National hall. Thirteenth and Williams streets, was well filled last night, the occasion being the meeting of the First Ward Republican club. In calling the meeting to order President Sam Scott introduced Charles F. Tuttle, who delivered an address filled with facts and argu- pression. ment, which held the attention of the andience closely. The prophesies of the presidential candidates in 1896 were compared by the speaker, showing that those of Mr. Bryan failed in every particular, while those of Mr. McKinley were fulfilled to the minutest detail. He closed with an appeal to his hearers to join to the effort being made by the patriotic people of the country to retain in power the party of progress and national honor. The speech of the evening was made by Edward Resewater, who said in part: "This is to be an enthusiastic and sensational campaign-in fact, a dramatic campaign. Acting Police Justice Refuses to Accept a Worthless Bond.

A police court attorney sustained a severe shock Thursday when, tendering a worthless bond to Acting Police Judge Learn for approval, he was told that the court would withhold his O. K. The case was that of the six lewd women who had been arrested the night before in "Hoodlums" Paradise, in the rear of Odin's hall. The attorney wanted them released on bond pending their hearing, which takes place today, and in doing so offered as surety a police court satellite whose only real estate is of the kind that most people remove by means of soap and water. The judge insisted upon his positon and at last accounts the women were still in fail.

"We should see more of that in this court," said a reputable lawyer who chanced to witness the incident. "It is a reform that would greatly improve the efficiency of the police department. By the way, I notice they permit smoking in the court room today; suppose it's because this is the first time there has been no danger of setting fire to straw bonds."
