Announcements.

Miss Anna Eva Fay and her company will give a special matinee today for women only. Tonight concludes the engagement.

Miss Fay has been seen in this city before and on each visit has attracted much attention from the public and mystified skeptical audiences with her unique and seemingly fathomless performances. For the last few years Miss Fay has been presenting an entirely new program, embracing many features never before witnessed, the principal of which is her latest and greatest oriental sensation, "Eponolocy," an act so mysterious and wonderful in itself that it cannot be properly described, but must be seen.

This dainty little lady and her clever company have met with great success in many places long engagements have been imperative. For instance, seven weeks in San Francisco, five weeks in Denver, St. Paul, St. Louis and New Orleans, certainly the very strongest endorsement that the public can bestow on any similar engagement.

Especially one strong feature introduced by Miss Fay is her matinee for ladies only.
