SALOON WAR SIZZLING HOT. Dobbins Declares an Armistice, but "Doc" Long Gets Busier Than Ever. TERMS ON WHICH DOBBINS WILL QUIT. If Prosecution Against Him is Dropped He is Willing to Let Up in His Fight Against the Other Liquor Dealers. No new move was made yesterday by Charles Dobbins against any of his fellow saloon keepers and he is quoted as saying that he will make none until the case involving the disposition of the stock of liquor seized under a warrant from Justice Vien's court is tried this morning. Should the court rule against Dobbins and order the $300 worth of liquor destroyed, then the war will be on in earnest, Dobbins says, and he will try to close every saloon in the city. If given back his liquor and allowed to reopen and continue in business without further molestation, he is willing to cry quits. Justice Vien and J. W. Scott have so far refused to give any information as to who is responsible for the raid on Dobbins' saloon. While Dobbins is lying low "Doc" G. W. Long and his attorney, G. H. Gable, are conspicuously active. They served notice on John Mergen, who conducts a saloon on South Main street, on Wednesday and D. J. Kroll, the proprietor of a saloon near the Northwestern depot, and on the South Omaha Brewing company, which operates a saloon on Broadway opposite the postoffice, that they intended applying to the district court for injunctions restraining them from selling intoxicating liquor. These notices were served yesterday afternoon. Lindler & Filter, the proprietors of the saloon at Tenth street and Broadway, who were served with a similar notice Thursday afternoon by "Doc" Long, were given an opportunity to "settle" yesterday afternoon. George H. Gable, Long's attorney, informed Lindler's attorney that no petition would be filed on payment of the costs incurred up to date, amounting to $51.50, and signing an agreement to the effect not to sell on Sunday, which the statute specifically provides that in all saloon injunction cases the attorney for the plaintiff is only entitled to a fee of $25. Under the old law, which was in effect during J. J. Shea's operations against the saloons, the fee was fixed at $100. Justice Vien was not feeling very amiable yesterday over the notoriety he had received in connection with the saloon war, and said that if impeachment proceedings were commenced against him he would don his fighting clothes and as soon as he did the mayor would have to specifically provide that in all saloon injunction cases the attorney for the plaintiff is only entitled to a fee of $25. Under the old law, which was in effect during J. J. Shea's operations against the saloons, the fee was fixed at $100. A Night in Woodcraft. Special notice to the public at large: Parties now holding tickets for performance at Dohany, August 7, must exchange them for reserve seats at box office, which is now open. MRS. BAKER BREAKS HER NECK. Wife of a Barber Falls Down Stairs and is Killed. Mrs. Lou Baker, wife of James Baker, a barber living at 103 West Broadway, was instantly killed yesterday morning by falling from the top of the stairs at her home in the city. The only witnesses to the accident were the two little children of the woman. The oldest is but 5 years of age. The cries of the children attracted the attention of the neighbors, who hastened to the house. Mrs. Baker was found lying at the foot of the stairs. Her neck was broken, lying beside the woman was her youngest child, a baby, which she had in her arms at the time she fell. The little one was unharmed except for a few slight bruises. Remains of the oldest child at first caused the neighbors to believe that Mrs. Baker had thrown herself down the stairs with the intent of ending her life. The child said that her mother, after writing some letters which she had placed in her trunk, had drawn a curtain and then taken the baby in her arms and thrown herself down the stairs. Coroner Treyner was summoned, but examination failed to disclose any traces of lye in the dead woman's mouth or throat. The little girl on being questioned then said her mother had taken two small pills. A box containing pills could be found, but on a shelf there was a can of lye, which did not appear to have been recently disturbed. A search for the letters was made, but none were found. Coroner Treyner decided that an inquest was unnecessary, as it was evident that death was the result of an accident. Mrs. Milton Daugherty of 529 East Broadway, mother of Mrs. Baker, scouted the idea of her daughter taking her own life, although she admitted her life had not been the happiest for some time. Neighbors say Mrs. Baker frequently spoke of the unhappy life she led, laying the blame on her husband, who, she said, drank to excess. When the husband was called to the house and notified of the death of his wife, he said: "Well, I can't see that I can help it," turned on his heel and made for the nearest saloon, where he proceeded to drown his troubles in the flowing bowl and was soon oblivious to his surroundings. CLIFFORD CANNOT HAVE THE JOB. Only One Thing Settled in Connection with the Hayden Succession. The task of selecting a successor to Prof. H. B. Hayden as superintendent of the city schools proved too much for the board of education last night, even after a secret caucus lasting over an hour had been held and failing to reach an agreement it will try to close every saloon in the city. It was finally decided to lay the matter over until next Tuesday night, when the board will take another whirl at it. The caucus was held behind locked doors in the office of the superintendent, and proved quite a stormy session. At one time the discussion became so animated between Members Stewart and Sargent that the latter left the room and refused to take any further part in the caucus. The discussion at the outset of the secret meeting developed the fact that the majority of the members present were opposed to putting in Principal Clifford as superintendent, and were in favor of increasing his salary and retaining him in charge of the High School. This course was favored by Members Hess, chairman of the teachers' committee, Swaine, Swaine and Cooper, while President Henry and Member Sargent insisted that it was only fair to Prof. Clifford that he be promoted to superintendent. Sargent appeared to be under the impression that a compact to this effect had been reached during the morning by the board, and during the meeting he was greatly surprised that any of the members should go back on this agreement. He questioned Stewart as to his reasons for changing his mind since the morning and this led to a passage at arms between the two. Stewart claimed a perfect right to change his mind if he saw fit and accused Sargent of changing his mind often enough over the site question. Sargent said he had good reasons for changing his mind on the site question and explained them, but questioned Stewart's right to switch on the superintendent. Some of the other members tried to pour oil on the troubled waters, but did not succeed, and Sargent finally left the room after refusing to take any further part in the caucus. Members Hess, Swaine, Stewart and Cooper declared themselves in favor of electing Prof. A. B. Warner of Missouri Valley superintendent and retaining Prof. Clifford as principal. Member Macrae being absent they could have elected Prof. Warner, their four votes being a majority. The incident was a surprise to many, as the appointment as strong as possible, and if they could have secured one more vote the election of Prof. Warner would have taken place right there. President Henry declared in positive terms that he would not vote for any one but Clifford, and said that he had reasons to believe that if he was not appointed he would in all probability resign as principal, and they would lose both superintendent and principal. President Henry also informed the board that Prof. Clifford had said he could not and would not work under Prof. Warner. This brought Stewart to his feet with the remark that Prof. Clifford need not be so thin skinned, as they had to select a principal for the school. He said that he had applicants for the position of principal and he probably a number of school men just as good as he was. By this time the temperature of the room was getting warm and Member Hess, anxious to bring the discussion to a close, said hard words reported yesterday that they postpone action in the matter until they had examined the applications received. "Why, that would take three months at least," said President Henry, and the suggestion went glimmering. Then Member Cooper spoke on behalf of Prof. Warner and said that no school man in the state of Iowa stood as high as he did. Stewart said he agreed with Cooper, and that if the board heard of his resignation, he would be disappointed, as they were of their superintendent, and that they were of their principal. President Henry then attempted to throw cold water on Prof. Warner's chances by stating that Warner had told him he would not be considered an applicant for the position if Clifford was elected. After some further desultory discussion, and it being apparent that an unanimous agreement could not be reached, the "executive" session was brought to a close by the members adjourning to the board room, where they found Sargent awaiting them. The proceedings opened with Member Hess reading Prof. Hayden's formal resignation, which was received without comment. Members Stewart and Swaine then reported to the hallway, where they held a brief consultation. On returning to the room Member Stewart suggested that it was not necessary to take up "the matter" now, and moved that action be postponed until Tuesday night. Swaine seconded the motion and it carried. Chairman Hess of the teachers' committee reported the application of Miss Anna E. Williams for leave of absence for one year to attend the state Normal school at Cedar Rapids, and on his recommendation the request was granted. Miss Crystal Dingle and Miss Jessie Pontius were, on recommendation of the teachers' committee, appointed teachers to fill vacancies. The board then adjourned until next Tuesday night.

Another Horse Traders' Row. A riot call was sent into the police station about 10 o'clock last night from Twenty-first street and Broadway, where a bloody fight was said to be in progress in Corpus Johansen's saloon. When the police arrived on the scene the saloon resembled a shambles, blood being everywhere. John Shadden and Bill Shadden, his son, were found stretched out on the floor bleeding from numerous wounds about the head, and having been inflicted by Frank Mason, who was armed with a tent pole. The three men were taken to the city jail, where the Shaddens had their injuries attended to by City Physician Jennings. They were locked up and charged with disturbing the peace, while Mason was booked on the charge of assault with intent to kill. None of the parties would give any explanation of how the row occurred. A number of others believed to have been mixed up in the fight escaped outside the saloon, when the police searched their appearance. Mason, when searched, was found to have upward of $200 on his person. The men are horse traders and the Shaddens formerly lived in Crescent City. Fall Out Over a Tent. Rev. PORT DODGE, Ia., Aug. 3.—(Special Telegram)—A well-formed plan to burn all the barns in Port Dodge seems to be in progress by incendiaries. The work of incendiaries is being well done and the town is greatly excited. Eight barns have been fired within the last twenty-four hours. All of them have been the property of prominent people, that of Congressman J. P. Doherty being the first to be fired. The other fires that have been occurring in rapid succession during the day are those of Hon. S. T. Measey, George Fossell, W. L. Sperry, E. E. Prusia, J. M. Schupp, Al Flint and George Hopper. All of these barns are located in the center and most populous part of the city. The theory is that the work is being done by tramps who are taking this method of getting revenge for municipal discipline. The citizens are greatly excited and it is feared that more barns will be destroyed. Large numbers of police in citizens' clothes have been seen in and will patrol the town this evening and tomorrow. Considerable property has been destroyed. Outing for City Children. TABOR, Ia., Aug. 3.—(Special)—The Young Women's Christian association of our college is engaged in some good enterprise. MABEL SCOFIELD CASE AGAIN. Interested Parties Say Evidence Surely Points to Murder. MYSTERY OF AFFAIR MADE IT FAMOUS. Committee in Charge of Investigation Makes Appeal for Contributions to Fund to Be Used in Convicting Guilty Ones. DES MOINES, Aug. 3.—(Special Telegram)—An appeal was made today to the citizens of Des Moines to subscribe to the reward for the arrest and conviction of the murderer of Mabel Scofield. Mabel Scofield's body was found in the river here a year ago but the mystery attending the case has made it famous. The statement issued today was signed by Alderman Eagen and said in part: "I am authorized by the committee in the Mabel Scofield case to make the following statement: 'That we have sufficient evidence to warrant us in saying Mabel Scofield was murdered. The governor has offered a reward of $500 for the conviction of the guilty parties and still nothing has come to light. The people in the towns in the vicinity of Macksburg have submitted a petition to the governor offering as a reward payable upon conviction and they think and the committee think, as the girl lost her life in our city, that we as a city are under obligations to do all in our power to ferret out the mystery. If you are committed ask the people to subscribe liberally to a fund to be added to the fund subscribed by Macksburg, to be offered as an additional reward for the arrest and conviction of the guilty party or parties. This will cost no one a cent unless there is a conviction, and if there is a conviction the satisfaction of having the mystery solved and to know the guilty parties are brought to justice will be worth to each subscriber and to our city many times our subscription.'"
