WEEKLY REVIEW OF TRADE

Texas Storm and Miners' Strike Are Important Factors of Market.

COTTON REACHES RECORD BREAKING POINT

Corn Crop Has Matured Under Favorable Weather and is Regarded as Generally Out of Danger—Business is Good at Iron Mills.

NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—The Weekly Review of Trade tomorrow will be devoted to the cotton market.

The tropical storm that devastated the Gulf coast, almost wiped out the cotton crop of the country.

An aided cause of hesitation in business is the market for the cotton crop.

The weather has continued favorable for the cotton crop, which is being harvested.

Cotton closed last week at the highest price since the start of the season.
