NOTHING FROM LORD ROBERTS FOR A DAY

Conflicting Reports of the Situation Are Heard at Lourenço Marques

PRESIDENT KRUGER IS RUMORED D'AD

Station Master at Kromstadt Says Oom Paul is No More—Another Report that He Will Go to Amsterdam.

LONDON, June 2.—3:45 a. m.—Lord Roberts continues silent regarding Pretoria. Lourenço Marques, where all the news from the Boer side is rehandled, cables that communication with Pretoria is now suspended. Some messages by courier have reached Lourenço Marques, but none of later date than Wednesday. These assert that the burghers are in a state of panic and that Pretoria is being controlled by a vigilance committee. Lourenço Marques again sends the report that President Kruger has been captured. The news blank gives rise to a suspicion that a citizens' committee at Pretoria may have been able to carry out its plans for securing the peaceful entry of Lord Roberts and sparing the city the horrors of a siege. A peace party appeared to be in the ascendant, and as soon as President Kruger and his cabinet left Pretoria to organize a new capital the citizens' committee persuaded the commandants of the forts to withdraw some of the troops from the defenses, perhaps with the view of keeping order in the town. If messengers were sent to the British or the British, being two hours' march from Pretoria on Wednesday, entered it at any time prior to Friday noon, Lord Roberts would certainly have telegraphed this fact. Hence it looks as though there was a Boer force between Pretoria and Johannesburg. These soldiers, packing back toward Pretoria, some of them fresh from the fight with General Hamilton, would have brought a new element into the situation and probably have overruled the peace committee, taking the direction of affairs out of their hands. If this has happened the British may, the Daily Chronicle says, see some "hard fighting" before the British flag flies over Pretoria, for if the Boers held only three forts standing close together on the hills south of the town they would be in a position to stand a siege. The Boers, according to a special dispatch from Lourenço Marques, have re-entered the northeastern territory of the Free State and are engaged with the British near Ventersburg and Harrismith. It is reported from Amsterdam that the best rooms at one of the principal hotels there have been engaged for President Kruger's occupancy from June 25. The Times has the following from Lourenço Marques, dated June 1: "Reports of the most conflicting character are current here, due to the activity of the Boer agents. While one section declares that President Kruger has returned to Pretoria for the purpose of arranging terms of surrender, another asserts that the British have been repulsed outside of Pretoria. Nothing authentic is known here regarding Mr. Kruger's whereabouts or the situation in the Transvaal." Reported Killing by Rebels. The only development reported from the seat of war as this dispatch is sent is the statement from Capetown that a number of colonial rebels recently surprised a small body of British at Douglas, killing sixteen of them, including their commander, Colonel Smith. The rebels were reported to have been repulsed and the statements made must be received with caution. In reply to an inquiry the United States consul at Pretoria, Adelbert S. Hay, has cabled to the United States embassy that Lord Roberts is in the city, but that he is not allowed to remain in Pretoria. Lord Cecil Manners, he adds, was also liberated. They were both acting as newspaper correspondents. A dispatch dated Tuesday, May 29, reports that President Kruger is every ill and adds that the station master at Kromstadt says the president is dead. This, however, was not credited. General Buller is moving slowly against the Boer banks. FIFTEEN BRITISH ARE KILLED General Warren's Force is Attacked by One Thousand Rebels in Cape Colony. CAPE TOWN, May 31.—General Warren, with 700 men, occupied a strong defensive position at Faberston on May 29. At dawn he found that he was surrounded and he was fiercely attacked by 1,000 rebels. The horses were stampeded and the forces concentrated and the Boers were repulsed. A small party in a garden continued to fight tenaciously, but evaded as the charge began, leaving a number of wounded. The British lost fifteen killed, including Colonel Spence, and thirty wounded. MUST NOT TUNISH INDIVIDUALS. Berlin Papers Except to Terms of Roberts' Ultimatum. BERLIN, June 1.—Various German newspapers take exception to the terms of the proclamation which it is said Lord Roberts will issue on the occupation of Pretoria by the British troops, regarding the treatment of noncombatants as opposed to combatant burghers. The Vossische Zeitung says: "Were the Boers, who have honorably fought for their country, to be punished after the conclusion of peace, the civil powers would have cause to protest. Any detention or trial of President Kruger would be contrary to the traditions of international law, a general amnesty being the logical result of peace." "Lord Roberts' proclamation would far exceed the customs of civilized warfare, which has never punished the combatants, no matter how obnoxious to the conqueror. We hope that subsequent negotiations will put it in accord with the principles of international law. Nobody must be punished for having fulfilled the duties of a citizen. England wages war against the republicans, not against their individual inhabitants." The New York Times has also commented upon the papers generally taking it for granted that the war will soon be over.

Defeat the Resolution for a Constitutional Amendment Against Trusts.

AFFIRMATIVE VOTE THIRTY-EIGHT SHORT

Five Democrats with the Republicans, but Two-Thirds Majority Necessary—Two Majority Vote the Other Way.

WASHINGTON, June 1.—The house of representatives today, after a lively debate extending over two days, defeated the joint resolution proposing a constitutional amendment empowering congress to regulate trusts. It requires a two-thirds vote under the constitution to adopt an amendment to the constitution. The vote stood: Ayes, 154; nays, 111. The affirmative vote, therefore, was thirty-eight short of the requisite two-thirds, 192.
