Omaha Christian Advocate, published at Omaha, and the Rocky Mountain Christian Advocate, published at Denver. Four years ago the conference granted each of these papers an annual subsidy of $3,000, so that the last four years each has drawn $12 .-00. It is now proposed by many to cut off all subsidies. This means that unless local parties continue to publish these paperswhich apparently must be done at a lossthey will be discontinued. There is a strong pull by the western Missouri and the Kansas delegations to remove the Central Christian Advocate, which is a strong paper, and the book depository from St. Louis o Kansas City and consolidate the Omaha and Rocky Mountain Christian Advocates with it. This may be done, but the St. outs and the southern Illinois people have
