The territory to be represented embraces all of the states and territories lying west of the Mississippi river. The subjects for discussion are set forth as follows: Irrigation, rivers and harbors, Nicaragua canal, Pacific cable, merchant murine, St. Louis world's fair, trade with the Orient, onsular service, statchood, railroad transportation, preservation of forests, beet sugar, trade with Mexico, advantages of American travel, exports and imports through the gulf and Pacific ports, need (Should be read daily by all interested, as of home factory and drainage. changes may occur at any time.)

Foreign mails for the week ending March

Basis of Representation—The go each state or territory may appoint ten delegates, the mayor of each city one dele-Parcels gate and one additional delegate for each 5,000 inhabitants, providing, however, that no city shall have more than ten delegates; each county may appoint one delegate through its executive officer, every business organization one delegate and an additional delegate for every fifty me-ibers, provided, however, that no such organization shall have more than ten delegates. Governors of states or territories, members of the United States congress and ex-presidents of this congress are ex-officio delegates with all privileges of delegates, except that

WEALTHY, HE DIES AS PAUPER Rich Mines of Ore Discovered on Lands He Took as a

Homesteader. CHICAGO, Feb. 26 .- A special to the Record from Duluth, Minn., says: Johann Mueller, who died a supposed pauper, left property which has risen in value to several hundred thousand dollars. city some years ago. He became so involved in financial troubles that many trifling judgments were taken against his land, on which he had also given two small mortgages, ag-gregating about $800. Finally, fourteen months ago, he died in the poorhouse. He had no relatives in America and his body was buried by the county. About the time of his death it was found that valuable deposits of iron ore existed is the neighborhood of his homestead and search was begun for Mueller. Detectives were sent all over the United States to find him and while they were following clusive clews from Arizona to Cuba and from Maine to Washington the poor man breathed his last in the Douglas county poorhouse, not three miles from the offices of those Duluth men who were so anxious to find him.
