Trust Company Representing the Bondholders Insists that the Price Fixed for Gas is Too Low to Pay Charges.

The controversy between the city council and the Council Bluffs Gas and Electric company over the price that the latter should charge for gas has reached the courts. The New York Security and Trust company, as trustee for the holders of the bonds of the gas company, filed a bill of complaint yes- protests. terday in the United States circuit court here against the City of Council Bluffs, Mayor Jennings and the Council Bluffs Gas and Electric company. An injunction is asked to restrain the city from enforcing the ordinance recently passed by the city council and signed by Mayor Jennings, fixing the rate for gas at $1.35 per 1,000 cubic feet and to restrain the Gas and Electric company from accepting the terms of the ordinance or conforming to its require-
