Trading in oats was almost without fea-Trading in oats was almost without fea-ture and was on a small scale all day. This in fact was the principal depressing feature. A report of 50,000 bu, being en-gaged for export created a languid interest late in the day, but had little effect on prices. Receipts were 210 cars. May ranged from 23%c to 24c and closed unchanged at 23%c.

Provisions were moderately active and rather irregular within a small range. Packers were fair sellers, but pit traders showed a disposition to cover short sales, which with some commission house buying, kept the market fairly steady most of the session. Cotton Market.

NEW YORK, March 15.—After a tame opening the cotton market became quiet, advancing rapidly and showing great activity. The first call was at an advance of 5 points to a decline of 2 points. Throughout the session the new crop months were a drag to the general market, being depressed by reiterations of a radical increase in the territory assigned to the new crop. Private cables stated that the Liverpool market was inregular vance at New York. Such fears were reading and all all strength of islaid points on the summer positions. May advanced to $3.54 and August to $4.50, these figures being within 52/10 points, respectively, of the highest prices of the session. It was called a "one-man market," but the touying at times was general. The read and the summer positions of the summer positions. It was called a "one-man market," but the touying at times was general. The ring all the afternoon. Parties who were ment bought either to cover short contracts or in a gurely speculative way. The transactions of the ar reached 50,000 bales, as sem. Telally estimated. Toward the close selling to secure profits caused a partial reaction, with the market finally steady at a net advance of 110/15 points on the new crop months.

Not much change took place in the steer Manarket, prices being very much the same 71 as prevailed vesterday, though rather in 77 even. The demand seemed to be a little Manaret for the reason that there were fewer on sale, and for that reason there was a better feeling prevaient. At the same time 64 the market could hardly be guoted as any 51 better. The movement was fairly active 74 and most everything changed hands in good 19 soason.

SUPREME COURT SYLLAB!

No. 2663. Fannie Bernheimer against Francis G. Hamer et al. Affirmed. Appeal from Buffalo county. Sullivan, J.

L. Objections to the confirmation of a sale of real estate must be specifically assigned and have been called to the attention of the trial court in order to entitle them to be considered in this court.

2. Objections to an appraisal of property to be sold at judicial sale should, except where fraud is alleged, be filed prior to the date fixed for the sale.

2. An error in appraising real estate for judicial sale where an outlawed lien was deducted is without prejudice where the property sold for more than two-thirds its gross valuation.
