Letter of Instructions Sent to American Ministers Abroad.

CHAFFEE'S SILENCE CAUSES WORRY

Absence of Expected Information as to Situation in Pekin Somewhat Handicaps Government at Present Time.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 25 .- The diplomatic feature of the Chinese situation today took precedence over both the naval and Americans, British and Japanese routed 3,000 military features. The officials of this Chinese and killed 300 of them. government were, if anything, more uncommunicative than heretofore as to the relations between the powers and China. It was stated authoritatively that no and that the diplomatic negotiations to the new German minister, Dr. Mumm could not be made public. The most unsatisfactory development of the day, so far as the pacific program of this govern- Heung Shan district. ment goes, was the receipt of a dispatch from Admiral Remey conveying the reports alarmed at the arrival of the extraordinary which had reached him of a disagreement between the commander of the Russian forces in Pekin and the other internationals. The text of the dispatch was not made public, but it was said on good authority to contain the statement that the Russian commander had forbidden communication with the Chinese on the ground that Russia was technically as well as practically at war with China. It may be said that this information was not conveyed by Admiral Remey as official news, but merely as a report from reliable sources, which he considered this government should possess for its own informa-

Russin Out of Tune.

Assuming Admiral Remey's report to be correct, this move on the part of Russia strikes the first note of discord in the powers. The possibilities of future complications that it opens up would be serious to a degree. It may be said, however, that the news is not taken very seriously by the government and certainly massacres which occurred there. will not affect our course in any way until it has been afficially confirmed. It was explained that the situation growing out of the joint occupation of Pekin by the powers was delicate, although not necessarily to be described as serious. The interests of all the powers there representated were at least competitive, if not antagonistic, and an ill-considered move on the part of ernments represented in China were anxious to avert any open clash if this erward closed." could be done without sacrificing what they considered their rights in the prem-
