TAR HEELS DISTILL WHISKY

Moonshiners of Carolina Are Deft Hands with Illicit Stills.

SIGNAL CODE FOILS REVENUE OFFICERS

Crack of Mountaineer's Rifle Precedes Government Agent and All Trace of Wrongdoing is Wiped Away.

Miles D. Houck, internal revenue agent, reported for duty yesterday, having recovered from the illness caused by exposure in North Carolina, where he was sent by the government. While in the south Mr. Houck was engaged in a campaign against the manufacturers of "blockade" whisky, and tells some exciting tales of work in that ca-

"Those North Carolina moonshiners," he said, "can make whisky with no other vessel than a bottle, and they can with their eye determine the proof to within a few degrees. Catching moonshiners is like catching files around an open molasses barrel-of 1890.

The estimated cost of said sewer system is about $48,000.

A copy of the plans and specifications will be furnished to any party desiring to bid upon the deposit with the city auditor of a certified check for $25,00, payable to the city treasurer, which check will be returned if such plans and specifications are returned to Thomas L. Redion, city attorney, on or before the 18th day of August, 1900.

The city reserves the right to reject any or all bids.

Communication in relation hereto, except bids, may be addressed to W. J. Allason, city engineer; or Thomas L. Redion, city attorney. "The moonshiner is the most amiable man out on the railroad a telegraphic message precedes him, and all evidence of illicit work is obliterated by the time he arrives. If he goes on horseback and gets into a territory off of the railroad his coming is fore-told by the firing of guns. I have started out and heard my coming heralded for fitteen miles in advance by the crack of the mountaineer's rifle. Then I know that my trip would be fruitless and turned back. Occasionally, in spite of all precaution. moonshiners are captured. When the man is captured conviction is easy, because he is nearly always taken in the act. The revenue officers do not waste time in working up cases against persons suspected. There is always enough to do in suppressing the known. Licenses Are Clonk for Evil. "The hardest class of people we have to deal with in the mountains are the men who operate licensed stills. There are few licensed distillers in the state who do not attempt to evade the revenue laws upon part of their product. Liquor is taken from the cistern room, placed in barrels without stamps and retailed by the manufacturer, who nearly always has a retailer's license.

When this liquor is found it is confiscated

the same as though it had been run through an unlicensed still.

"While convictions nearly always follow arrests, the courts have been lenient with the moonshiners, and it has made them bold. If the limit were given a few one-time of-fenders the traffic in illicit liquer could be greatly reduced, but it will be impossible to suppress it as long as corn grows and the small streams in the hills of the old North state will keep the worms cool."

Millions will be spent in politics this year. We can't keep the campaign going without money any more than we can keep the body vigorous without food. Dyspeptics used to starve themselves. Now Kodol
