The vaudeville features of the perform ance are much stronger than last year and include the Three Lukens, acrobats, the Marvelles, grotesque dancers and contortionists; Dave Meier, bag puncher, and several others. The military drill and tab-leaux, with which the performance is brought to a close, are particularly good. In the drill some clever military evolutions are introduced by a company of fifteen well drilled men under Mr. West's personal diection. The tableaux, showing Admiral phone, 250. Depot. Dewey to Visit St. Louis.

ST LOUIS March 19.—Admiral Dewey has promised to visit St. Louis next May, just two years after his world-famous battle and victory at Manlia bay. The news of the admiral coming was brought by a letter received today by Secretary James Cox of the Business Men's league, in reply to an invitation sent last week. Hamilton W. Mabie, the well known critic and essayist, will lecture at Kountze Memorial church, Sixteenth and Harney, next Wednesday evening, March 21. This is the fourth feature in the lecture course given by the public school teachers.

Those who expected a "green" Monday in police court to follow St. Patrick's day read the stars amiss, for Judge Gordon's morning grist was exceptionally light. There were only two arraignments on a charge of fighting, and these parties had engaged in the brawl on Sunday.

Advertisements for the letting of the contract for the annex of the government building were inserted in the newspapers yesterday. The annex is to occupy the Seventeenth street front of the site. It will be four stories high and with the exception of the towers will be a reproduction of the present building.

Sergeant Samuel Keyser of Company K.
Tenth infantry, stationed at Fort Crook, who was custodian of the funds belonging to the best canteen, is reported to have mysteriously disappeared recently, taking with him a few hundred dollars belonging to the canteen. He had been in the service about three years and arrived at the fort last fall, since which time he had been in charge of the funds. Nothing is known of his whereabouts, but efforts are being made to arrest him.
