Omaha horsemen are becoming interested in the matthee of races which will be held Saturday afternoon at the new driving park track under the auspices of the Omaha Driving club. H. B. Alien, who is giving his personal attention to the matter, is confident that the affair will be one of the most enjoyable events ever held in Omaha, thas much as some of the speedlest horses owned in Omaha, South Omaha and Council Bluffs have been entered for the races.

Beside the trotting and pacing races, there will be a special race for the horses owned by city salesmen living in Omaha, these to be driven by their owners. Already several entries have been made and others are expected. There will also be an exhibition mile paced by Birdle A, Homer Allen's promising mare.

More than usual interest centers in the free-for-all pace, owing to the good resords of the horses entered. Among others are Tom Lee, 2:13; Lady Richards, 2:344; Superior Medium, Carter MeGregor and Jersle Kling.

To the winner of each event a fine whip will be awarded as a souventr. Music will be furnished before the program starts and between the events. The racing begins promptly at 2 o'clock. Results at St. Louis.

The secrecy that accompanied the distribution of tickets to a sparring match at 1313 Douglas street has evening appears to have been unnecessary. The mill had been heralded as a twelve-round bout between Paul Murray of Omaha and Billy Mason of Denver, but after a preliminary go of five hustling rounds between two local colored amateurs, in which nasul blood was drawn even with the pillows in use, it was announced that Mason had failed to show up and that Dan Ogden would take his place. Ogden, who is white, possesses some science, but is much lighter than Murray. They got together for three rounds that were not by any means so brutal as to call for police interference and at the finish the gate receipts were awarded to Murray. There were about fifty spectators. PARIS.
