DES MOINES, March 3 - (Special Telesgram)-No ticket will be nominated by the democrats of Des Moines for the city election March 4. Instead the democrats will help the republicans who are opposed to the straight republican ticket named last Saturday in framing a citizens' ticket. Such was the action of the democratic convention today. The convention endorsed the citizens' ticket nominees without an exwas almost unanimously in favor of placing no other ticker in the field, and from prescut indications there will be none. J. J.
