His almost unanimous nomination was brought about on the second formal ballot and the selection of the convention meets with general approval. The nomination of Dr. Barstow, it is conceded, will lend strength to an already strong ticket, the make-up of which assures success for the republican party at the polls on Monday, March 26. The convention was held in the superior court room and was attended by a large crowd. It was from start to finish a most harmonious gathering and the work of nominating was carried through with expedition and in a business-like manner, which characterizes the republican conventions in this city. Each nomination was received with the greatest enthusiasm, evidencing the total absence of any discord in the party ranks and forecasting an unqualified victory at the polls.

Baird, Miss., July 29, 1899. I have used one bottle of the Wine of Cardui and one package of the Black-Draught, and it has done me good. Before starting to use it, I was not able to do any of my housework without a pain, and now I can do most any kind of work and never feel a pain. It did me all the good in the world.

I cannot help but to give it praise. I will never be without it in my house again. I want one more $1.00 bottle and a 25c package of Black-Draught.

GEORGIANA REED.

Wine of Cardui did for Mrs. Georgiana Reed what nothing else could do. It transformed the suffering, disconsolate sufferer into a strong, grateful woman, who not only rejoices in good health, but delights that she can do all her housework without pain. Of such a cure as that any physician might be proud. Wine of Cardui has even more remarkable cures than Mrs. Reed's to its credit. Thousands of despondent and chronic sufferers who regarded suffering as a duty of their sex have experienced the comfort and joy of health by taking Wine of Cardui. They have realized that the crrible distresses neglectful women suffer are unnecessary when Wine of Cardui can be secured. But there are thousands of other women with the drains of leucorrhœa and other menstrual disorders still dragging them down because they give a deaf ear to the warning. For the benefit of these Mrs. Reed's letter is printed to day, are asked to get a $1.00 bottle of Wine of Cardui to day, or if their cases show unusual complications write, giving symptoms, to the "Ladies' Advisory Department," The Chattanooga Medicine Company, Chattanooga, Tenn.

Every Druggist Keeps $1.00 Bottles.
