START THE PAVING AGAIN

Controversy Over Quality of Brick is Settled Satisfactorily.

REJECTED LOADS ARE CAREFULLY CULED

One Inspector Removed and Everything Fixed Up Between the City Officials and the Contractors.

Work on the North Main street paving was resumed yesterday afternoon. By cutting the brick at the yards and again after it reached the paving sufficient material to meet the requirements of the city engineers was made on both sides and the controversy as to the quality of the brick being used was settled satisfactorily to both the contractor and the city engineer.

Joe Smith, one of the inspectors placed on the job by the city engineer, E. J. Brown, was taken off and the task of inspecting the brick was left to Inspector Mahlon Brown. This was done as the contractor complained that most of the trouble Friday was caused by the difference of opinion between the two inspectors as to what constituted good paving brick.

Once the trouble was settled work proceeded rapidly and by last evening a large section of the street was laid with two courses of brick. Mayor Jennings and several members of the city council who inspected the paving last evening expressed themselves as perfectly satisfied with the quality of brick being laid.

Work will be commenced as soon as the material arrives on the paving of Broadway between Indian creek bridge at Thirtieth street and the Northwestern track. This will be laid with Galesburg block on concrete base. The curbing is now being set preparatory to the paving.

As soon as the paving of North Main street is completed Contractor Wickham will commence work on Washington avenue which is to be paved with Des Moines brick for top course and Council Bluffs brick for bottom course. The old block paving on this street has been taken up to make room for the new paving. Work will also be commenced in a few days on the paving of Harrison street, which at the request of the property owners is to be laid with Council Bluffs brick, top and bottom courses.

LABOR DAY PARADE IS FORMED. Chairman Fisher Promises a Magnificent Demonstration on Monday.

Chairman W. B. Fisher of the committee having in charge the celebration of Labor Day by the local labor organizations reports everything in readiness for the biggest parade ever seen in Council Bluffs.

He says that advice indicate that upwards of 2,000 men will be in line Monday morning and that the exercises and sports at the parade will be attended by an immense crowd.

The parade will form around Baylis park on Willow avenue, Sixth street and First avenue at 10:30 a. m. The line of march will be south on Pearl street to the junction of Pearl and Main streets, north on Main street to Broadway, west on Broadway to South First street, counter-march on Broadway to Sixteenth street and then north on Sixteenth street to the driving park, where the exercises will be held.

The order of parade will be as follows: Platoon of police, in command of Chief Albro; mayor and aldermen in carriages, city and county officials in carriages, Omaha and Council Bluffs bricklayers, Omaha and Council Bluffs carpenters, Omaha and Council Bluffs painters and decorators, Omaha and Council Bluffs switchmen, Omaha and Council Bluffs printers, Omaha and Council Bluffs cigar-makers, Omaha and Council Bluffs Federal Labor union, Iron workers, bakers of Omaha and Council Bluffs, Brickmakers' union of Omaha, Daneso society, Modern Woodmen, Maccabees, Knights of Pythias and Council Bluffs fire department.

A number of bands will be in the parade. The committee receiving word yesterday that the Juvenile band of twenty-two pieces from Shenandoah was coming with a delegation of several hundred from that city. The officers of the day are: Marshal, Phil Hughes; carpenters, H. Kniglit; printers, Dave Nicol; switchmen, W. F. Ford and E. S. Lydie; cigar makers, Will Hansen; Federal Labor union, J. N. Wolf, J. H. Elsworth and William Garnahan.

The bricklayers will be headed by the Omaha band, the switchmen by the Juvenile band and the members of the Federal Labor union by the Council Bluffs band. The exercises at the park will consist of a number of addresses, the principal speaker being Mayor Victor Jennings, who, on behalf of the city, will deliver an address of welcome to the visiting labor unions and their friends; Judge Walter L. Smith of this city and Judge Edgar Howard of Nebraska.

Following the exercises there will be an interesting program of sports and races, the events being as follows: 100-yard foot race, half-mile amateur bicycle race, 50-yard woman's foot race, 50-yard foot race, free-for-all, 5-mile handicap bicycle race, 50-yard girls' race, 50-yard boys' race, running high jump, standing broad jump, one-mile horse race.

There will be two ball games. In the morning the printers and cigarmakers will cross bats with the Omaha bricklayers, and in the afternoon the Swifts of South Omaha will play conclusions with the ball players from Neola, Ia. Both of the latter teams are said to be ball players from Playerville and an interesting game can be looked for. The local merchants have been most liberal and have offered good prizes for the various races and other events.

In addition to these sports there will be numerous other amusements and attractions, including dancing on a platform built for the occasion. Entrance to the driving park and races will be entirely free.

Fate of a Farmer. A farmer from Mills county, who struck town yesterday afternoon on his way home from Des Moines, where he had been attending the State fair, had to run the gauntlet of every member of the police force and was taken to the city jail three times within an hour before the department was satisfied that he was not a crook and he was permitted to go on his way unmolested.

The trouble was due to a watch that the farmer had purchased at "a party" in the capital city. He had been inveigled into paying $6 for the timepiece and when he was under the impression he had secured a bargain until he struck Council Bluffs. The attractions at the State fair had depleted his stock of ready cash and when he reached the Bluffs he was in urgent need of money. He decided to sell the watch and made the round of the local pawnshops, where he endeavored to borrow $5 on the timepiece. As the watch was one of the articles that can be purchased for about $1 a bushel he was looked upon with suspicion and one of the pawn-brokers notified Detective Weir, who promptly got on the trail of the farmer and escorted him to the city jail. He was able to prove up all right and was allowed to go.

A few minutes later Dr. Sergeant Slack ran across him while he was endeavoring to sell the watch and he also escorted the farmer to jail. Again he was permitted to go, but he had barely reached Broadway before Officer Swanson placed him under arrest as a suspicious character and for the third time he was forced to make the acquaintance of the city jail. On being let go for the third time the farmer concluded he had had enough of Council Bluffs and trying to dispose of his watch, he looked up an acquaintance, borrowed enough money to buy a ticket and took the first train for his home in Harlan.

LAST WEEK IN LOCAL SOCIETY.

Weddings and Visits Make the Principal Events.

Last Monday evening, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Anderson, 1108 Avenue B, Miss Lillian Anderson was married to Adolph Bohner, one of the well known young business men of this city. The wedding was attended only by the relatives and a few of the most intimate friends of the young couple. The bride was attended by Miss Louise Baldwin and the groom by R. C. Williams. Rev. E. Venting of the First Baptist church officiated. The happy couple were the recipient of a number of beautiful and useful presents. PREMIUM CONCERN HAS FLED.

Women Who Saved Up Stamps Are Moving to Woodport.

There were a number of disappointed and indignant housewives in Council Bluffs yesterday when they gathered at the Co-operative Premium Stamp association store on Broadway, only to discover that the concern had packed up its goods and left over after the rush Friday and skipped the town. The only premiums left in the store were two cracked water pitchers and three the stamp holders decided they did not want.

Des Moines Store Loses Two Thousand Dollars Worth of Silks.

WORK PROBABLY DONE BY PROFESSIONALS

Two Shelves Were Stripped of Their Contents and Drove So Smoothly That It Takes Hours to Find Where Thieves Entered.

DES MOINES, Sept. 1.—(Special Telegram)—Two thousand dollars' worth of silks were stolen from the Fair store in East Des Moines. The robbers left no clue by which they may be followed. The work was evidently that of experts, for all cheaper grades of silk were left. This constitutes the climax to an extraordinary bad criminal record even for fair week. The robbery was not discovered until the store was opened for business this morning. Even the store had not been discovered in any way and it was not until the curtains which are used to protect the silk shelves were removed that the loss was apparent. Two shelves which had been loaded with valuable silks had been stripped of their contents.

Seeking a Pardon for McHugh. An effort is being made to secure the pardon of Charles Mathew McHugh, who was known as "Bugs" McHugh, the Griswold bank robber who was sentenced to ten years in the Fort Madison penitentiary for attempting to murder Deputy Sheriff Nick O'Brien.

McHugh was one of the gang of crooks which robbed the First National bank, Griswold, Ia., and was charged with being the one who, while the gang was being escorted from the Kiel hotel to the sheriff's office in the county court house, suddenly broke away, drew a revolver and shot O'Brien in the back. The work was done and it was not until a year after that he was captured in New York. He was tried at the September term of district court, 1907. J. J. Wilson and Charles Smith, two other notorious members of the gang, were convicted in the federal court for robbing the bank and were sentenced to long terms in the penitentiaries.

A delightful place, Lake Manawa, especially if you are in the mood for a party, produced upon the "Mar. Maurice" piano by such a celebrated artist as Prof. George H. Wood, this entire week. This is the kind of pianos handled at the Bourgeois Music House. They have several other makes and prices ranging from $25 to $350. Broadway, Tel. 466, where the organ stands upon the building.

Murphy Finds the Dog. The Murphy brothers who are giving balloon ascensions at Lake Manawa on Sundays were in Council Bluffs four years ago, when they gave a performance at the Driving park. One of the features of the show was the sending up of a trained dog in the balloon, the animal on reaching a certain height making a jump with a parachute.

One day the wind carried the balloon some distance from the park and the parachute and dog alighted in a field. The Murphys went to find the dog and the parachute. Since their arrival here this summer they have been instituting a search, which resulted yesterday in the recovery of the dog, a specimen of the Esquimaux breed. The dog had been in possession of the family of C. Anderson, 1117 North Eleventh street and Avenue F, for the last four years. The parachute, which had become decayed through age, was also found at the Anderson home.

One of Weir's Blunders. The arrest of Joseph Harvey Friday night on the charge of attempting to filch Mike Kildare of the Omaha saloon from the hands of the bartender, Weir's blunders. In police court yesterday morning Harvey proved to the satisfaction of the court that instead of sinning, he had been sinned against. He is an old soldier and a glass of beer. He allowed the bartender to hold out 20 cents on him, and when he expostulated he was kicked into the street and later arrested on the charge of attempting to shortchange Mike. The court promptly discharged the old man.

Patterson Sues for Commission. R. C. Patterson of Omaha commenced suit in district court here yesterday against H. R. Gould to recover $1,000. The defendant owns 515 acres of farm land near the town of Persia, Ia., and Patterson alleges that on June 5, he was engaged by Gould to secure him a purchaser for the land and to bring back $1,000. The plaintiff claims he did, but that Gould went back on the bargain and refused to carry out the sale. To compensate him for his loss of the commission and as pay for his services in securing a prospective purchaser, Patterson now asks the court to award him $1,000.

People Turned Away. Pawnee Bill's Wild West Hippodrome, Historical Wild West Hippodrome, is without any exception the best we have seen for many years. It is a pleasing and refined entertainment. At the afternoon performance the concern in an enclosed park was packed, and in the evening the theater was filled to obtain admission—Washington (D. C.) Post.

This show will exhibit in Council Bluffs, at Broadway and Twentieth street, next Tuesday, September 4.

Mutual Protective Picnic. The Mutual Protective society of Hazel Dell and Boomer townships will hold its picnic on the 11th inst. at Hazel Dell township in Perry's grove. In Hazel Dell township it will be a basket picnic, but free beef will be served for all at dinner time. There will be a number of good speakers and music and various amusements during the day. At night there will be dancing.

Bellevue Band for Council Bluffs. A committee which has been quietly at work for the past month to bring to Bellevue Band to Council Bluffs received notice from the manager yesterday that the Tommy Griffin cigar was the best ever sold in this city. Ask your wife's friend about it.

FATAL WRECK IN ILLINOIS. Men Are Thrown from the End of Car and One Killed.

CLINTON, Ia., Sept. 1.—(Special Telegram)—In a wreck this afternoon at Erie, Ill., a small town on the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy railroad, nineteen miles from here, the train was wrecked and fatally hurt. John Robinson, Morris Puchell and George Ritchie were riding on the end of a car that was switched into another train, throwing the men to the ground with great force, instantly killing John Robinson. The damage to the cars is slight.

Iowa Invention Perfected. JEFFERSON, Ia., Sept. 1.—(Special Telegram)—Laub & Pettennill owners and inventors of the Pettennill car coupler, have gone to Chicago to complete negotiations with the Gould Manufacturing company, one of the largest manufacturers of railway supplies in the United States, for the exclusive manufacture and sale of their device. Patentees are to receive 50 cents royalty on each coupler sold. This coupler is said by railway men to be the best device of the kind yet produced. It is entirely automatic, the car is coupled by the coupling and permits the coupling of cars of uneven height, all without the aid of human agency. Mr. Pettennill, the inventor, is a resident of this city and has spent a decade in perfecting the device.
