Wheat is Weak Early, but Closes a Cent Higher.

CORN IS INCLINED TO FOLLOW WHEAT

Oats Trail Along After Wheat and Corn at Opening, but Close at the Top-Provisions Open Wenk and Close Firm.

CHICAGO, June 29.-Wheat was weak early, but later on a better demand for early stuff, less pressure from longs and reports of damages to winter wheat, as ell as further complaints from the north west, closing bye over yesterday. July corn closed a shade lower and August corn t shade higher. Dats closed tablec down and provisions unchanged to 171ge im-

Wheat opened easy, August unchanged to Was weak and the Argentine shipments heavy, 2,352,000 bushels. Liverpool recovered most of its early loss and this was reflected here for the moment, August rallying 81%c. Under moderate selling by commission houses a decline to sosse followed. The selling at this time was not heavy. Father suggesting the end of the liquidation which has sent the market down since Monday, but on the other hand there was very little pressure from buyers. Trade was rather quiet during the forenoon, but later it became more active and decidedly more strong. Having digested news of humper crops in Kansas, Oklahoma. Indian Territory and Missouri the bulls respectfully directed attention to the light northwest receipts, fly diamages in northern lilinois, Ohio and Indiana and injuries from excessive rains in Kentucky. Tennesses and southern Illinois and certain portions of Missouri. Attention was also directed to the 18 per cent deterioration shown in the Illinois crop report, which put the winter wheat condition at 50°. They said nothing about the spring wheat condition, which the report makes 52°. At the decline the demand improved. The cash demand was much livelier and Wall street interests appeared in the market as buyers. Another assistance to the bulls was the announcement that a concern controlling seventy elevators along the Great Northern had concluded to leave these warehouses closed because of the spring wheat disaster in the northwest. August recovered all its early loss and following up its advantage climbed to $34°. On the bulge there was the usual profit-taking, but the market closed strong, August 15°c over yesterday at $23°353°c. July opened at $6°c to 70°c, sold between 70% and $1%c. closing 15°c higher at $15°c. New York reported 12 loads taken for export. Clearances at the seaboard in wheat and four were equal to 180,000 bushels, compared with $67,000 bushels last year. Minneapolis and Duluth reported 194 cars, against 425 last week 68° cars, none of which were graded contract.

Corn was rather quiet and inclined, for the lack of other incentive, to follow mission houses a decline to 80%c followed. selling at this time was not heavy.

Contract.

Corn was rather quiet and inclined, for the lack of other incentive, to follow wheat. The market opened lower and declined early with the major market. Receipts were liberal, 839 cars, the crop situation was favorable, country offerings were moderate and Liverpool was easy. There was considerable scattered liquidation and some short selling. The raily in wheat sent shorts to cover and there was a fair cash demand, under which the market recovered. Changing July for August formed a considerable part of the business in the pit. August sold between 42½c and 43½c. July ranged between 42½c and 43½c.

Oats followed wheat and corn off early, recovering later and closing at the top. Crop conditions were not materially changed. There was considerable heavy commission house selling during the forepart of the session, but some of this was rebought later. The northwest was a buyer on the recovery. Receipts were 325 cars. August sold between 24½c and 25c and closed ½G½c lower at 24½c; July between 24½c and 24½c, with the close ½c depressed at 24½c.

Provisions were weak early and firm at 2415c.

Provisions were weak early and firm later, presumably affected to a degree by the actions of wheat. The changes in the the actions of wheat. The changes in the course of the market might also be ascribed to the workings of two packing interests. One of them was a heavy seller early. This stopped later and another packer was reported buying and like a well-behaved market should provisions obeyed the law of supply and demand. September nork sold between $12.60 and $13.024; and closed 174c over vesterday at $12.75. tember pork sold between $12.60 and $13.02½ and closed 17½c over yesterday at $12.97½. September lard between $7.02½ and $6.90. closing unchanged at $7.05. and September ribs between $7.2067.22½ and $7.05 and the close 5c higher at $7.2067.22½. Estimated receipts tomorrow: Wheat 115 cars; corn, 600 cars; oats, 270 cars; hogs, 21.600 head.

MOVEMENTS OF STOCKS AND BONDS. Market Starts Off with Great Show of Market Starts Off with Great Show of Strength, but Weakens.

NEW YORK, June 29—It took about fifteen minutes of trading after the opening of the Stock exchange this morning to demonstrate the disinclination of stocks to continue the advance which aroused the hopes of the buils yesterday. The market started off with a great show of animation and a semblance of strength. Prices of Americans were up in London, but whether this symptom was the result of operations by cable from this side is open to inference. At all events the advance morning to the shorts, who were anxious to cover after yesterday's rise. The demand from this element was so liberally fed that it made slight impression on prices and after it became satisfied the market became notably soft. The movement was afterward irregularly downward on a very small yolume of business. A great many brokers left the street and the market became notably soft. The movement was afterward irregularly downward on a very small yolume of business. A great many brokers left the street and the market fell into a condition of lassitude that it is middly reaction in wheat and sagging again when the price of wheat railled.

Sugar and some of the preferred steel stocks gave evidence of strength. Otherwise the coloning when the price of wheat railled.

market and the closing showed very small net changes and irregular and uncertain fluctuations.

The money market continued surprisingly quiet up to the close, considering that it is practically the last day to complete preparations for the semi-annual disbursements of dividends and interest, which are the largest in the history of the country. Call money was slightly harder at the opening, but the rate was not free from the suspicion of manipulation in the interest of reaction in the stock market. It is expected that the banks will show a small net loss in cash in tomorrow's statement, the estimated receipts from the interior not being sufficient to offset the loss on subtreasury operations, but as last week's unusually large decreases in reserves are supposed to have anticipated the requirements for Monday's payment into the subtreasury of the called government deposits it is possible that this week's official figures of subtreasury operations may over-state the actual demand made upon the banks. There has been no evidence either that the surplus has been no evidence either that the surplus has been no evidence either that the service loans. The sale of withheld sterling bills during the week has been accompanied by liquidation of loans, which were secured by the sterling bills as collateral. Unless the demand for the semi-annual settlements has offset this loan contraction a decrease in the loan item is therefore probable.

Cotton Market. NEW YORK, June 29 -- COTTON-From an uneventful opening the market for cot-ton futures developed a surprising amount of activity and a remarkable degree of inherent strength, with the feature of the day an advance to 10c by the July option. The weekly statement of statistics from Liverweekly statement of statistics from Liverpool was hardly as bullish as expected, while the public and private advices at hand before our opening failed to note any serious change in the situation abroad. The start here was tolerably steady, with prices 3 points higher to a point lower. Before 10:30 a. m. foreign representatives stepped to the front as buyers of the near months, which were offered with extreme reluctance by local holders. The south joined in the buying movement, which grew to a tremendous proportion as the forenoon progressed. Strong late cables, unfavorable crop news and reported further rains in Alabama, Tenessee and Georgia, together with rumors of a pronounced advance in with rumors of a pronounced advance in with rumors of a prorounced advance in spot cotton on urgent export demand added to the firm undertone of the market. Then came a setback under local realizing, which started soon after the final English cables were in hand. During the early afternoon the market seemed in a position to go lower as foreign orders appeared to be pretty thoroughly executed, while the weather predictions were executionally favorable. thoroughly executed, while the weather predictions were exceptionally favorable to the growing crop. But at the opening of the last hour bull speculation quickened and prices assumed an upward course, with the summer months far in the lead. The sole thought in the minds of room traders seemed to be that life for August was assured and on this feeling large blocks of that delivery were purchased on this disthat delivery were purchased on this dis-play of confidence. The market closed very steady, with prices 10939 points up on near months and 193 points up on far months. closed
