Wheat Touches Highest Point of Its Recent Advance.

CORN ADVANCES EARLY, BUT YIELDS LATER

In Oats There is Quiet but Stendy Market-Provisions Are Weak and Rather Dull. Prices

CHICAGO June 12 - Wheat was a broad and active market today, touching the highest point of the recent advance under the influence of the northwest drouth, but losing most of it later on rain in the afflicted territory. July closed 4c over yes-terday. Corn closed 4644c higher and onts improved tac, Provisions were weak, closing 150275 lower.
Wheat opened easy on pressure from longs, July te lower to unchanged, at 72% to 73%.c. The northwest was still without rain and very unfavorable crop reports from that section of the spring wheat country continued to pour in. July in the first een minutes advanced to 74% and a littie later, after a slight check, pushed on to 74%c. A huge business was transacted. to 74%c. A huge business was transacted, the pit was crowded and speculators excited and nervous. At the high tide of its strength an opposing factor presented itself in the weather bureau prediction of rain in the Dakotas and Minnesota. This influence was reinforced later by advices from the northwest that rain was already falling. Some towns said the rain was heavy and persistent. These considerations gradually forced July back to 73%70'sc. Professional Traders Find Difficulty Professional Traders Find Difficulty in Causing Movement of Prices.

NEW YORK, June 12.—The small contingent of professional room traders, whose operations made up today's stock market, found difficulty in causing any movement of prices. The prevailing duliness was a characteristic of all the securities markets of the world. Speculation waits on the developments in China and the money markets in Berlin and Paris. The firmer tone in London and Paris on early reports of a British success in the Transwaal caused prices to open higher, but they quickly decilned on realizing and on short sales by prices to open higher, but they quickly de-clined on realizing and on short sales by the traders, induced by renewed strength in wheat on continued drouth in the north-west. The outlook for the crops was a dominating influence in the market all day, not only in the movement of prices shown, but in the intense duliness and hesitation in the trading. A slight filip was given in the last hour by the weather bureau's predic-tion of rain in the northwest. The weather bureau's weekly report of crop conditions, bureau's weekly report of crop conditions, while it reflected the unfavorable condition of spring wheat, as was expected, brought realizing in wheat and, contraiwise, short covering in stocks.

The rally in Pacifics and some grangers reached a point or over, but the rise was not well maintained and the close was semi-

NEW YORK, June 12.—Although a lively trade transpired in the July and August options, the cotton market as a whole did not exhibit special animation today. A predominance of bearish influence affected sentiment indifferently and a considerable portion of the business done represented settlement of old accounts rather than settlement of old accounts, rather than the opening of new ones. Disappointment in the Liverpool cables led to a decline of I to 6 points on the opening and soon after there was a further slight fall under bearlish weather advices from pretty much the entire belt. The market falled to show special weakness on the down turn, however, and by the close of the first hour prices were close to the final figure for yesterday, covering a conspicuous feature. During the rest of the forence on there was little change in the situation, speculatively or otherwise. Conservative parties were mystifed by an apparent indecision on the settlement of old accounts, rather than or otherwise. Conservative narties were mystified by an apparent indecision on the part of influential southern interests, which sold on the opening decline, but bought hastily when the market railied. Shortly after midday the market met with a setback in the shape of an encouraging weekly review of crop and weather conditions by the bureau at Washington, the latter leading to a source of general selling under back in the shape of an encouraging weekly review of crop and weather conditions by the bureau at Washington, the latter leading to a spurt of general selling, under which prices eased off several points. The irregularity was brief, however, as prices again rallied on flurries of buying. The market closed quiet and steady, with prices net unchanged to 4 points lower.

CATLE—With about 300 cars of cattle, most of them cornted steers, in sight, there was no occasion for hurry on the part of buyers. Besides that a good many trains did not arrive until rather late, so that the cattle were not all of them ready to show as early as usual. Still buyers were in the saddle soon after 8 o'clock. The trade was rather slow to open, and it looked rather dismal for the sellers for a time, but when buyers really got down to business the market was good considering the large run. It could best be described as unevenly lower, the sales ranging all the way from pretty close to steady to loc lower. Buyers seemed to want the cattle, and the big bulk changed hands in good season. There were some good cattle among the offerings, as will be seen from the sales below.

SHEEP—There were only a few cars here today and the most of them came in late, so that at no time was there enough on today and the most of them came in late, so that at no time was there enough on sale to make much of a showing. It was very evident, however, that there was a good demand for desirable muttons. The offerings were picked up mostly at good, steady prices and the market as a whole was in a favorable condition for the sellers. No great run of sheep is looked for until the first of the mostly and sales: BEEF STEERS. No great run of sheep is looked for until the first of the month and in the meantime the first of the month and in the meantime shippers are pretty certain to strike a good market for anything that is desirable.

Captain Virecter in Court.

CHICAGO. June 12—Captain George Wellington Streeter, whose cohorts recentily took possession of the "District of Lake Michigan," and defled the whole borat police force, was today held to the criminal court, charged with conspiracy, accessory before the fact and assault. The "District of Lake Michigan" is the name given by Streeter to land which has been formed by dumping in the lake off the shore. Captain Streeter took possession of it when it was a mere sandbar. A recent attempt to oust some of the captain's followers who had entrenched themselves on the land resulted in some shooting and other riotous acts. The land is now valued at many millions of dollars and measures about forty acres. Captain Streeter in Court.

Credit Men's Convention.

MILWAUKEE, June 12.—The fifth annual convention of the National Association of Credit Men opened a three-days session today with 250 delegates in attendance. Addresses of welcome were delivered by Governor Edward Scofield and Mayor David S. Rose for the state and city, and by Horace M. Battin for the Milwaukee association. President John Field of Philadelphia delivered his annual address, in which he said the association had shown a remarkable growth in the last year. The greater part of his address was devoted to "personality" in connection with a credit system. The remainder of the forenoon session was taken up with routine reports.

Park on Revolutionary Battlefield. Park on Revolutionary Battlefield.

NEW YORK, June 12—State Comptroller Morgan has purchased twenty-four acres of land at Caldwell, on Lake George. The last legislature made an appropriation to secure the land for a public park to commemorate the battle of Lake George. The land purchased is at what is known as "Blood: Pond" and was the scene of desperate fighting during the revolutionary war. Committees from the Sons of the Revolution and Society of Colonial Wars have selected a site on which to place one of the battle monuments and bronze tablets which are to be dedicated on Thursday, together with others at Fort Ticonderoga. The purchase will allow the ceremony to go on as arranged.

Old Murder Unearthed. CHAMBERLAIN, S. D., June 12 .- (Special.)-Considerable of a sensation was caused yesterday by the uncarthing of the remains of some one who had been buried along the railroad track just east of town. The remains were found by members of the Milwaukee steel gang and were unearthed near the surface of the ground only a couple of feet from the ends of the ties, The skull was fractured and this, taken in connection with the finding of the remains so near the surface of the ground, without any evidence of a coffin having been used, are considered to be absolute proof that the remains are those of a victim of foul play. There is, of course, no means of determining how many years the remains may have been deposited there, but it is certain that it must have been eince the track was laid and presumably some years later, for they were found in a cut fully fifteen feet deep. The bones are those of a white man and he must have been young, for the teeth in the skull are perfect and regular, showing absolutely no signs of decay.

GRANGER, Wyo., June 12.—(Special.)—"Teddy" O'Leary was the name of the tramp who was shot and killed by Phillip Harper, a cook on an outfit car, here last Tuesday evening. O'Leary and a companion stopped Dr. Lawrence, the company surgeon, as he was passing the cutfit car and commanded him to hold up his hands. The doctor complied with the request and called for help at the same time. Harper was awakened and came to the door of the car with a pistol. Seeing O'Leary with a gun pointed at Dr. Lawrence he called to the tramp to hold up his hands. O'Leary refused and told the cook to get back into the car or he would be shot. Harper did not wait any longer, but took a careful aim at O'Leary and fired. The tramp lived only an hour after being shot. His companion fled. There have been a number of holdups here of late and it is thought O'Leary's death will have the desired effect with the lawless element.
