

CORNELL HOLDS UP THE PAY

State Auditor Refuses to Issue Warrants to Secretaries of Transportation Board. HAS DOUBTS AS TO LEGALITY OF PAYMENT

Willing to Wait Until the State Court Has Passed on the Validity of the Law Creating the Board. LINCOLN, Aug. 2.—(Special.)—State Auditor Cornell today refused to issue salary warrants to the three secretaries of the State Board of Transportation. The claims were presented as usual on the last day of the month, but the auditor announced today that he would be held up pending further developments in the controversy over the constitutionality of the railroad commission act. He fears that he would be personally responsible to the state for money paid to the secretaries if the railroad act is declared invalid by the state court.

Secretary G. L. Laws returned to Lincoln today and after an interview with the auditor said that he was confident the warrants would be issued in a few days. Auditor Cornell refused to confirm the statement and would not tell what his future course concerning the claims would be. It is probable that he will consult the attorney general as to his responsibility, but he may decide to postpone action until after a decision is rendered by the supreme court. Secretaries Elgerston and Dahman were not in the city today and it is not likely that Secretary Laws will make a serious attempt to obtain his salary until after they return.

Should the auditor insist on holding the claims for the supreme court decision the secretaries probably will begin mandamus proceedings in seeking the local courts to compel the issuance of the warrants. It is generally believed that the auditor refused to approve the claims for political effect.

State Fair Prospects. "If our expectations are half realized, the next Nebraska state fair will exceed in all respects any state fair ever held in Nebraska," said R. W. Furnas of the State Board of Agriculture this morning. "More counties will be represented than ever before and we have good exhibits to believe that all kinds of individual exhibits, including machinery, will be correspondingly large. The fair offers $50,000 in cash premiums this year, with $5,000 for the speed events. The prizes for the county collective exhibits now amount to $2,000 and the board is thinking seriously of raising the sum. One of the features of the fair this year will be an exhibition of sheep shearing by power.

"If our expectations are half realized, the next Nebraska state fair will exceed in all respects any state fair ever held in Nebraska," said R. W. Furnas of the State Board of Agriculture this morning. "More counties will be represented than ever before and we have good exhibits to believe that all kinds of individual exhibits, including machinery, will be correspondingly large. The fair offers $50,000 in cash premiums this year, with $5,000 for the speed events. The prizes for the county collective exhibits now amount to $2,000 and the board is thinking seriously of raising the sum. One of the features of the fair this year will be an exhibition of sheep shearing by power.

"If our expectations are half realized, the next Nebraska state fair will exceed in all respects any state fair ever held in Nebraska," said R. W. Furnas of the State Board of Agriculture this morning. "More counties will be represented than ever before and we have good exhibits to believe that all kinds of individual exhibits, including machinery, will be correspondingly large. The fair offers $50,000 in cash premiums this year, with $5,000 for the speed events. The prizes for the county collective exhibits now amount to $2,000 and the board is thinking seriously of raising the sum. One of the features of the fair this year will be an exhibition of sheep shearing by power.

Judges and Superintendents. The following appointments were made: Mel Whitford, Aftonian, expert judge of bees and honey; William Rutherford, assistant superintendent of class A, horses; Captain Hendricks, Columbus, expert judge of horses; A. P. Job, Tekamah, L. R. Fletcher, Bancroft, judges of farm products; E. Wynant, Shelton, F. L. Bennett, Pawnee county collective exhibits; Lafayette Punks of Illinois and Colonel Fulkerson, expert judges of cattle; N. H. Gentry, Sedalia, Mo., and A. J. Lytle, Okaloosa, Ia., expert judges of swine; Jesse Lewis, Western, assistant superintendent of poultry; W. S. Russell of Iowa, expert judge of poultry.

ARRIVED—ARRIVED Trance Clairvoyant

Remember Number. No Sign. GIVES FULL NAME OF EVERY CANDIDATE; NAMES OF YOUR SWEETHEART OR FUTURE; THE TRUE HERALD OF MIRTH IS DEEDS; THE SECRET OF PROFITABLE INVESTMENT; THE ONLY WAY TO WEALTH; THAT HE ADVISES NOTHING BUT WHAT HE CAN DO; HE WILL NOT ASSESS TO HAVE HIS ABILITY MEASURED BY ANY OTHER STANDARD THAN HIS OWN; FOR THERE ARE THOSE WHO CAN ONLY TALK AND WHOSE MEDIUMS AND CHEAP PRETENDERS FOUND IN EVERY CITY, BRINGING DISREPUTE UPON THE PROFESSION. Professor James is the peer of all mediums.

Increased Prices on Land. PLATTSBOUTH, Neb., Aug. 2.—(Special.)—George A. Hay recorded two deeds today which show that Cass county land is in demand at high figures. One deed was from J. W. Johnson and wife of this city to Albin Adams, conveying eighty acres of land near Myard. The other was from ex-Commissioner L. C. Ellickhoff to Frederick Panska, conveying 150 acres of land. The consideration for the first was $4,800, or $60 per acre; the latter for $5,000.

Hot at West Point. The heat in this section for the last four days has been intense. Farmers are complaining of the scarcity of water, a number of good wells having gone dry. Stackers are over and threshing out of the shock is being done. More grain is being threshed in this way than ever before, many farmers handling their grain this way for the first time.

Case for District Court. BEATRICE, Neb., Aug. 2.—(Special Telegram.)—The preliminary trial of Carl Berk and some other defendants in the case of the Odele Co. was held in the district court here today. The case was taken to the district court by the Odele Co. because of the bankruptcy of the Odele Co. because of the bankruptcy of the Odele Co. because of the bankruptcy of the Odele Co.

MINGLING WITH THE PEOPLE

Candidate Dietrich Creates Unusual Good Impression at Hooper and Madison. HOOPER, Neb., Aug. 2.—(Special.)—Hon. C. H. Dietrich arrived from the west yesterday morning at 8 o'clock and spent the afternoon in making the rounds of the business houses and becoming acquainted with our citizens. He left a very favorable impression with the laborers as well as the business men, on account of the absence of any lofty manners or address or any unwillingness to mingle with the common people.

In the afternoon, in company with Hon. M. T. Zollers and John Edmeier, Mr. Dietrich drove through the German settlement north of Hooper and made many friends among those whom he met while there. He left on the evening train for Madison. MADISON, Neb., Aug. 2.—(Special.)—The Republican club tendered a reception last night at the Grand Army of the Republic hall to Hon. C. H. Dietrich, candidate for governor. The affair was an informal one, everybody being at liberty to attend the meeting of the candidate. His hearty manner created a favorable impression. After music by an orchestra and a campaign song by the Creston quartet Mr. Dietrich briefly addressed the assembly. This morning he drove out into the country to make the acquaintance of farmers.

NARROWLY SAVED FROM DEATH. Intoxicated Farmers Start to Lynch a Brutal Gang, but are Persuaded to Desist. FAIRBURY, Neb., Aug. 2.—(Special Telegram.)—A tramp named Richard Smith, a Royal Highlander, was taken to the jail here yesterday afternoon made an attempt to outrage Mrs. P. C. Griffin at Endicott, six miles south-west of this city. He did not succeed in his attempt. Mrs. Griffin as soon as released from his grasp ran from the house and gave the alarm. The citizens joined in the search and captured Smith, who was turned over to the sheriff, who brought his prisoner to this city and lodged him in jail in default of $2,000 bail. The people are very much wrought up over the affair; in fact, the being was suspended from a tree with a rope around his neck, but cooler counsel prevailed and his life was spared.

Hooper Republican Club. HOOPER, Neb., Aug. 2.—(Special Telegram.)—Last evening a rousing meeting was held for the purpose of organizing a republican club and Senator J. H. Van Dusen of Omaha made the address of the evening and the Hooper Cornet band furnished the music. The hall was crowded with music. The hall was crowded with music. The hall was crowded with music.

Death in Corn Belt. LOUISVILLE, Ky., Aug. 2.—(Special Telegram.)—While Peter Gakemeier was loading shelled corn this morning the chute which conveyed the corn from the bottom of the bin became clogged and a search for the cause proved that his son, about 8 years of age, had fallen into the bin and was drawn down head first. He was killed. Mr. Gakemeier is a well-to-do farmer, living about four miles west of this place.

Nebraska Epworth League. LINCOLN, Aug. 2.—(Special Telegram.)—The state assembly of the Epworth league began its second day with an attendance of over 4,000 persons. Sessions were held morning, afternoon and evening. Rev. M. M. Parkhurst of Chicago spoke in the morning and tonight Frank R. Robinson delivered a lecture on "Bible and the Boers" before an audience of 8,000 persons.

Prostrated by Heat. FREMONT, Neb., Aug. 2.—(Special.)—Henry Reckmeier, one of the oldest and best known carpenters and contractors of this vicinity, was overcome by the heat yesterday. He was taken to his home in this city and a physician summoned, who pronounced the trouble a blood clot on the brain, probably brought on by the heat. His condition is critical.

Lead Ore Decision. NORTH PLATTE, Neb., Aug. 2.—(Special.)—The federal land office at this place has received notice of a new rule which gives any person who has entered upon a homestead and paid on it up to June 6, 1900, the right to make another homestead entry. Persons who abandoned their homestead claims before the above date are given the same privilege.

Violated Town Laws. BRADSHAW, Neb., Aug. 2.—(Special.)—At a called meeting of the village board yesterday night Fred Bowen, proprietor of the billiard hall at this place, was found guilty of selling liquor, keeping open after hours and allowing minors to play and his license was revoked.

Stone Bound Over. NORTH PLATTE, Neb., Aug. 2.—(Special.)—The preliminary hearing of Edward Stone, charged with perjury, was held in the county court here yesterday. Stone was bound over to the district court in the sum of $400.

Out Crop All Right. GENEVA, Neb., Aug. 2.—(Special.)—Oats, which were supposed to be on a small crop, are turning out about thirty bushels to the acre.

MAUSS LOSTS HALF HIS LAND. Bankrupt is Only Entitled to the Lot. Judge Munger has handed down an opinion in the matter of the bankruptcy of Fred Mauss, which has an important bearing upon these classes of cases. In this case Mauss claimed as a homestead exemption certain lands known in the pleadings as lots 19 and 20. The evidence showed that the lots joined, but that the home of the bankrupt was located on lot 20, upon which all of the appurtenances of the home were situated; that a fence separated the two lots and that lot 19 had never been used as part of the Mauss home. The bankruptcy law provides that there shall be exempt to the bankrupt his home, not more than 160 acres of farming land or two lots in an incorporated village or city of a value not to exceed $2,000.

Case for District Court. BEATRICE, Neb., Aug. 2.—(Special Telegram.)—The preliminary trial of Carl Berk and some other defendants in the case of the Odele Co. was held in the district court here today. The case was taken to the district court by the Odele Co. because of the bankruptcy of the Odele Co. because of the bankruptcy of the Odele Co.

POWERS TRIAL LAGS ON

Letter by Governor Taylor to Colonel Introduced by Defense. ENJOINED TO OBEY ORDERS AND SIGNALS. COURT REFUSES TO ALLOW ANY EXPLANATION OF THE MEANING OF CERTAIN CIPHER MESSAGES SENT OUT BY GENERAL COLLIER. GEORGETOWN, Ky., Aug. 2.—The defense in the Powers case offered testimony of six new witnesses in court today and much of the two sessions held was taken up by the wrangling of attorneys for both sides. One of the features was the production by Colonel Mengel of the First Kentucky regiment of state guards of an autograph letter from Governor Taylor, written January 18, two weeks before the shooting of Goebel, in which he instructed him to "all orders and signals" given him by Adjutant General Collier. This officer offered to explain the cipher messages "all right" sent out by Collier immediately after the shooting.

The defense was overruled on two important points during the day. Judge Campbell being shown the catalogue of prices a conversation he claimed to have had with Wharton Golden relating to receiving pay for testimony and refusing to allow any other witness to read to the jury the resolutions adopted by the mountain petitioners in which they asked the present to the legislature. The defense expected to correct these resolutions that the assembling of the petitioners was not for an unlawful purpose.

Rev. John Stammer, the brother-in-law of Wharton Golden, assumed the witness stand today. Colonel Heintz, the prosecution questioned him as to the part he took in getting Republicans from this (Kent) county to go to the state capital on January 25. He answered that he secured quite a number.

On redirect examination by Attorney Sims, the witness said that the conversations he had with Golden regarding the money Golden was to receive for conviction were confidential, but that he made them public when he was put on the stand. Witness next said that he had never been authorized by any one to offer money to Golden to leave the state before the trial. Witness said that he had had to mortally refresh his statement of court yesterday. He was expected to correct the statement made then that his offer of $5,000 to Golden was made after talking with Defendant Powers. He said he had the conversation with Golden before talking to Powers.

Setback for Defense. The next witness was John O. Barrett of Louisville, who had passed through the crowd that assembled in the state house grounds a few minutes after the shooting of Goebel. The defense asked him to tell his employer, the Louisville Courier-Journal, the contents of the executive building. The prosecution objected and Judge Cantrill ruled the question out.

The defense called R. H. McClure of Lexington, a newspaper man. Attorney O'Connell asked him if he had seen any one not talking to him and would not get a cent, but that he (Golden) had fixed it before he told his story to the prosecution. He said he had seen William Williams for the prosecution objected.

At the conclusion of the argument Judge Cantrill said to the defense: "You cannot implicate a witness for the other side by inference. I sustain the objection." Colonel C. C. Mengel, commander of the First regiment, Kentucky state troops, followed. He produced two telegrams received at Louisville on the day of the shooting at 2 p. m., containing only the words "all right" and signed, D. R. Collier, adjutant general. He was asked by Collier explaining that the words "All right" meant for the witness to come to Frankfort and bring a regiment and Gatling guns.

On cross-examination the prosecution read this letter to show that Collier had sent the telegrams before and after noon. The witness produced orders, signed by Governor Taylor, for the movement of the regiment to Frankfort. He said he could not explain why the order was issued on Saturday night, but that he was executed until the 20th inst. In the order Taylor directed him to "obey all orders and signals" given by Collier.

Stephen P. Sharpe, who was chairman of the mountain meeting held on the steps of the capitol January 25, was called to the stand and resolutions of that meeting. Before the jury was brought in for the afternoon session Attorney Brown for the defense presented the copy of the resolutions adopted at the meeting of mountain men on January 25, which were read to the jury. Passionate speeches for and against the admission of the paper as evidence were made by Attorneys Brown and Williams. When they had ceased the judge said:

"The paper offered as evidence is clearly incompetent. You might as well read to the jury 'Pope's Essay on Man.'" Democrats Had 2,000 Rifles. The jury was then brought in and Sharpe again placed on the stand. Witness said before Governor Taylor and General Collier he had a letter from the adjutant general by a democratic friend to stay away from Frankfort, as the persons pushing the gubernatorial contest had 2,000 rifles there and were ready to use them. Witness was in Governor Taylor's office in five minutes after the shooting. Taylor asked him to take charge and prepare to defend the building. He did so, giving orders not to permit the arrest of anyone in the capitol grounds. He had charge of one squad of armed men, but Harry Howard had charge of another squad.

In response to a question on cross-examination, Sharpe said he had in substance said to some persons on the Saturday before the shooting that he was ready to take his gun and either lead or follow to prevent the ousting of the republican officeholders. "I am ready to do it now," he said. The witness refused to make public the name of the man whom he quoted as saying, "I am ready to do it now," but he said the contestants had 2,000 guns at Frankfort on Saturday night. He was asked by the prosecution asked the court to compel the witness to give the name of this man, but Judge Cantrill ruled that the demand was made too late, that it should have been made on cross-examination.

The second witness of the afternoon was Colonel David Gray of Louisville, who served as lieutenant colonel of the First regiment, State Guard, in January last. He corroborated statements of his superior officer, Colonel Mengel. The judge would not let him state who he was, but the adjutant general were of the same political faith. Frank C. Carpenter of Louisville was the last witness of the day. He was in Frankfort on January 30 and was called by the defense to show the state of feeling on the streets of the city immediately after the shooting of Goebel. He repeated threats that he heard made against the occupants of the executive building. While he was being cross-examined the court adjourned.

Local Record. OFFICE OF THE WEATHER BUREAU, OMAHA, Aug. 2.—Official record of temperature and precipitation, compared with the corresponding day of the last three years. 1900 1899 1898 1897. Maximum temperature..... 92 86 88 92. Minimum temperature..... 62 58 60 62. Average temperature..... 82 51 61 81. Precipitation..... .06 .09 .58 .09. Record of precipitation at Omaha for this date and since March 1, 1899: Normal temperature for the day..... 74. Excess since March 1, 1899..... .74. Total rainfall since March 1..... 17.68 inches. Total rainfall since March 1, 1899..... 17.68 inches. Deficiency cor. period, 1899..... 5.31 inches. Deficiency cor. period, 1898..... 1.49 inches.

Reports from Stations at 8 P. M. STATIONS AND STATE OF WEATHER. Omaha, clear..... 86 76 70. North Platte, clear..... 82 70 64. Cheyenne, part cloudy..... 82 70 64. Rapid City, part cloudy..... 80 66 60. Huron, clear..... 81 62 56. Williston, clear..... 81 62 56. Chicago, cloudy..... 79 70 71. St. Paul, clear..... 78 68 60. Denver, clear..... 78 68 60. Bismarck, clear..... 78 68 60. Helena, clear..... 78 68 60. Salt Lake, clear..... 78 68 60. Galveston, part cloudy..... 81 86 80. T indicates trace of precipitation. Local Forecast Official.

POWERS TRIAL LAGS ON

Letter by Governor Taylor to Colonel Introduced by Defense. ENJOINED TO OBEY ORDERS AND SIGNALS. COURT REFUSES TO ALLOW ANY EXPLANATION OF THE MEANING OF CERTAIN CIPHER MESSAGES SENT OUT BY GENERAL COLLIER. GEORGETOWN, Ky., Aug. 2.—The defense in the Powers case offered testimony of six new witnesses in court today and much of the two sessions held was taken up by the wrangling of attorneys for both sides. One of the features was the production by Colonel Mengel of the First Kentucky regiment of state guards of an autograph letter from Governor Taylor, written January 18, two weeks before the shooting of Goebel, in which he instructed him to "all orders and signals" given him by Adjutant General Collier. This officer offered to explain the cipher messages "all right" sent out by Collier immediately after the shooting.

The defense was overruled on two important points during the day. Judge Campbell being shown the catalogue of prices a conversation he claimed to have had with Wharton Golden relating to receiving pay for testimony and refusing to allow any other witness to read to the jury the resolutions adopted by the mountain petitioners in which they asked the present to the legislature. The defense expected to correct these resolutions that the assembling of the petitioners was not for an unlawful purpose.

Rev. John Stammer, the brother-in-law of Wharton Golden, assumed the witness stand today. Colonel Heintz, the prosecution questioned him as to the part he took in getting Republicans from this (Kent) county to go to the state capital on January 25. He answered that he secured quite a number.

On redirect examination by Attorney Sims, the witness said that the conversations he had with Golden regarding the money Golden was to receive for conviction were confidential, but that he made them public when he was put on the stand. Witness next said that he had never been authorized by any one to offer money to Golden to leave the state before the trial. Witness said that he had had to mortally refresh his statement of court yesterday. He was expected to correct the statement made then that his offer of $5,000 to Golden was made after talking with Defendant Powers. He said he had the conversation with Golden before talking to Powers.

Setback for Defense. The next witness was John O. Barrett of Louisville, who had passed through the crowd that assembled in the state house grounds a few minutes after the shooting of Goebel. The defense asked him to tell his employer, the Louisville Courier-Journal, the contents of the executive building. The prosecution objected and Judge Cantrill ruled the question out.

The defense called R. H. McClure of Lexington, a newspaper man. Attorney O'Connell asked him if he had seen any one not talking to him and would not get a cent, but that he (Golden) had fixed it before he told his story to the prosecution. He said he had seen William Williams for the prosecution objected.

At the conclusion of the argument Judge Cantrill said to the defense: "You cannot implicate a witness for the other side by inference. I sustain the objection." Colonel C. C. Mengel, commander of the First regiment, Kentucky state troops, followed. He produced two telegrams received at Louisville on the day of the shooting at 2 p. m., containing only the words "all right" and signed, D. R. Collier, adjutant general. He was asked by Collier explaining that the words "All right" meant for the witness to come to Frankfort and bring a regiment and Gatling guns.

On cross-examination the prosecution read this letter to show that Collier had sent the telegrams before and after noon. The witness produced orders, signed by Governor Taylor, for the movement of the regiment to Frankfort. He said he could not explain why the order was issued on Saturday night, but that he was executed until the 20th inst. In the order Taylor directed him to "obey all orders and signals" given by Collier.

Stephen P. Sharpe, who was chairman of the mountain meeting held on the steps of the capitol January 25, was called to the stand and resolutions of that meeting. Before the jury was brought in for the afternoon session Attorney Brown for the defense presented the copy of the resolutions adopted at the meeting of mountain men on January 25, which were read to the jury. Passionate speeches for and against the admission of the paper as evidence were made by Attorneys Brown and Williams. When they had ceased the judge said:

"The paper offered as evidence is clearly incompetent. You might as well read to the jury 'Pope's Essay on Man.'" Democrats Had 2,000 Rifles. The jury was then brought in and Sharpe again placed on the stand. Witness said before Governor Taylor and General Collier he had a letter from the adjutant general by a democratic friend to stay away from Frankfort, as the persons pushing the gubernatorial contest had 2,000 rifles there and were ready to use them. Witness was in Governor Taylor's office in five minutes after the shooting. Taylor asked him to take charge and prepare to defend the building. He did so, giving orders not to permit the arrest of anyone in the capitol grounds. He had charge of one squad of armed men, but Harry Howard had charge of another squad.

In response to a question on cross-examination, Sharpe said he had in substance said to some persons on the Saturday before the shooting that he was ready to take his gun and either lead or follow to prevent the ousting of the republican officeholders. "I am ready to do it now," he said. The witness refused to make public the name of the man whom he quoted as saying, "I am ready to do it now," but he said the contestants had 2,000 guns at Frankfort on Saturday night. He was asked by the prosecution asked the court to compel the witness to give the name of this man, but Judge Cantrill ruled that the demand was made too late, that it should have been made on cross-examination.

The second witness of the afternoon was Colonel David Gray of Louisville, who served as lieutenant colonel of the First regiment, State Guard, in January last. He corroborated statements of his superior officer, Colonel Mengel. The judge would not let him state who he was, but the adjutant general were of the same political faith. Frank C. Carpenter of Louisville was the last witness of the day. He was in Frankfort on January 30 and was called by the defense to show the state of feeling on the streets of the city immediately after the shooting of Goebel. He repeated threats that he heard made against the occupants of the executive building. While he was being cross-examined the court adjourned.

Local Record. OFFICE OF THE WEATHER BUREAU, OMAHA, Aug. 2.—Official record of temperature and precipitation, compared with the corresponding day of the last three years. 1900 1899 1898 1897. Maximum temperature..... 92 86 88 92. Minimum temperature..... 62 58 60 62. Average temperature..... 82 51 61 81. Precipitation..... .06 .09 .58 .09. Record of precipitation at Omaha for this date and since March 1, 1899: Normal temperature for the day..... 74. Excess since March 1, 1899..... .74. Total rainfall since March 1..... 17.68 inches. Total rainfall since March 1, 1899..... 17.68 inches. Deficiency cor. period, 1899..... 5.31 inches. Deficiency cor. period, 1898..... 1.49 inches.

Reports from Stations at 8 P. M. STATIONS AND STATE OF WEATHER. Omaha, clear..... 86 76 70. North Platte, clear..... 82 70 64. Cheyenne, part cloudy..... 82 70 64. Rapid City, part cloudy..... 80 66 60. Huron, clear..... 81 62 56. Williston, clear..... 81 62 56. Chicago, cloudy..... 79 70 71. St. Paul, clear..... 78 68 60. Denver, clear..... 78 68 60. Bismarck, clear..... 78 68 60. Helena, clear..... 78 68 60. Salt Lake, clear..... 78 68 60. Galveston, part cloudy..... 81 86 80. T indicates trace of precipitation. Local Forecast Official.

POWERS TRIAL LAGS ON

Letter by Governor Taylor to Colonel Introduced by Defense. ENJOINED TO OBEY ORDERS AND SIGNALS. COURT REFUSES TO ALLOW ANY EXPLANATION OF THE MEANING OF CERTAIN CIPHER MESSAGES SENT OUT BY GENERAL COLLIER. GEORGETOWN, Ky., Aug. 2.—The defense in the Powers case offered testimony of six new witnesses in court today and much of the two sessions held was taken up by the wrangling of attorneys for both sides. One of the features was the production by Colonel Mengel of the First Kentucky regiment of state guards of an autograph letter from Governor Taylor, written January 18, two weeks before the shooting of Goebel, in which he instructed him to "all orders and signals" given him by Adjutant General Collier. This officer offered to explain the cipher messages "all right" sent out by Collier immediately after the shooting.

The defense was overruled on two important points during the day. Judge Campbell being shown the catalogue of prices a conversation he claimed to have had with Wharton Golden relating to receiving pay for testimony and refusing to allow any other witness to read to the jury the resolutions adopted by the mountain petitioners in which they asked the present to the legislature. The defense expected to correct these resolutions that the assembling of the petitioners was not for an unlawful purpose.

Rev. John Stammer, the brother-in-law of Wharton Golden, assumed the witness stand today. Colonel Heintz, the prosecution questioned him as to the part he took in getting Republicans from this (Kent) county to go to the state capital on January 25. He answered that he secured quite a number.

On redirect examination by Attorney Sims, the witness said that the conversations he had with Golden regarding the money Golden was to receive for conviction were confidential, but that he made them public when he was put on the stand. Witness next said that he had never been authorized by any one to offer money to Golden to leave the state before the trial. Witness said that he had had to mortally refresh his statement of court yesterday. He was expected to correct the statement made then that his offer of $5,000 to Golden was made after talking with Defendant Powers. He said he had the conversation with Golden before talking to Powers.

Setback for Defense. The next witness was John O. Barrett of Louisville, who had passed through the crowd that assembled in the state house grounds a few minutes after the shooting of Goebel. The defense asked him to tell his employer, the Louisville Courier-Journal, the contents of the executive building. The prosecution objected and Judge Cantrill ruled the question out.

The defense called R. H. McClure of Lexington, a newspaper man. Attorney O'Connell asked him if he had seen any one not talking to him and would not get a cent, but that he (Golden) had fixed it before he told his story to the prosecution. He said he had seen William Williams for the prosecution objected.

At the conclusion of the argument Judge Cantrill said to the defense: "You cannot implicate a witness for the other side by inference. I sustain the objection." Colonel C. C. Mengel, commander of the First regiment, Kentucky state troops, followed. He produced two telegrams received at Louisville on the day of the shooting at 2 p. m., containing only the words "all right" and signed, D. R. Collier, adjutant general. He was asked by Collier explaining that the words "All right" meant for the witness to come to Frankfort and bring a regiment and Gatling guns.

On cross-examination the prosecution read this letter to show that Collier had sent the telegrams before and after noon. The witness produced orders, signed by Governor Taylor, for the movement of the regiment to Frankfort. He said he could not explain why the order was issued on Saturday night, but that he was executed until the 20th inst. In the order Taylor directed him to "obey all orders and signals" given by Collier.

Stephen P. Sharpe, who was chairman of the mountain meeting held on the steps of the capitol January 25, was called to the stand and resolutions of that meeting. Before the jury was brought in for the afternoon session Attorney Brown for the defense presented the copy of the resolutions adopted at the meeting of mountain men on January 25, which were read to the jury. Passionate speeches for and against the admission of the paper as evidence were made by Attorneys Brown and Williams. When they had ceased the judge said:

"The paper offered as evidence is clearly incompetent. You might as well read to the jury 'Pope's Essay on Man.'" Democrats Had 2,000 Rifles. The jury was then brought in and Sharpe again placed on the stand. Witness said before Governor Taylor and General Collier he had a letter from the adjutant general by a democratic friend to stay away from Frankfort, as the persons pushing the gubernatorial contest had 2,000 rifles there and were ready to use them. Witness was in Governor Taylor's office in five minutes after the shooting. Taylor asked him to take charge and prepare to defend the building. He did so, giving orders not to permit the arrest of anyone in the capitol grounds. He had charge of one squad of armed men, but Harry Howard had charge of another squad.

In response to a question on cross-examination, Sharpe said he had in substance said to some persons on the Saturday before the shooting that he was ready to take his gun and either lead or follow to prevent the ousting of the republican officeholders. "I am ready to do it now," he said. The witness refused to make public the name of the man whom he quoted as saying, "I am ready to do it now," but he said the contestants had 2,000 guns at Frankfort on Saturday night. He was asked by the prosecution asked the court to compel the witness to give the name of this man, but Judge Cantrill ruled that the demand was made too late, that it should have been made on cross-examination.

The second witness of the afternoon was Colonel David Gray of Louisville, who served as lieutenant colonel of the First regiment, State Guard, in January last. He corroborated statements of his superior officer, Colonel Mengel. The judge would not let him state who he was, but the adjutant general were of the same political faith. Frank C. Carpenter of Louisville was the last witness of the day. He was in Frankfort on January 30 and was called by the defense to show the state of feeling on the streets of the city immediately after the shooting of Goebel. He repeated threats that he heard made against the occupants of the executive building. While he was being cross-examined the court adjourned.

Local Record. OFFICE OF THE WEATHER BUREAU, OMAHA, Aug. 2.—Official record of temperature and precipitation, compared with the corresponding day of the last three years. 1900 1899 1898 1897. Maximum temperature..... 92 86 88 92. Minimum temperature..... 62 58 60 62. Average temperature..... 82 51 61 81. Precipitation..... .06 .09 .58 .09. Record of precipitation at Omaha for this date and since March 1, 1899: Normal temperature for the day..... 74. Excess since March 1, 1899..... .74. Total rainfall since March 1..... 17.68 inches. Total rainfall since March 1, 1899..... 17.68 inches. Deficiency cor. period, 1899..... 5.31 inches. Deficiency cor. period, 1898..... 1.49 inches.

Reports from Stations at 8 P. M. STATIONS AND STATE OF WEATHER. Omaha, clear..... 86 76 70. North Platte, clear..... 82 70 64. Cheyenne, part cloudy..... 82 70 64. Rapid City, part cloudy..... 80 66 60. Huron, clear..... 81 62 56. Williston, clear..... 81 62 56. Chicago, cloudy..... 79 70 71. St. Paul, clear..... 78 68 60. Denver, clear..... 78 68 60. Bismarck, clear..... 78 68 60. Helena, clear..... 78 68 60. Salt Lake, clear..... 78 68 60. Galveston, part cloudy..... 81 86 80. T indicates trace of precipitation. Local Forecast Official.

A Scene in a Sick-room

The Crises in a Woman's Life. The average woman knows little or nothing concerning her own physical organism, and as a rule is little informed as to the care of the organs peculiarly female. She is apt to accept certain irregularities and diseased conditions as almost a womanly obligation of marriage and goes blindly on to maternity, a condition for which she must amply prepare for the worst.

Then the crisis comes. Many a woman dates a life of chronic invalidism from the day of the baby's birth. She tries many doctors, many medicines, all in vain. She is doomed by medical opinion to a life of suffering, or to speedy dissolution.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. In absolute defiance of the average medical theorist, who pronounces a disease to be incurable, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has, in times almost innumerable, restored weak women to strength and sickness to health.

This great medicine for women never fails to help and almost always cures those who give it a fair and faithful trial. SIX DOCTORS GAVE THEIR OPINION. An example of the far reaching power of "Favorite Prescription," to heal the most extreme cases, is offered in the letter of Mrs. Eva Burnett given below.

Do not delay if you are sick, but write without fear as without fee to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y. All correspondence is held in sacred confidence and womanly confidences are guarded by strict professional privacy.

"Favorite Prescription" contains no alcohol and is absolutely free from opium, cocaine and all other narcotics. It is a purely vegetable preparation and cannot disagree with the most delicate constitution.

Do not delay if you are sick, but write without fear as without fee to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y. All correspondence is held in sacred confidence and womanly confidences are guarded by strict professional privacy.

Do not delay if you are sick, but write without fear as without fee to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y. All correspondence is held in sacred confidence and womanly confidences are guarded by strict professional privacy.

Do not delay if you are sick, but write without fear as without fee to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y. All correspondence is held in sacred confidence and womanly confidences are guarded by strict professional privacy.

Do not delay if you are sick, but write without fear as without fee to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y. All correspondence is held in sacred confidence and womanly confidences are guarded by strict professional privacy.

Do not delay if you are sick, but write without fear as without fee to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y. All correspondence is held in sacred confidence and womanly confidences are guarded by strict professional privacy.

Do not delay if you are sick, but write without fear as without fee to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y. All correspondence is held in sacred confidence and womanly confidences are guarded by strict professional privacy.

Do not delay if you are sick, but write without fear as without fee to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y. All correspondence is held in sacred confidence and womanly confidences are guarded by strict professional privacy.

Do not delay if you are sick, but write without fear as without fee to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y. All correspondence is held in sacred confidence and womanly confidences are guarded by strict professional privacy.

POWERS TRIAL LAGS ON

Letter by Governor Taylor to Colonel Introduced by Defense. ENJOINED TO OBEY ORDERS AND SIGNALS. COURT REFUSES TO ALLOW ANY EXPLANATION OF THE MEANING OF CERTAIN CIPHER MESSAGES SENT OUT BY GENERAL COLLIER. GEORGETOWN, Ky., Aug. 2.—The defense in the Powers case offered testimony of six new witnesses in court today and much of the two sessions held was taken up by the wrangling of attorneys for both sides. One of the features was the production by Colonel Mengel of the First Kentucky regiment of state guards of an autograph letter from Governor Taylor,