EXCITEMENT IN COTTON PIT

Everybody Wants to Buy and Prices Go Up with a Rush-Bulls NEW YORK, Sept. 10 .- The cotton market opened irregular and excited with prices up 43 to 61 points on a wave of buying an equal in size of which has not been witnessed on 'change in many years. Every broker had buying orders. Representatives of southern and foreign interests franti-knowledge of the crop condition previous to the storm declared the damage could not be less than 750,000 bales, with 1,000,-000 bales very possible, should the havoc spread further into the state, as seemed probable. Liverpool's response to the Texas disaster was a bulge of 15 to 29 points, later modified under heavy profit, taking. For the time being all thought of the September government report due at noon was relegated to the background. Not a word came over the wires from Galveston or Sabine Pass and conjectures alone could be made as to the amount of damage done. Near midday the market quieted down somewhat, but the price continued fitful with frequent spasms of buying and selling recorded. The closing cables showed prices in Liverpool to be about unchanged from the figures current at the time of our opening Private cables summed up the Eng-
