MANY PEOPLE ATTEND THE OBSEQUIES

Deceased Had Been Prominent for Many Years in the State and Was Quite a Patron of Art.

LINCOLN, Jan. 7 .- (Special.) -- The funeral of Nathan S. Harwood, who died Friday evening from a sudden attack of apoplexy, was held this afternoon. Brief services were conducted at the First Congregational church by Rev. J. F. Marsh of All Souls' church and at Wyuka cemetery by the Masonic order, of which the deceased was a member. George B. Harris of Chicago, vice president of the Burlington railroad, and Fred L. Harris of Omaha, brothers-inlaw of the deceased, were among the many relatives that attended the services.

Mr. Harwood died at the age of 57 years. For nearly thirty years he had been a leading lawyer in Lincoln and for five years was president of the First National bank of this city. His health was procen by the severe strain while acting in that capacity during the period of financial depression. His services to the financial interests of Lincoin were rendered at a time when they were most needed. After retiring from the presidency of the bank he resumed the practice of law and was actively engaged in his wood was born in Michigan in 1843, the youngest of nine children. After the close of the rebellion Mr. Harwood came to Nebraska and located in Lincoln. He was a man of broad reading and wide culture, having the tastes and sympathies of a scholar, and he was always depended upon to further the artistic and literary sides of the city. He was president of the Haydon Art club for several years and was always one of the foremost members of the organization.

CAPT. LEARY'S WORK IN GUAM

Reports Achievements in Matter o Civilizing Natives and Cleaning Up the Islands.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7 .- The secretary of the navy has received a most interesting report from Captain Leary, governor of Guam, recording his achievements in the matter of civilizing the natives and cleaning up the Dolan, jr., secretary, Chicago. Directors islands. The report begins with the statewere elected as follows: B. F. Barnes, Chiment that three of the marine guards. Pri cago: William Cush, Philadelphia: G. E. vates D. O'Rourke, Paul Schoemig and William P. Brown, attached to the Guam bat talion, have died and been buried with military honors. Captain Leary says:

"After issuing my proclamation setting aside a Thanksgiving day, according to our national custom, the native pricet at Agana informed me that he would on that day celebrate a special thanksgiving service, in which our station band would participate. The high esteem in which Padre J. S. Palomo, the native priest, has been held by merited by him, as he has on all occasions shown himself to be a man of extraordinary moral qualities and it is a pleasure to state that in my various local duties and decrees as governor he has promptly and energet thereby strengthening our influence with the people for good." A report of the medical department's serv ices among the inhabitants of Guam has been submitted by Surgeon Leech, U S. N Surgeon Leech, after referring to the various

for twenty beds." ASSAULT ON GENERAL GREELY Drunken Man Throws Him Down

Flight of Steps. WASHINGTON, Jan. 7 .- General A. W. Greely, the chief signal officer of the army and the well-known Arctic explorer, lies in serious condition at his home as the result of an assault committed on him about 8:30 o'clock tonight by Joseph C. Furnace a messenger in the employ of the Adams Express company. Today Furnace, who lives in Baltimore, Murphy, spent the day in Washington drinkbeyond the State, War and Navy departments. They first tried to get admission to the residence of E. D. King, but being unable to do so, continued on their way up G street. Twice they went to the house of General Greely.

The first attempt to obtain admission was made as a friend of the family calling to pay a visit to the daughter of the general. Later they made another effort and per-sisted in ringing the door bell and otherwise creating a disturbance until finally General Greely came out to expostulate with them. They refused to leave the house and after some words Furnace seized the general and threw him down the long flight of steps which ascend from the pavement to the house, which stands on a high terrace. The the First Congregational church of Chicago fall cut a severe gash in the back of the and for years a writer of theological works, general's head. He was picked up and died in this city today. He was born in taken into the house and medical aid was summoned. He remained unconscious for Ambassador von Holleben, when shown the article referred to. declared that it was without foundation in fact and was a pure invention from start to finish. He should not have paid any heed to it except for the fact that his attention had been called to the matter by a representative of the press. He hopes, he says, that no serious attention will be given to publications of the character stated, but that they will be treated with contempt by fairminded people.

> War Tax to Stand Awhile. CHICAGO, Jan. 7 .- A special to the
