Protests of Taxpayers Prove to Be of No Avail-Small Batch of Routine Business is Disposed of.

In spite of protests from patrons of the Ambier, West Side, Eckermann, Forest and Sherman schools those buildings, either wholly or in part, will remian closed. The report of the investigating committee vising that course was adopted by the Board of Education in special session Monday night by the following vote: Ayes-Black, Buchanan, Johnson, Smith, Wood, Burgets. Naye-Howard, Penfeld, Teal, Thomas and The districts concerned were largely represented and a number of spokermen set forth their views at length.

The report of the special committee was presented by Chairman Johnson, who had visited all the schools concerned, together with his colleagues, Members Smith and Black, Mr. Johnson took up each complaint made by the petitioners, making ing along similar lines. clear the fact that there was no hardship inflicted upon any school patron. ELKHORN, Wis., Feb. 26.-The treasurer of Walworth County, Mr. W. H. Allen, has been the victim of kidney trouble for some time and his many friends were getting anxtous. Kidney disease is said to carry off almost as large a preportion of the population as consumption and in many of its forms it is often considered incurable. The county treasurer, however, reassures his friends that he is now in perfect health, he having been cured entirely of his kidney disease by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

A correspondent waited on Mr. Allen recently and asked him for the facts of his
