

OFFICIAL FAMILY AT HOME

Mayor's Appointees Begin Their Administrative Life.

EIGHT ARE INDEPENDENT OF THE COUNCIL.

Others Must Submit Their Bonds to the Legislative Body for Its Approval—Tax Commissioner Adds Two Clerks.

The new administrative family chosen by the mayor has taken up its abode in the city hall. The appointees to the eight charter offices have all filed their bonds and, with a few exceptions, have entered upon their duties.

In the city engineer's office the routine has not been interrupted. A chairman of the Board of Public Works, Andrew Rosewater, will today disburse with the services of over 100 men, who have been engaged during the last two weeks in cleaning the streets.

At its first meeting today the Board of Public Works is expected to select a street commissioner and perhaps a number of his subordinates. There are numerous applicants for the place of Commissioner Donegan.

Coffman Takes the Reins. Health Commissioner Coffman has prepared his bond and has taken possession of the office. He took his first lesson yesterday at the hands of the acting commissioner.

Assistant City Attorney Scott has not as yet surrendered his office to J. H. Adams, as the latter is taking a few days' vacation. In order to secure a location for his parents, who have come from Osceola, Neb., to make their home with him.

Inspector of Weights and Measures Tom Mahan may still be seen at his former post as messenger to the mayor. The congested condition of the mayor's anteroom still makes his presence necessary in the capacity of genial host. His bond is on file, however, and he will relieve John W. Cook in a few days.

Superintendent Bugh, who will succeed Jerry Sedgwick as custodian of the city hall, is informing himself as to his duties, although his regime will not begin until next Wednesday. An inventory of all the furniture and other effects in the building will be taken, for which he will render a receipt to his predecessor.

Tax Office Under Pressure. A few changes have occurred among the city offices outside of the mayor's jurisdiction. Tax Commissioner Fleming has appointed Eli G. Jones, James Nichols, both democrats, as clerks during the rush attendant upon preparing the tax lists.

Deputy City Clerk Higley is still performing the duties of that office, which he hopes to leave for that of license inspector, Frank Bandhauer, of the treasurer's office. He will begin his term as deputy city clerk next week.

H. Clark, Chauncey, Ga., says DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured him of piles that had afflicted him for twenty years. It is also a speedy cure for skin diseases. Beware of dangerous counterfeits.

HOODLUMS OVERLOOK A BET

Cowboy from Wyoming Sleeps All Night in a Gutter with $32 in His Pocket.

Thomas Ferrish of Green River, Wyo., arrived in the city Wednesday with $30, and after spending $8 for east side liquor, put up for the night in a gutter comfortably upholstered with mud. There, his pocket bulging with a $32-roll, he slept and dreamed of punching steers amid the veils of his native land.

That he was able to lie there at least five hours and awake still solvent is a sad commentary on the thrift of the east side hoodlum, but such is the case. In police court yesterday he was charged $1 and costs for the use of the gutter.

"The Lark" thoughts of a Lark Fellow were interpreted by George Tindell.

It Must Be

That we are giving the best values and selling the best goods for the lowest prices

—if not the people wouldn't continue to come here. It's a common-sense proposition, and the people are not fools.

Men's Easter Suits. There's no use trying to get out of it, the men folks are just as anxious to look their best on Easter morning as are the women folks. Your wife of course will look her best, and she'd be ashamed to have you along with your winter suit on. It doesn't cost you as much as you might think for to be just as dressy as your neighbor who spends $85.00 for his suit. We don't sell any men's suits at $85.00, but we'll sell you a ready-to-wear suit of clothes for less than half, and the only difference is in the label. "The Nebraska" in the back of your coat collar is a proof of economy, a proof of sound judgment. If you buy a suit of clothes here and change your mind about the pattern or style you can return it and exchange it. If you shouldn't find just the pattern you want we will return your money. How about it if it's made to order? Our Farnam street window is a perfect fashion plate, you may choose from it with very little trouble. Sometimes we have customers who do not buy at first looking, but they come back. We suggest the $9.00, $10.00, $11.00, $12.00, $13.50, $14.00, $15.00, $16.50 and $17.50 suits for your Easter outfit.

Boys' Shirts. Lilliputian Shirts, made just like papa's. In fancy Percales, laundered bosom, with cuffs attached. You can't blame the boy for being a little-man. All sizes from 3 years up. Price 45c. See Fifth street window.

Men's Shoes. It isn't good judgment to delay your shoe buying until Saturday before Easter, better wear 'em one Sunday and get them broke in. While we're all proud of our new things for Spring it isn't necessary to walk like an Indian on a stone sidewalk by breaking in a new pair of shoes on Easter morning. We've Men's black or tan Vici Kid shoes with or without fancy vesting tops. Box Calf, Russia Calf—in ox blood and russet colors, regular $3.50 shoes, for $2.50.
