time longer the various states continued to record their changes from Towne and other candidates to Stevenson.

At 10:45 a. m. Chairman Richardson advanced to the front of the platform, a great bouquet of sweet peas in his hand...

Confusion Stops Business. Immediately following the prayer the call of states began for the purpose of making nominations for the vice presidency.

Hill Would Have It. "But I cannot, I must not be the nominee of this convention," he declared with explosive emphasis.

Hill Presents Stevenson. It took fifteen minutes to restore some semblance of order and then the spokesman for Illinois, Representative James Williams, presented the name of Stevenson.

Grady Presents Hill. "On behalf of the democracy of New York I present to this convention for the nomination for vice president, the name of David Bennett Hill."

Stevenson from a yellow slip of paper. Although he spoke clearly and distinctly, the crowd in its impatience repeatedly interrupted him by calls of "louder," "time," "vote."

Stevenson from the floor, seconded the nomination of Stevenson. Tennessee, also from the floor, Charles T. Case making the speech, seconded the nomination of that "matchless leader of the New York democracy, David B. Hill."

Stevenson from the floor, seconded the nomination of Stevenson and Vermont folk waded suit, going also for Stevenson, Washington when called yielded back to Idaho the time for a year of applause.

Stevenson from the floor, seconded Stevenson. Michigan had all along strongly approved of Towne but gave him five votes, the remainder going to Stevenson.

Stevenson from the floor, seconded Stevenson. Ohio put in nomination the name of A. W. Patrick of the Buckeye state. His name was presented by M. A. Daugherty, who was one of the few speakers whose seconding speeches could be heard at any distance from the platform.

Stevenson from the floor, seconded Stevenson. W. H. Sowden of Louisiana read his speech according to the nomination of Stevenson.

and surrounded by his friends, who pressed forward to grasp his hands. When Georgia was called Mr. Hutchinson of that state who spoke briefly and clearly delivered a short speech in according to the nomination of Stevenson from Illinois.

Name of Lewis Presented. When Idaho was called she gave way to Washington and W. H. Dunphy placed in nomination the name of James Hamilton Lewis of Washington.

Debate A. H. McCaleb of Louisiana, when that state was called, announced from his seat that the delegation from Louisiana unanimously seconded the nomination of "that gifted leader and statesman, David B. Hill of New York."

Question Towne's Democracy. Concluding his speech as given Mr. Towne's name, but it was tempered by such remarks from among the delegates as: "We want a democrat."

Stevenson from the floor, seconded the nomination of Stevenson. Nebraska passed in the call for nominees, saying they had nobody to present as a candidate.

Stevenson from the floor, seconded the nomination of Stevenson. Nevada had F. G. Newland present their views. He named Towne as their choice and the minute he mentioned the name there were calls for a vote.

Stevenson from the floor, seconded the nomination of Stevenson. When New Hampshire was called Colonel Henry O. Kent made a very short speech in favor of Stevenson.

Stevenson from the floor, seconded the nomination of Stevenson. Patrick H. McCarren arose in his seat when the roll call reached New York and announced that the Empire state would yield its time to Delaware.

Stevenson from the floor, seconded the nomination of Stevenson. North Dakota, from the floor, seconded the nomination of D. B. Hill.

Stevenson from the floor, seconded the nomination of Stevenson. S. M. Gates, a tall, powerful son of North Carolina, presented the name of Colonel Julian Carr from his state.

Stevenson from the floor, seconded the nomination of Stevenson. Ohio Names Patrick. Ohio put in nomination the name of A. W. Patrick of the Buckeye state.

Stevenson from the floor, seconded the nomination of Stevenson. W. H. Sowden of Louisiana read his speech according to the nomination of Stevenson.

Continental Clothing Company Opens Saturday Morning. Sale of Continental Stock

On Saturday morning, July 7th, promptly at 10 o'clock will commence the greatest clothing sale in Omaha's history.

The stock consists of men's and boys' clothing, men's shoes, hats and caps and men's furnishings.

No store in our state has enjoyed a better reputation. The house carried only the very best goods, the product of the leading makers of clothing in America.

Acting under orders from the United States District Court I will take steps to turn the stock into money as rapidly as possible.

The people of Omaha know that I never make extravagant statements. I can consistently say that I believe this to be the greatest opportunity ever offered to the people of Nebraska to buy high grade—new merchandise at bankrupt prices.

I may state also that a large portion of the stock was purchased for this season's trade, and never opened up, because of the delay in the alterations of the store front.

Thomas Kilpatrick, Receiver.
