Suggestions of Washington Prominent in Recent Social Events.

MYERS-NASH WEDDING EVENT OF THE WEEK

Ceremony is Witnessed by Society Leaders of This and Other Citles-Calendar Comes to Hult on Ash Wednesday,

Social Calendar. MONDAY, February 28- Minuet Military." Mise Doane, Miss McKenna, Metropoli-tan hall, 4 to 5 p. m. Evening enter-tanment at 5. Bon 1on Card club, Mrs. Paffenrath.

Card party, Mrs. Tzschuck. TUESDAY, February 27-Mrs. Edwin Ruth-ven Ferfect, Mrs. George McClellan Ribbel, progressive cuchre party, Metro-politan hall.

toney-Neison nuptials.

whist lunche

Julia Officer. Cooking club, Miss Klipatrick. Mrs. Van Horn, Mu Sigma Card club. Wednesday, Lunch club, Mrs. Burgess, Mrs. Smith.

A society girl's letter of this week gives of the week, the Myers-Nash wedding:

it is fresh in mind and while my spirits are Lyman, Mr. Charles Kountze, Mr. Luther at the Drexel. bubbling over with enthusiasm; for it was Kountze. one of the most beautiful and elaborate cere- Miss Kilpatrick entertained charmingly monies of the season. into the social world. The groom was one Higginson, Mise Millard. of the typical kind that you read of in books, you know, but seldom see. Tall, One hundred guests enjoyed a most enter-

"And now that the preliminaries are

"Long before the appointed time, St. through the stained glass windows with a golden flood of light which was in perfect harmony with the interior colorings of the edifice (mighty kind of dear old Sol, wasn't The altar was a perfect bower of £t 7). -Marechal Niel roses, while the myriads of the decorations.

"The organist played the softest, sweetthe bridal cortege.

Henry Allen, Fred Nash, jr., and Louis cricks, Weitheimer, Smith, Lennon and will of a large circle of admirers. Mr. and pleasure. Nash, (Nobody paid any attention to them, Strauss, of course, because men don't count at a wedding.) Then the four little flower girls wedding.) Then the four little flower girls dainty in frocks of white with sashes of yellow, picture hats of yellow and great hunches of Marechal Niel roses. The six bridesmaids followed, looking like em- The table presented a gorgeous appearance, 1509 Davenport street bryo brides in soft white clinging gowns with its centerpiece, a basket of crimson and short illusion vells, held in place by carnations resting on a beautiful creation jaunty bows of white. They wore no of Battenberg lace, through the meshes of ornaments and carried no flowers. Then which glistened crimson satin. Covers party Saturday evening. came-Oh, but I forgot the bridesmaids' were laid for Miss Nash, Miss Creighton, names. They were: Mrs. Josoph Barker Mrs. Joseph Barker, Miss Helen Peck, Miss -I suppose she was really the matron of Myers, Miss Dannemiller, Miss Doyle, Mr. honor-Miss Helen Peck, Miss Creighton, Fred Nash, Mr. Joseph Barker and Mr. Miss Myers of Dubuque, Miss Doyle of De- Adams of Salt Lake. troit and Miss Dannemiller of Canton. The At the same time Mr. Myers gave a dinner at the Omaha club. The centerplece conmaid of honor, Miss Emily Myers, followed, a perfect picture in yellow crepe de chine, sisted of yellow and white tulips. The long, clinging skirt, trimmed in the participants were: Mr. Frederick Nash, softest rose pleatings of lisse of the same jr., Mr. Louis Nash. Mr. Forbett, Mr. Torn. Her jaunty hat was a Paris creation Creigh, Mr. Henry Allen, Mr. George Myers, of yellow, which brought out the most Mr. Dorrence Myers, Mr. Frank Contes, Mr. ravishing tints of her hair and complexion, Ben Hervey and Mr. James Edwards. She carried an immense bouquet of yellow After the dinner the two affairs were merged into a joint box party. roscs. "Then came the cynosure of all eyes, the Mr. and Mrs. Kenyon entertained at dinner bride herself, in the heaviest cream satin. Saturday evening complimentary to Mr. and The skirt fell in a triple boxpleat from the Mrs. Luther Kountze. The table was re- street entertained delightfully at cards Satwaist to the edge of the long, sweeping splendent with roses, candelabra with sliken urday evening. train. The peplum was bordered with point shades. About the festal board were gath-The bodice of satin had a yoke effect ered Mr. and Mrs. Luther Kountze, Miss of Thursday evening at Morand's in a deof real lace, while over all fell a magnifi- Gertrude Kountze, Miss Wilson of New York, cent veil of point lace which caused a thrill Miss Webster, Mr. James Paxton, Mr. W. of admiration through the whole audience. Farnam Smith, Mr. Bourland of Peorla, Mr.

pictures were given, as follows: "Babble," Mrs. Lindsey, Mrs. M. M. Morsman, Mrs. and Mr. Heyden, Miss Hanchen Rehfeld, "La Tosca," Miss Gates, Mrs. Martin, Mrs. Colpetzer, Mrs. F. | The Hanscom Park club was entertained Dolly Polack; "Josephine," Miss Kathryn M. Richardson and Mrs. Wessells, Polack; "Gibson Girl," Miss Juliet Morris Delightful in every respect was the dan-

"Colonial Girl," Miss Laura Goetz: "Mar guerite," Miss Lena Rehfeld; "Colonial Dame," Mrs. Hiller; "Priseilla," Mrs. Simons; "Columbia," Miss Dolly Polack. After an elaborate supper dancing was ndulged in and speeches given by Mr. Gardner of the Orpheum. Miss Rehfeld's colos were much appreciated, Complimentary to Miss Wilson.

A kersington was given Tuesday afternoon rested on an exquisite bed of pink blossoms. by Miss Kountze for Miss Wilson of New Fifty couples enjoyed the dancing. The C. Matthes and John Smelzer York. After the afternoon's pleasure a dance cards were especially unique and were dainty souvenirs of the occasion. luncheon most delectable was served to Mrs. Charles Kountze, Mrs. Kenyon, Miss Wilson. Miss Webster, Miss Crounse, Miss Doyle of Mr. and Mrs. John Steel announce the en-Detroit, Miss Myers of Dubuque, Miss Elizabeth Allen, Miss Webster, Miss Palmer, to Mr. George Andrew Loveland of Lincoln. Miss Grace Allen and Miss Higginson. Mr. Thomas Dupont Stoney and Miss Mass Wilson of New York was the guest Mabel Blanche Nelson will be married at 1 of honor at a perfectly appointed dinner. St. John's Episcopal church, Twenty-sixth given by Miss Gertrude Kountze Tuesday and Franklin streets, at $:30 p. m., Tuesday evening. The table was marked by artistic beauty. The centerpiece was a large basket WEDNESDAY, February 28-Musical, Miss overflowing with hyacinths and ferns. The Thursday, February 15, Miss Florence Donahue and Mr. Robert Craig were united handle was tied with a jaunty bow of pale in marriage by the Rev. Clarence R. Minard green ribbon. The plates for the ladies were marked with bunches of violets, while the of Denver, Colo. At home at the Manitou, men were favored with hyacinths. The Salt Lake City, after March 1. plate cards were pale green bands with the names in raised gilt letters. The partici- McGilvary were married Wednesday at 2 table of dainty refreshments under a canopy an accurate description of the premier event pants were: Miss Wilson, Miss Webster, p. m. by Rev, Charles Herbert Young at St. of red, white and blue. The cherries served Miss Flora Webster, Miss Palmer, Miss John's Episcopal church. The ceremony was in the cream and the souvenir batchets were "OMAHA, February Twenty-first -- Eleanor Montgomery, Miss Swensherg, Mrs. Rustin, witnessed by relatives only. Mr. Sturges reminders of the holiday. Dear: I have just returned from the Myers- Mrs. Luther Kountze, Mrs. Charles Kountze, is employed by Armour & Co. Mr. and Mrs. Nash wedding, and knowing your great love Miss Kountze, Mr. Brown, Mr. Colpetzer, Sturges departed on the evening train for for gorgeous occasions, I decided to give Mr. Morsman, Mr. Hamilton, Mr. Will Burns, the east, to be gone two weeks. On their you the full benefit of my knowledge while Mr. Samuel Burns, Dr. Lyman, Mr. Dean return they will be at home to their friends Assisting in the rooms were Mrs. Gifford, Dancing Party.

James Munn, at Thurston Rifles' armory

The hall presented a gala appearance, with its decorations of paims, smilax and pink carnations. The pillars were twined with feathery asparagus and caught here and Weddings and Engagements.

nonies of the season. "To start with, you must know Miss Nash New York. Luncheon was served for Mrs. pal church, of which the groom is a member. Mrs. Harry Gunn is one of the least-spoiled girls in society Luther Kountze, Miss Wilson, Miss Crounse, They left for the east at 5 o'clock for a Place were surprised by the N. G. O. club in spite of the fact that she has been a Miss Marie Crounse, Miss Buck, Miss Tay. short trip. After March 15 they will be at great favorite ever since her introduction for. Miss Allen, Miss Elizabeth Allen, Miss home to their friends at 2123 Webster street. The groom is a young lawyer, who was adnitted to the Omaha bar two years ago. The

Notable Dinner Parties.

Elks' Dance.

Afternoon Reception.

maid roses, while the dining room was stunning in decorations of meteors. The table had an immense bed of the fragrant blossoms resting on a centerpiece of renaissance lace over rose satin. Candelabrs.

Yellow Luncheon.

Whist Lancheon.

Comstock and Miss Gall Comstock.

sey and Miss Kelly.

The home of Mrs. G. W. Platner presented

One hundred guests enjoyed a most enter-Mr. Edmund C. Spangler of this city and with a fine physique, and dark hair with a sprinkling of gray, now isn't that romantle? When during at the hands of the George Mir. Edmund C. Spangler of this city and taining evening at the hands of the George Miss Margaret Russell Mills of New York Washington club of the Union stock yards City were married at St. Thomas' church When I get married the man must have Washington chub of the Chion dock and the City were married at Wednesday morning Thursday evening at the Metropolitan hall. In New York City last Wednesday morning gray hair, even if he powders it for the Thursday evening at the Metropolitan hall. In New York City last Wednesday morning occasion. It gives a young man a kind the dance hall and stairway were elabor. It gives a young man a kind the dance hall and stairway were elabor. occasion. It gives a young man a kind of mysterious air, you know, just as if he adorned with festoons of bunting in patriotic and J. A. Wallace. The church was filled had a history that was worth deiving into. colors, while flags floated from the win- with friends of both the bride and groom settled, imagine this charming society girl dows and pictures of patriots were placed in him was after the ceremony the relachandelier in the center of the hall extended tives and the bridal party were given a strands of emilax and graceful asparagus wedding breakfast at the home of the bride. John's church was thronged with the beauty vines to the four walls. In two corners were 857 Fifth avenue. The house was beautifully evening. Mr. J. B. Blanchard, Mr. Charles and fashion of upper tendom. It was a magnificent trees of American Beauties un- decorated with violets and orchids, combined Lennon and Mr. Al Lowry won the gentlewhite and gold wedding and the sun shone der which was dispensed delicious punch. A with delicate asparagus vines. Mr. and Mrs. Mikesell and Mrs. M. R. Murphy, Mrs. large shield in red, white and blue immor- Spangler left New York City on the follow- Mikesell and Mrs. Lowry the women's prizes, telles, two beautiful silken flags draped over ing day on the White Star steamer Teutonic | The members of the club surprised the host a picture of George Washington and the in- and will spend six months in Europe. On and hostess by appearing in rags and tatters. Itals of the club in patriotic hue added to the their return they will make their home in beauty of the scene. New York.

An elaborate supper was served from small Mr. William Llewellyn Williams and Miss white candles glowed with yellow lights. tables, which were gorgeous with roses, hya- Kate Daugherty were united in marriage Stockham and Mr. Claude Stockham. Mrs. Tail patms with thin, broad, sword-like cinths and tulips. The cover for each lady last Wednesday evening at the residence of Orr and Mr. Hayes were given the consolaleaves formed a beautiful background for was marked with an American Beauty rose, Rev. P. A. McGovern, rector of St. Philo- tion prizes. After refreshments and a short while the men had boutonnieres of carna- mena's cathedral, Ninth and Howard streets. musical program a flashlight photograph was tions. Some exquisite gowns were worn by Father McGovern performed the ceremony, taken. est music, while the ladies in beautiful the women, which together with the beauti- Only immediate relatives of the contracting reception tolleis chatted of their friend who ful lights, the strains of bright music and the parties were present, but a large number of noon to a small number of guests by Mrs. perfume of many roses made it an occasion friends gathered at the bride's residence, C. B. Liver at her home, 1022 South Twenty strains of "Faithful and True" announced long to be remembered. The members of the 150% Davennort street, to welcome them home eighth street. The afternoon was pleasclub are: Messrs, W. H. Wood, Charles and extend congratulations. Mr. Williams antly spent by Mrs. A. Anderson, Mrs. M. "First came the ushers, Mesers, H. For- Bone, Paxton, Wallwork, Sanders, Murphy, is an old and trusted employe of the smelting Neilson, Mrs. I. J. Harr, Mrs. P. Hanak, bett, Frank Coates, D. Myers of Dubuque, Kenyen, Wood, Tagg. McGrath, Ingwersey, works, while the bride is well known in Mrs. F. S. De Vor and Mrs. W. J. Caltin. James Edwards of Notre Dame, Tom Creigh. Martin, M. Murphy, Dudley, Frank, Fred- Omaha and enjoys the friendship and good A dainty luncheon added to the afternoon's

The

Mrs. Williams were the recipients of numerous appropriate wedding gifts and other

DAME FASHION IS A PATRIOT decorations of busing in national colors. Mrs. Black of Chicago, Mrs. Manderson, Noves was awarded the gentleman's prize. Jordan, Mrs. Crummer, Mrs. Merriam, The consolations fell to Miss Lynn Wigman > on Friday by Mondames Gould and Boyd The favors were small hatchets and red, white and blue emblems. After a pleasan afternoon at cards a dainty lunch was served. ing party given Monday evening by Mr. and The tokens were won by Mesdamet Duculy, Mrs. Hamlin Whitney, and Mr. and Mrs. Ingersoll, Obson and Baker.

Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Dillon were most joyfully surprised Friday evening, the occasion being their eighth wedding anniversary. Whist was the feature of the evening. The there with pink carnations. The punch bowl prizes were awarded to Mrs. Haight, Mrs. Huntly and Mrs. Matthes; D. J. O'Brien, H $2.50, $3.95 AND $10.

Mrs. Runyon's "ten" of the Church o the Good Shepherd entertained the women of It is not often that you see such barhe church pleasantly Wednesday afternoon. gains but we have a few choice jackets left guessing contest served to keep a delightful interest in the afternoon's enjoyand they must be sold this week-as we ent of their daughter, Miss Lilly Ann ment. The dainty refreshments added much need the room for our spring goods. We to the pleasure of the occasion. tre now showing New Sulis, New Dress

Complimentary to Mrs. Bigelow of Chi-Skirts and New Silk Walsis. cage, Mrs. Anderson gave a luncheon Thurs-The table was beautiful with its huge bed of pink and white carnations as a center ece, the candelabra with pink shades and the immense bows of pink and white satin which graced each corner of the table. Miss Mabel Morrow celebrated Washington's birthday by entertaining a number of her little friends at her home, 2123 Sherenan Mr. Walter A. Sturges and Miss Gertrude avenue. Sixteen little folks surrounded a

A reception was given Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ezra Millard. The rooms were adorned with roses and palms Mrs. Metz, Mrs. Rogers, Mrs. Moriarity. Mr. Charles Battelle and Mies Clara Turner Miss Crounse, Miss Marie Crounse, Miss wore married Wednesday by Rev. M. W. Millard, Miss Helen Millard, Miss Chandler,

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gunner of Kountze Tuesday night in honor of their eighteenth wedding anniversary. Dancing and cards wore indulged in during the evening. Mr Huse and Mrs. Williams carried off the first prizes white Mr. Gunner and Mrs. Cook carried off the consolution prizes.

The M. W. club was delightfully entertained by Mrs. Rhoades and Mrs. Boyd at the home of the latter Friday afternoon Violets were in evidence throughout the cooms, the color scheme being carried out in dainty refreshments. A violet guessing contest concluded the entertainment, prizes being awarded to Mrs. Cobb and Mrs. Cronk. Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Wallwork entertained the Hawthorne High Five club Saturday Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Bush delightfully en-criained at high five Saturday evening. The first prizes were awarded to Mrs. C. S.

A kensington was given Wednesday after-

Miss Harriet D. Baldwin entertained a number of her young friends at her home

Mrs. J. Benson.

If you want the finest fit that is made. This corset is like the Fasso in all but price.

White only $2.50, black $3.

If you want the best $1 or $1.50 corset in the market, try the P. N. Corset, with cork pad. Keeps the steel from rusting or breaking.

NK.SCOFIELD

CLOAK & SUIT CO.

THE OMAHA DAILY BEE: SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 25, 1900.

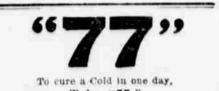

"The wedding service was particularly and Mrs. Kenyon. interesting because of the distinct responses, and then it was the nuptial solemu high The Eiks enjoyed a dancing party Wednesmass, which calls for the most elaborate day evening at the Ware block. The rooms, musical service and any number of priests and bishops, assistant priests and candle beautiful picture, further adorned with rees with their new decorations, presented a and American flags. A canopy of American After the wedding ceremony, which lasted an hour and a half-; by the way, that's the way to have a wedding; we Protestants much attention, as well as the heads of the have the knot field so quickly that it is no The chandeliers were festooned with smiwonder it comes loose, and then we don't have time to catch but a fleeting glimpse of lax and vines of asparagus. An air of pathe gowns that take so many hours to plan. Weil, after the ceremony the bridal party many American flags that graced the walls. repaired to the Nash mansion, which was At least one hundred guests enjoyed the last of its pleasant series of dances at elaborate in colorings of yellow and white, evening's gayety. Punch was served in one Thurston Rifles' armory Thursday evening. where a banquet was served, "and they of the card rooms and an elaborate lunch | Mrs. R. W. Bailey gave a pleasant whist lived happily ever after."

beyond the prescribed length, including rett, Cronk, Gibson, McGrath, Abboit, Tay- bridesmaid roses and pink carnations. postscripts, I would tell you of all the other lor, Scannell, Raber, Tousalin, Ingram, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hayden entertained happenings of the week, which are so Brown, Estelle, Briggs, Vinsonhaler, Mullen, at Morand's Friday evening for their numerous that one would think the whole Murphy, Whinnery, Myers, Clapp, Dewar, daughters, Misses Mary and Lucile. The society world expected never to come out McHugh, Gurley, Moore, Kimball, Broad- eighty young people enjoyed the evening at of sackcloth and ashes, and consequently well, Lampmann. were bound to have all the fun possibly / before their demise But Lent will be here in three days, then a charming appearance Thursday afternoon I shall be good for forty days. No more parties, no more theaters, no more dances, in honor of the reception given by Mrs. no more eating of the stuff that dreams are Platner, Mrs. J. Stewart White and Miss made of. No more of anything-but Jack. Blessing. The hall was gorgeous in red. MADGE." Tall American Beauties were used profusely. Ever your loving. The drawing room was adorned with brides-

Metropolitan Club Entertains. Another brilliant entertainment was given by the Metropolitan club at the hall Wednesday evening. The rooms were lavish in

Take "77."

To check a touch of the Grip, Take "77."

To "break up" a Cold that "hangs on."

Edition de Luxe.

Dr. Humphrey's Manual, in white and gold, sent free. Tells about the care, treatment and cure of the sick. A chapter especially on the Diseases of Children Humphreys' Homeopathle Medicine Co., Cor. William & John Sts., N. Y.

Pleasures Past.

Mrs. Manderson gave an elaborate card Mrs. Rosenstock entertained the Washington Whist club Thursday. Mrs. W. W. Morsman gave an enjoyabl whist luncheon Thursday afternoon Mrs. Hunt entertained at a patriotic party the members of the Unity Guild Wednesday. Mrs. C. B. Liver entertained a dozen friends at a kensington Wednesday afternoon A large number of dental students enjoyed a dance at the college Wednesday evening.

The Wednesday Lunch club was royally entertained by Mrs. Weaver and Mrs. Kelvy this week Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Evans of West Farnam satin ribbon, carnations and ferns. In mem-

The Winter club danced away the hours lightful manner. The Cooking club was entertained by Miss Rowena Higginson Mchday. Covers were laid for twenty-two. The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Marc G. Perkins testify to a most enjoyable evening at cards Saturday evening.

Mrs. D. V. Barkalow of Denver was the guest of honor at a kensington given by Mrs. Philip Potter Monday afternoon. Mrs. H. Cohn entertained very elaborately Beauties and La France roses attracted at a red luncheon last Friday afternoon in honor of Mrs. M. P. Mans of Sterling, Ill. A delightfully novel entertainment was the bowling party given by Mrs. Simons at gone to Denver. triotism was given to the occassion by the the Mctropolitan club Tuesday afternoon. The North Omaha Pleasure club gave the for a week's trip. enjoyed later in the evening. The commit- luncheon at 1 o'clock Thursday to sixteen If this "first edition" was not already tee consisted of Mesars. B. H. Smith, Bar- women friends. The rooms were dainty in dancing.

A true patriotic card party was given Wednesday evening by Miss Louise Smith. The score cards were flags, the ices were in flag shape with appropriate colorings, as were also the cakes and confections. Mr. and Mrs. Hande gave a reception Thursday evening at the Thurston Rifles' armory. The walls were hung with bunting in their new home. Thirty-sixth and Farin national colors, with flags, while paims nam streets. and roses further beautified the interior. One of the pleasant parties of the week was the high five card party enjoyed by to New Orleans. the friends of Mr. and Mrs. Bushnell, Prizes were awarded to Mrs. Lanzendorf, Mrs. with crimson tapers and dainty rose shades. Builer, Mr. Shiller and Mr. Carl Bergstrom. sent until April 1. shed a soft hue over the room. The as-A surprise party in honor of the 27th disting women were Mrs. McMullen, Miss Beasie Field, Miss Bennett, Miss Blanche birthday of Mr. Charles Leeder was given W. H. Parsons of Binghamion, N. Y., are at the home of his mother, 1310 Davenport street. About thirty guests were present

Cards and music were the features of the Miss Webster gave an exquisite luncheon evening. n honor of Miss Wilson of New York Thursday afternoon. The perfect appointments dance given by the King's Daughters of the A large party of young folk enjoyed the carried out in every detail the coloring of Church of the Good Shepherd at the Thurston Mrs. Charles Ford Scovil. yellow. An exquisite bed of yellow tulips Rifles' armory Tuesday evening. It was the rested on a centerpiece of renaissance lace. last dance before the Lenten season and Miss Webster had for her guests: Miss Wilproved quite the most enjoyable. ion, Mlas Swensberg, Mrs. Luther Kountze, Mrs. J. S. Tippery entertained the South Mrs. Charles Kountze, Miss Hutchinson of Side Whist club this week. A very pleasant Colorado, Miss Gertrude Kountze, Miss Lindand social time was had. Nine games were played. Mrs. Curry won first prize, a beautiful Austrian vase, Mrs. Riggs taking Mrs. Charles Coutant gave a charming second, a pretty china plate. Dainty rewhist luncheon Wednesday for Mrs. Barka- freshments were served. of Denver. The plate cards were flags The anniversary of the birth of George tied with national colors, the bonhous tiny Washington was celebrated in a very ap-

Darling and Mr. F. A. Mulfinger played delightfully on the mandolin and guitar and Miss Fave Pardun on the plano. The Twin City High Five club, composed f Omaha and South Omaha parties, met with Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Kennedy Wednesday evening and spent the evening at the game for which the club is named. The lub consists of Messrs, and Mesdames W. D. Godfrey, E. G. Smith, C. A. Sherwood, per, C. W. Fear, C. A. Wagner, Saunders, o'clock. W. E. Findley and W. R. McBeth. A pink and white luncheon was very 775 Websfer street, to a number of her for the last three weeks, will return to riends last Thursday afternoon in honor their home in Chicago the early part of the of her daughter, Mrs. L. H. Bigelow of Chi- | week. The table was very tastefully arranged with large bows of pink and white ory of Washington's birthday a huge flag was draped in the archway leading into the dining room.

cago.

Movements and Whereabouts. Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Smith are in Bufalo.

Mrs. Swift is visiting her mother in New York. Mr. A. L. Reed is sojourning at Colorado Springs. Mrs. Thompson left Wednesday for a trip o Chicago. Senator John M. Thurston was in the city Wednesday. Mrs. Mumaugh returned Monday from her Cuban trip, Mrs. F. A. Green and Miss Green have

Dr. Harold Gifford has gone to Chicago Mins Helen Peck has gone to Chicago for a three weeks' trip. Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Clark are now located at 2417 Dodge street.

Mr. W. T. Wyman left last week for a short visit to Phoenix, Ariz. Mr. and Mrs. Herman Kountze have gove Myers.

to New York for a visit of two weeks. Mrs. Samuel Burns has gone to Los Angeles, Cal., for a visit of several weeks.

Major R. S. Wilcox, accompanied by his two daughters, returned Monday from New York. Mrs. Edmund Burke and daughter are visiting friends and relatives in Chicago and Galesburg. Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Ford are located

Mrs. John Steele, accompanied by her daughter, has gone on a three weeks' trip Mrs. A. Schurz and daughter of 1805 Corby street have gone to South Dakata to be ab-Mrs. J. A. Dempater and her sister, Mrs. TE Dres

Mrs. Edward A. Soudhelmer, after a and Miss Hanna of Kansas City are visiting month's visit with her parents in Chicago, Mrs. W. S. Rector has returned from a Dubuque, Ia., came to attend the Myerstwo weeks' visit in Chicago with her elster, Nush nuptials of Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Brandels returned and Mrs. William Lawton, jr., the Missea Sunday from their wedding trip of a menth's Tudle and Nathalis Myers, Mrs. J. Linnduration in the south and the Bahamas.

Bishop Williams is in Chlcago. He as-sisted yesterday at the consecration of Rev. H. E. Tredway, Miss M. L. Horvey, Mr. Will liam Myers, Mr. J. P. Myers, Mr. Thomas Charles Palmerston Anderson as bishop-co- Myers, Mr. J. T. Adams, Mr. R. R. Hervey and Mr. H. G. Tarbert.

Mrs. F. E. Hall and Miss Elinore Dutche have gone to Washington to attend the national convention of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

home from Wymore.

adjutor of Chicago.

has returned to Omaha.

Via the Burlington to Chicago-7:30 a. m.,