DAVIS WANTS TO KNOW WHY

starts a Quo Warranto Proceeding Against Haverstock as Treasurer.

SCHOOL BOARD ELECTION IS IN DISPUTE

Former Treasurer Disputes the Legality of the Claim of the Man Who is Now Holding the Office.

Another kink was taken yesterday in the school treasurer contest by George S. Davis commencing quo warranto proceedings in the superior court to oust Haverstock from the office, to which he was declared legally elected, and to whom a certificate of election has been given by the Board of Education. This action was resorted to by Davis in an attempt to forestall the hearing on the mandamus proceeding brought by Haverstock to compel Davis to turn over to him the funds of the school district, now in his possession, had before Judge Smith in the district court yesterday afternoon. In his complaint in the quo warranto proceedings Davis alleges that Haverstock is unlawfully holding, attempting to hold and take possession of the office of treasurer of the Independent School district of Council Bluffs; that Haverstock claims to have been elected by reason of his having received a majority of the votes cast at the regular school election; that in his claims to such office Haverstock relies upon "supposed" returns from the voting districts, and upon "supposed" certificates of election issued thereon; but that in fact at said election George S. Davis, received a majority of all the votes cast; that the supposed returns of the election were false and fraudulent and did not represent a correct count of the legal votes cast; and that the certificates not made in the manner and form prescribed by law, and in fact were not such as the Board of Education could legally recognize and consider; that had the count and canvass of the votes been properly and legally made he, Davis, would have been shown and declared to have received a majority of the votes cast and the certificate of election would have been granted to him in place of Haverstock. Davis Specifies His Assertion. The canvass by the Board of Education showed that Haverstock had been elected by two precincts, while Davis had been elected by three precincts. The irregularities in the manner the election was conducted and in the returns. He claims that in the first precinct the judges of election permitted votes to be cast against him by persons not legally entitled to vote and that they counted such illegal votes cast for him. He also claims that the returns from this precinct were not made out and certified as the law provides. The same allegations are made as to the other four voting precincts of the district. Going into more detail, Davis claims that Max Baumeister and Oscar A. Baumeister were refused the privilege of voting in the first precinct, and had they been permitted to do so, they would have cast their ballots for him. In the second precinct, he claims Thomas Topple was likewise denied the privilege of voting, and that in this precinct he alleges one voter put in a double ballot, both of which were counted for Haverstock. He further alleges that the judges in this precinct did not count and certify the legal votes and tally sheets for half an hour in charge of a person neither a clerk nor a judge. In the third precinct he alleges that J. P. Alexander and W. M. Green were permitted to vote after the polls had been closed and he has reason to believe that they cast their ballots for his opponent. He claims also that in this precinct Attorney Emmet Tinley voted in the right box for Haverstock and that the vote for the latter was counted by the judges. Lost Three Right There. He claims that in the fourth precinct several persons appeared and desired to vote, but owing to the absence of a part of the election board they were denied the privilege; that in this precinct a double ballot was cast for Haverstock and both ballots were counted; that in the fifth precinct Ryan was denied the privilege to vote in this precinct although he had the legal right to do so, and had he been permitted he would have cast his vote for him. Davis also makes a strong claim that the returns from this precinct were not signed by the judges and clerks when returned to the board and therefore the votes cast in this precinct could not be legally counted. Davis further alleges that the existence of a box to place the site ballots in created misunderstanding and confusion in all of the precincts and prevented the free exercise of elective franchise among the voters and made the election null, void and of no effect and the returns thereunder and the certificate of no force and effect whatever. At the hearing of the mandamus proceeding before Judge Smith in the district court the contention of the plaintiff, Haverstock, was that by reason of the declaration of the canvassing board and the issuance of a prima facie right of election he had a prima facie right to the funds of the school district now in the hands of the former treasurer turned over to him. Concerning the Funds. On the other hand, counsel for Davis contended that Haverstock should have brought quo warranto proceedings to oust Davis and that by such action it could have been determined which of the two was entitled to hold the office. They also contended that Davis had been legally elected and not Haverstock, despite the findings of the canvassing board. They also claim that Haverstock had failed to sustain any damage by reason of Davis' failure to turn over the funds to him, as the office of treasurer is together and entirely without salary and that the duties to be performed thereunder are without compensation under the law; that they are entirely gratuitous upon the treasurer, and that Haverstock could have suffered no damage, even though he was entitled to the office and the funds and did not receive them. Judge Smith took his decision under advisement. Mr. Riley 6-cent cigar.

77 Years Old and Cured of Cataracts on Both Eyes.

Desires to permit of an operation for being cured until she learned that she had been cured by Dr. W. O. Coffee, M.D., of Des Moines, Ia. She has her sight restored perfectly—can see to read the finest print.

To Whom It May Concern: This is to certify that I am 77 years old; that I live in Nebraska, in the town of Aurora; that I commenced to lose my sight over one year ago from cataracts on both eyes, and, having a son, R. E. Hammond, living at 820 21st street, Des Moines, Ia., I decided to visit him last fall and consult an oculist in Omaha. He took me to Dr. W. O. Coffee and I went under his treatment for the cure of cataracts by absorption, as I was too old to be operated on. I have carried on this treatment for nearly five months and yesterday he turned me off as perfectly cured.

I can see as perfectly as I ever did, can read the newspaper, and I am as well as I want to say, to any one afflicted with cataracts of the eyes and blindness that Dr. Coffee's new absorption method does cure them and that his terms are very moderate.

A Wonderful Cure of Deafness—It Required Thirteen Months—But He is Cured by the Home Treatment.

Auburn, Sac Co., Iowa, Jan. 15, 1900. This is to certify that I am fifty-four years old, that I have lived in Sac Co. thirty years, that I contracted deafness when I was twelve years old and have gradually got worse until I could not read or converse with any one. I tried a watch tick. No treatment seemed to help me until I wrote to Dr. Coffee, at Des Moines, Ia., and began his home treatment. The first three months I did not seem to improve any at all, but at the end of what I thought to be a long time, my hearing is now almost perfect, my catarrh is cured, my blood is pure, my hair has all turned white and I seem to be in perfect health. I want to say to everybody that is deaf, if they will stick to Dr. Coffee's treatment he will cure them. Yours respectfully, THOMAS GOGMAN.
