed a left jab to the jaw, which jarred McCooy's head and staggered him.

McCooy assumed the aggressive in the fifth and last round, but Peter sparred carefully. The Irishman soon began feinting and faking and then McCooy landed a left jab to the jaw, which jarred McCooy's head and staggered him.

McCooy assumed the aggressive in the fifth and last round, but Peter sparred carefully. The Irishman soon began feinting and faking and then McCooy landed a left jab to the jaw, which jarred McCooy's head and staggered him.

McCooy assumed the aggressive in the fifth and last round, but Peter sparred carefully. The Irishman soon began feinting and faking and then McCooy landed a left jab to the jaw, which jarred McCooy's head and staggered him.

McCooy assumed the aggressive in the fifth and last round, but Peter sparred carefully. The Irishman soon began feinting and faking and then McCooy landed a left jab to the jaw, which jarred McCooy's head and staggered him.

McCooy assumed the aggressive in the fifth and last round, but Peter sparred carefully. The Irishman soon began feinting and faking and then McCooy landed a left jab to the jaw, which jarred McCooy's head and staggered him.

McCooy assumed the aggressive in the fifth and last round, but Peter sparred carefully. The Irishman soon began feinting and faking and then McCooy landed a left jab to the jaw, which jarred McCooy's head and staggered him.

McCooy assumed the aggressive in the fifth and last round, but Peter sparred carefully. The Irishman soon began feinting and faking and then McCooy landed a left jab to the jaw, which jarred McCooy's head and staggered him.

McCooy assumed the aggressive in the fifth and last round, but Peter sparred carefully. The Irishman soon began feinting and faking and then McCooy landed a left jab to the jaw, which jarred McCooy's head and staggered him.

McCooy assumed the aggressive in the fifth and last round, but Peter sparred carefully. The Irishman soon began feinting and faking and then McCooy landed a left jab to the jaw, which jarred McCooy's head and staggered him.

McCooy assumed the aggressive in the fifth and last round, but Peter sparred carefully. The Irishman soon began feinting and faking and then McCooy landed a left jab to the jaw, which jarred McCooy's head and staggered him.

McCooy assumed the aggressive in the fifth and last round, but Peter sparred carefully. The Irishman soon began feinting and faking and then McCooy landed a left jab to the jaw, which jarred McCooy's head and staggered him.

McCooy assumed the aggressive in the fifth and last round, but Peter sparred carefully. The Irishman soon began feinting and faking and then McCooy landed a left jab to the jaw, which jarred McCooy's head and staggered him.

McCooy assumed the aggressive in the fifth and last round, but Peter sparred carefully. The Irishman soon began feinting and faking and then McCooy landed a left jab to the jaw, which jarred McCooy's head and staggered him.

McCOY TELLS HOW IT WAS DONE

Says Peter Stood Lids on Punishment—Final Knockout.

McCOY TELLS HOW IT WAS DONE

Says Peter Stood Lids on Punishment—Final Knockout.

NEW YORK, Jan. 1.—Kid McCooy tonight, in describing the last round, said: "Peter looked fresher than he felt when he came out this time. I fanned his face and put in a left hook on his neck. He rushed at me and I got him right in the eye with a right jab. He looked all right, but he was all over the place. I got a right jab to his head and he fell back and lay there, resting on his left side. Peter looked all right, but he was all over the place. I got a right jab to his head and he fell back and lay there, resting on his left side."

NEW YORK, Jan. 1.—Kid McCooy tonight, in describing the last round, said: "Peter looked fresher than he felt when he came out this time. I fanned his face and put in a left hook on his neck. He rushed at me and I got him right in the eye with a right jab. He looked all right, but he was all over the place. I got a right jab to his head and he fell back and lay there, resting on his left side."

NEW YORK, Jan. 1.—Kid McCooy tonight, in describing the last round, said: "Peter looked fresher than he felt when he came out this time. I fanned his face and put in a left hook on his neck. He rushed at me and I got him right in the eye with a right jab. He looked all right, but he was all over the place. I got a right jab to his head and he fell back and lay there, resting on his left side."

NEW YORK, Jan. 1.—Kid McCooy tonight, in describing the last round, said: "Peter looked fresher than he felt when he came out this time. I fanned his face and put in a left hook on his neck. He rushed at me and I got him right in the eye with a right jab. He looked all right, but he was all over the place. I got a right jab to his head and he fell back and lay there, resting on his left side."

NEW YORK, Jan. 1.—Kid McCooy tonight, in describing the last round, said: "Peter looked fresher than he felt when he came out this time. I fanned his face and put in a left hook on his neck. He rushed at me and I got him right in the eye with a right jab. He looked all right, but he was all over the place. I got a right jab to his head and he fell back and lay there, resting on his left side."

NEW YORK, Jan. 1.—Kid McCooy tonight, in describing the last round, said: "Peter looked fresher than he felt when he came out this time. I fanned his face and put in a left hook on his neck. He rushed at me and I got him right in the eye with a right jab. He looked all right, but he was all over the place. I got a right jab to his head and he fell back and lay there, resting on his left side."

NEW YORK, Jan. 1.—Kid McCooy tonight, in describing the last round, said: "Peter looked fresher than he felt when he came out this time. I fanned his face and put in a left hook on his neck. He rushed at me and I got him right in the eye with a right jab. He looked all right, but he was all over the place. I got a right jab to his head and he fell back and lay there, resting on his left side."

NEW YORK, Jan. 1.—Kid McCooy tonight, in describing the last round, said: "Peter looked fresher than he felt when he came out this time. I fanned his face and put in a left hook on his neck. He rushed at me and I got him right in the eye with a right jab. He looked all right, but he was all over the place. I got a right jab to his head and he fell back and lay there, resting on his left side."

NEW YORK, Jan. 1.—Kid McCooy tonight, in describing the last round, said: "Peter looked fresher than he felt when he came out this time. I fanned his face and put in a left hook on his neck. He rushed at me and I got him right in the eye with a right jab. He looked all right, but he was all over the place. I got a right jab to his head and he fell back and lay there, resting on his left side."

NEW YORK, Jan. 1.—Kid McCooy tonight, in describing the last round, said: "Peter looked fresher than he felt when he came out this time. I fanned his face and put in a left hook on his neck. He rushed at me and I got him right in the eye with a right jab. He looked all right, but he was all over the place. I got a right jab to his head and he fell back and lay there, resting on his left side."

NEW YORK, Jan. 1.—Kid McCooy tonight, in describing the last round, said: "Peter looked fresher than he felt when he came out this time. I fanned his face and put in a left hook on his neck. He rushed at me and I got him right in the eye with a right jab. He looked all right, but he was all over the place. I got a right jab to his head and he fell back and lay there, resting on his left side."

NEW YORK, Jan. 1.—Kid McCooy tonight, in describing the last round, said: "Peter looked fresher than he felt when he came out this time. I fanned his face and put in a left hook on his neck. He rushed at me and I got him right in the eye with a right jab. He looked all right, but he was all over the place. I got a right jab to his head and he fell back and lay there, resting on his left side."

NEW YORK, Jan. 1.—Kid McCooy tonight, in describing the last round, said: "Peter looked fresher than he felt when he came out this time. I fanned his face and put in a left hook on his neck. He rushed at me and I got him right in the eye with a right jab. He looked all right, but he was all over the place. I got a right jab to his head and he fell back and lay there, resting on his left side."

NEW YORK, Jan. 1.—Kid McCooy tonight, in describing the last round, said: "Peter looked fresher than he felt when he came out this time. I fanned his face and put in a left hook on his neck. He rushed at me and I got him right in the eye with a right jab. He looked all right, but he was all over the place. I got a right jab to his head and he fell back and lay there, resting on his left side."

NEW YORK, Jan. 1.—Kid McCooy tonight, in describing the last round, said: "Peter looked fresher than he felt when he came out this time. I fanned his face and put in a left hook on his neck. He rushed at me and I got him right in the eye with a right jab. He looked all right, but he was all over the place. I got a right jab to his head and he fell back and lay there, resting on his left side."

NEW YORK, Jan. 1.—Kid McCooy tonight, in describing the last round, said: "Peter looked fresher than he felt when he came out this time. I fanned his face and put in a left hook on his neck. He rushed at me and I got him right in the eye with a right jab. He looked all right, but he was all over the place. I got a right jab to his head and he fell back and lay there, resting on his left side."

NEW YORK, Jan. 1.—Kid McCooy tonight, in describing the last round, said: "Peter looked fresher than he felt when he came out this time. I fanned his face and put in a left hook on his neck. He rushed at me and I got him right in the eye with a right jab. He looked all right, but he was all over the place. I got a right jab to his head and he fell back and lay there, resting on his left side."

NEW YORK, Jan. 1.—Kid McCooy tonight, in describing the last round, said: "Peter looked fresher than he felt when he came out this time. I fanned his face and put in a left hook on his neck. He rushed at me and I got him right in the eye with a right jab. He looked all right, but he was all over the place. I got a right jab to his head and he fell back and lay there, resting on his left side."

NEW YORK, Jan. 1.—Kid McCooy tonight, in describing the last round, said: "Peter looked fresher than he felt when he came out this time. I fanned his face and put in a left hook on his neck. He rushed at me and I got him right in the eye with a right jab. He looked all right, but he was all over the place. I got a right jab to his head and he fell back and lay there, resting on his left side."

NEW YORK, Jan. 1.—Kid McCooy tonight, in describing the last round, said: "Peter looked fresher than he felt when he came out this time. I fanned his face and put in a left hook on his neck. He rushed at me and I got him right in the eye with a right jab. He looked all right, but he was all over the place. I got a right jab to his head and he fell back and lay there, resting on his left side."

NEW YORK, Jan. 1.—Kid McCooy tonight, in describing the last round, said: "Peter looked fresher than he felt when he came out this time. I fanned his face and put in a left hook on his neck. He rushed at me and I got him right in the eye with a right jab. He looked all right, but he was all over the place. I got a right jab to his head and he fell back and lay there, resting on his left side."

NEW YORK, Jan. 1.—Kid McCooy tonight, in describing the last round, said: "Peter looked fresher than he felt when he came out this time. I fanned his face and put in a left hook on his neck. He rushed at me and I got him right in the eye with a right jab. He looked all right, but he was all over the place. I got a right jab to his head and he fell back and lay there, resting on his left side."

NEW YORK, Jan. 1.—Kid McCooy tonight, in describing the last round, said: "Peter looked fresher than he felt when he came out this time. I fanned his face and put in a left hook on his neck. He rushed at me and I got him right in the eye with a right jab. He looked all right, but he was all over the place. I got a right jab to his head and he fell back and lay there, resting on his left side."

NEW YORK, Jan. 1.—Kid McCooy tonight, in describing the last round, said: "Peter looked fresher than he felt when he came out this time. I fanned his face and put in a left hook on his neck. He rushed at me and I got him right in the eye with a right jab. He looked all right, but he was all over the place. I got a right jab to his head and he fell back and lay there, resting on his left side."

NEW YORK, Jan. 1.—Kid McCooy tonight, in describing the last round, said: "Peter looked fresher than he felt when he came out this time. I fanned his face and put in a left hook on his neck. He rushed at me and I got him right in the eye with a right jab. He looked all right, but he was all over the place. I got a right jab to his head and he fell back and lay there, resting on his left side."

NEW YORK, Jan. 1.—Kid McCooy tonight, in describing the last round, said: "Peter looked fresher than he felt when he came out this time. I fanned his face and put in a left hook on his neck. He rushed at me and I got him right in the eye with a right jab. He looked all right, but he was all over the place. I got a right jab to his head and he fell back and lay there, resting on his left side."

NEW YORK, Jan. 1.—Kid McCooy tonight, in describing the last round, said: "Peter looked fresher than he felt when he came out this time. I fanned his face and put in a left hook on his neck. He rushed at me and I got him right in the eye with a right jab. He looked all right, but he was all over the place. I got a right jab to his head and he fell back and lay there, resting on his left side."

NEW YORK, Jan. 1.—Kid McCooy tonight, in describing the last round, said: "Peter looked fresher than he felt when he came out this time. I fanned his face and put in a left hook on his neck. He rushed at me and I got him right in the eye with a right jab. He looked all right, but he was all over the place. I got a right jab to his head and he fell back and lay there, resting on his left side."

NEW YORK, Jan. 1.—Kid McCooy tonight, in describing the last round, said: "Peter looked fresher than he felt when he came out this time. I fanned his face and put in a left hook on his neck. He rushed at me and I got him right in the eye with a right jab. He looked all right, but he was all over the place. I got a right jab to his head and he fell back and lay there, resting on his left side."

McCOY TELLS HOW IT WAS DONE

Says Peter Stood Lids on Punishment—Final Knockout.

McCOY TELLS HOW IT WAS DONE

Says Peter Stood Lids on Punishment—Final Knockout.

NEW YORK, Jan. 1.—Kid McCooy tonight, in describing the last round, said: "Peter looked fresher than he felt when he came out this time. I fanned his face and put in