SIOUX CITY, July 3 .- (Special Telegram.) -"Bones" Parvin, upon whom Sioux City fans had begun to look as being almost invincible, fell off his pedestal this afternoon and Hines and his men didn't do a thing but pound him all around the lot. It was Parvin's off day. Wenig was put in the box in the fourth inning after ten hits had been made off Parvin in three innings. In six innings the Prohibitionists touched him for but one safe hit and that was a scratch. Glasscock and his men were unable to touch McFarland for more than five safe ones. Not one struck out, but their hits failed to make good. There was a relief today in the lack of kicking. Umpire Klein of the regular staff was on hand and he certainly is a good one, if today's work is a criterion. He demands the respect of the players, and to get it, much to the satisfaction of a long suffering base ball, loving
