Bishop McCabe Visited the City When it Was a Frontier Town.

2s Still Far from Well, but Will Put In a Busy Week Among the Churches of the CHY.

Bishop Charles C. McCabe and Mrs. Mc Cabe are in Omaha, the guests of Rev. J Jennings, 1625 Locust street. Bishop McCabe has partially recovered from the attack of rheumatism which made it necessary for him to postpone his Omaha engage ment one week, but is far from well and will leave Omaha next Friday for Battle Creek, Mich., where he will rest and take treatment.

Sunday morning the bishop will preach at the Seward Street Methodist church and in the evening will be the chief speaker at a rally of Omaha Methodists to be held at the First Methodist church. Next Monday evening he will preach at a tent meeting on N street in South Omaha and on Tuesday evening he will be at Southwest Meth odist church. He will spend Wednesday with the church at Craig, Neb., and on Thursday evening will address an Epworth league meeting at Hansoom Park Methodist it clean with fragrant. Cascarets Candy church

"I am no stranger to Omaha. I was in the city before there was a foot of paving. and have visited it frequently since that time and noted its wonderful growth. In 1868, before the Union Pacific was finished through to Ogden, 1 was in Omaha and journeyed west to Laramie, where I saw the workmen laying the track for the new transcontinental line," the hishop remarked when discussing his future residence in Omaha. "Although Omaha is to be my home, the home of a Methodist bishop is a sort of a myth or fiction. There are not more than three months in the year that I am permitted to spend at my home.

The idea King would have forgiven the young couple seems to prevail that my work will be in and they would have lived happily ever the vicinity of Omaha, but such is not the afterward. case. Methodist bishops are assigned to conferences in all parts of the United States. and do not have their efforts centered in one state or diocese, as is the case with the Protestant Episcopal and Catholic bishops. For example, the fall conferences to which I am assigned are two Swedish conferences in the northwest, two English-speaking conferences in New York state and two colored conferences in Tennessee. When my home was in Fort Worth I seldom had work in the southern states and was frequently sent to Washington and other Pacific coast states.

All my time during September and October will be devoted to attending conferences. In November I will attend the general committee meetings of the different organizations of the church and the semiannual meeting of the bishops, which will WAY in Wisconsin are some of the most be held this year at Trenton, N. THOMPSON GETS BAD BARGAIN

Took Stock in Payment for His Services and Now Finds that it is Worthless.

Everitt Thompson attempted to prove in Judge Vinsonhaler's court yesterday that between Omaha and Chicago. The fast train the laborer is worthy of his hire. The Omaha Gas Engine and Motor company, he the new card, leave at 6:00 p. m., arriving said, was indebted to him in the amount of Chicago at 8:30 a.m., in ample time for all for arduous toil, backed by a eastern connections. The local train form $300 machinist's skill. All Thompson has to show erly leaving at 11:00 s. m. has been changed for his services are three shares of stock to a fast daylight train for Chicago, leaving which he believes to be worthless. Thompson testified that he had spent at 10:30 p. m.

several months on the construction of an automobile. He had built the machine in accordance with specifications, he said, and when his task was finished he was approached with an offer of stock in payment of wages. It was represented to him that the company would soon be in the van of a new industrial movement and that the fruits of his labor were likely to be magnified many fold. Thompson thereupon took three shares of stock, giving in exchange his reselpt for services rendered.

When Thompson made diligent but tardy inquiry he alleges that the stock proved to be worthless. He asked the court to force the company to some recognition of his honest and well directed labor. The receipt in full, however, was presented by the atsorneys for the defense and the court was unable to see how Thompson could have any valid claim. The case was dismissed.
