Man Found Dying in Box Car.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 24—A man supposed to be James S. Love of Chicago was found in a dying condition today in a box car in this city. By his side lay a paper labeled morphine. At the hospital, where he was taken, Dr. Nietat stated the man could hardly recover. In one of the man's inside pockets was found a letter addressed to James S. Love, Belleville, Ill. The letter had been written by Mrs. Emma Love, 18 Newberry street, Chicago, and was to her husband. She expressed surprise that he had lost his position. The man is apparently a mechanic about 40 years of age.
