Issues a Statement in Which it is Held that the Demands of the Men Are Far Too Radical.

ST. LOUIS: May 16 .- Traffic along the lines of the St. Louis Transit company's system is gradually assuming a semblance to the conditions existing before the strike. None of the 3,325 striking street car employes have returned to work, but cars are being operated with the help of nonunion men, many of whom have been secured from outside St. Louis. For some time past the Transit company has been importing men to take the places of strikers. night two crowds of nearly 100 each arrived from Indiana and Missouri towns. Additional men are expected from other cities. They will be put to work today. Additional cars are being run on the

Today care are running on the Tower Grove, Grand avenu-Delmar avenue, Page avenue, Spaulding avenue, Park avenue, Compton Heights, Bellefontaine, Olive street, Laclede avenue, Carondelet, California avenue and Fourth treet lines. Not enough cars on these tines are being run to accommodate all the travel, and the wagons and other venicles are still getting a fair share of it. The Suburban road, which has entirely esumed traffic on all its lines, is doing an nmense business, the cars being packed during the twenty-four hours. Members of the city detective force, who have been

In part jt says:

'Knowing that public sentiment is the drongest factor in the proper adjustment of all differences in which the community is concerned, and with a sincere desire to with do what is best for the interests of the striking railway employes, we take occasion consuls. There is nothing like it in this in special cars over the Omaha road, the to frankly express our opinion of the demands they have made, which, after a care ful study of them, candor compels us to say are so extreme and radical in their nature that in the long run their own interests would not be conserved by having them accepted. No business organization could be well and successfully managed on the lines laid down, and the interests of employe could never be well protected by employers, who in their operations were ompelled to ignore fundamental business principles.

"Inasmuch as the belief may prevail that there is a sentiment on the part of the business public in favor of the demands referred to, it is only fair to the striking em ployes to promptly dispel any such impression, so that if they are relying to any extent upon the supposed existence of such a sentiment among us to help them succeed. they may know it is a mistake and a correct knowledge of our views may save them loss of money and possibly loss of their positions."

Sixty-two men from Cleveland arrived here today to work for the St. Louis Transit company. While the men were in the lunch room at Union station Patrolmen Dixon and Robertson searched them. In the pockets of three of them were found revolvers. These men., William J. Anderson, William Kelly and Frank Curtie, were arrested. "There were sixty-two men in our party. said Anderson.
