A previous com-parison of the records of both teams showed little difference between the average per-formances of the two. The average amount of each deposit in Montana was $563 in the national banks in 1894; last year it was $712, an increase of $150 for each deposit. In the state and private banks the average amount of each deposit was $325 in 1894 and $445 last year, a gain of $120 to the credit of each depositor. COSTLY ERRORS LOSE A GAME. Hammonds Only Score One Run Against Thirteen for Originals. Errors by the Hammond players that were costly in every instance made it an easy matter for Captain Bradford's Originals to lope around the bases and chalk up runs in Sunday afternoon's game. Failure to connect with Sullivan's curves and an almost errorless game by the Originals had exactly an opposite effect on the pork packers, and when the Originals retired in the eighth inning with thirteen runs to their credit it seemed unlikely that the Hammonds would be able to avoid a shut-

ut. The crowd reckoned wrong, however, for "Danger" Talbott, an ebony-hued base allist who assists Mr. Hammond in curing tams while not engaged in other recrea-tants while not engaged in other recreahams while not engaged in other recrea-tive pursuits, had ample reason for de-vious designs upon Fitcher Sullivan. "Danger" had previously darkened his dedicatory record for the present Reason to a hue resembling his own complexion by three rank errors and he grasped the willow in the last inning resolved to make amends. He was issued a pass to first and succeeded in reaching third in a con-ventional manner. It was a supreme mo-ment for him and when a resounding whack conveyed to him the intelligence that Neff had singled he darted home and made it sufely. "Danger" was proud of his achievement, for he had saved his team from the ignominy of a shut-out, which had seemed inevitable. Score: ORIGINALS.

Ottomwa Man and a Californian Cap-ture Bicycle Events. LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 12 – At Fountain Ferry park today a large crowd attended the bicycle races given here by Owen Kim-ble, under the sanction of the National Cycling association. A good card was presented and the two handicaps resulted in spirited contests and time close to world's records. In the amateur one-third mile handicap Frank Denny of Buffalo rode from scratch in forty-one seconds. The California team, McFarland and Stev-ens, by fine team work, succeeded in win-ning both of the professional events. In each race McFarland set the pace for Stevens, carrying him well into the stretch, where the latter went on and won, not, however, without a hard struggle against Owen Kimble, who landed second place in each event. Tom Cooper, the Detroit professional, rode in improved form today, but was not able to beat the team work of McFarland and Stevens. Baild and Kher did not race, but the former is rounding into form incely. He rode an unpaced twelfth this morning in eight and two-ifths seconds. Summary: Two-thirds of a mile, open amateur: F. How Nebraska Lost. SOUTH BEND, Ind., May 13.-(Special Telegram.)-With a badly patched up team, Nebraska was beaten in a somewhat one-sided contest by Notre Dame yesterday. The easterners secured a lead at the start which Nebraska was unable to overcome at any time during the game. But one man in the Nebraska team was playing his regular position. This condition of the team seemed to demoralize the Nebraskans. They were unable to bit the ball and played a very ragged game in the field. Score: R.H.E. tendance, 11.009. Score: ET. LOUIS.
